Alumni Collection
Finding Aid

Scope and Content
The Alumni Collection formally belongs to the University of West Georgia’s Office of Alumni Affairs. The Center for Public History has been entrusted to organize and care for the collection, which was gathered for a Historic Preservation project, in anticipation of the establishment of a university museum. This collection includes letters of correspondence, photographs, college newspapers The West Georgian and The Campus Chronicle, financial statements, postcards, and other memorabilia including necklaces, pins, pennants, and invitations to events.
