Course Requirements:
- Work the required number of hours at your internship site.
  - For 3 credit hours, you must work 125 internship hours over the semester.
  - For 6 credit hours, you must work 250 internship hours.
- Each week, post your response to the Weekly Question on the CourseDen discussion board. Your post should be at least 100 words and should be able to tell that you have seriously engaged with the question.
- Turn in the following forms:
  - Internship Agreement Form – as soon as possible
  - Time Log – at the end of the semester
  - Supervisor Evaluation – at the end of the semester
- Write a 6-8 page Internship Analysis Paper. In this paper, you should:
  - Describe your internship site – how it is organized, what its mission is, and how it functions on a daily basis.
  - Describe your activities at your internship site. What did you learn and what new experiences did you have? In your paper, you should include specific examples of what you did and how you used new skills.
  - How does this experience relate to your studies as a sociology major? In your paper, you should make at least 2 connections sociological concepts and something about your internship. Explain the concept and then explain how it can be applied to your internship site.
  - Your paper should have an introduction and a conclusion and should be proofread both for spelling/grammar and to make sure your ideas are clear. It is due by Friday, December 11th to the CourseDen dropbox.

Grades:
SOC 4386 is graded pass/fail. I will assign you a grade based on your completion of the following requirements:
- Completion of 125/250 internship hours
- Turning in required forms
- Weekly Question posts on CourseDen
- Internship Analysis Paper