

International Economic Affairs

Careers:

Internationally-oriented careers in banking & finance, management, stock brokerage, commodities trading, real estate, journalism, education & government to name a few.

Major Courses:

This is a liberal arts and internationally-oriented degree. This multi-disciplinary major requires courses in international economics, political science, geography, history and foreign language. Students may minor in a foreign language or business.

Further Education:

- Master in Business Administration (MBA)
- Master of Arts (MA)
- Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) in economics or another social science

Student Clubs and ## Career Networking:

- Economic Forecast Breakfast
- Center for Economic Education (UWG)
- Omicron Delta Epsilon

Department Website:
<http://www.westga.edu/~econ/>

