Stakeholder input and analysis-produced themes

Steering team members identified a number of recurring themes during the Discovery Sessions. The following categories provide additional context, highlighting the diverse perspectives that emerged. The themes identified include:

IDENTITY

BELONGINGNESS

CONNECTEDNESS

RACE/DIVERSITY

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Market analysis-informed value proposition and demand

A study led by Gallup and Purdue University found that just 3 percent of all college graduates say they had all six of the experiences – “The Big Six” – that strongly relate to whether they felt their colleges prepared them well for life.

Together, and individually, the Gallup-Purdue Index finds these six experiences have a greater effect on long-term life outcomes such as employee engagement and well-being — even more than the type of school these graduates attended (for example, public or private).

PRIORITIES — COMMITMENT STATEMENT

Dedicating ourselves to the curation of a first-choice university.

The “Big Six”

SUPPORT

- I had at least one professor who made me excited about learning.
- My professors cared about me as a person.
- I had a mentor who encouraged me to pursue my goals and dreams.

EXPERIENCE

- I worked on a project that took a semester or more to complete.
- I had an internship or job that allowed me to apply what I was learning in the classroom.
- I was extremely active in extracurricular activities and organizations.

STRATEGIC PRIORITY 1

Relevance

UWG will continue to evolve to be more relevant to students' needs (both inside and outside the classroom), as well as adapt to a changing world and economy.

- Update existing programs and develop new programs based on continuous market analysis in order to engage students and provide them with 21st century learning experiences.
- Launch or advance each students' career before graduation by ensuring they work on at least one meaningful project (experiential learning) that takes a semester or more to complete.
- Elevate ALL students' professional, cultural, and global competencies via co-curricular experiences.
- Leverage the geography of UWG to be an economic and intellectual engine for companies, communities, and organizations through talent-development and mutually beneficial partnerships.
- Define pathways to post-graduation through an institutional commitment to elevating and advancing internships, experiential learning, intentional mentorship, and professional and community-based networking for all students.

STRATEGIC PRIORITY 2

Competitiveness

UWG curates its operations around higher end-user expectations in order to emerge as the first choice for students, employees, employers, alumni, and supporters.

- Elevate institutional visibility and reputation by promoting the successes and contributions of students, faculty, staff, and alumni.
- Be distinct — design distinctive, world-class experiences inside and outside the classroom for all who “Go West,” differentiating ourselves from our peers and aspirants.

- Embed excellence in service — create remarkable experiences through proactive service excellence (everyone feels “expected”).
- Recruit, hire, and continually develop a high-performing, diverse workforce.
- Implement a holistic, institution-wide integrated wellness framework to enhance the lives and performance of students, employees, and external communities we serve.
- Advance the front porch of the university by engineering the student athletic, artistic, and other externally facing (or audience-centered) experiences around a culture of excellence.
- Shape and deploy next-generation operating and service models emphasizing financial stability and wherewithal; focus on creating margin in our resources to facilitate investment in the “next.”

STRATEGIC PRIORITY 3

Placemaking

A public university is a unique institution in the United States that has the capacity to provide a holistic “sense of place.” UWG will live up to that expectation all the time.

- Strengthen the sense of belonging and connectedness at UWG by intentionally nurturing relationships and bonds among students, faculty, staff, alumni, and communities.
- Intentionally cultivate a safe and inviting environment that seamlessly integrates equitable principles in all institutional actions.
- Continuously elevate physical and digital spaces, presentation, and service to cultivate a clear, distinctive UWG identity and experience on campus and throughout the region.
- Cultivate traditions and experiences that people are eager to engage with and that enliven a sense of pride in being a part of the University of West Georgia.
