✓ Complete the entire form: Section I, II, and III.
✓ Initial where you have crossed out
✓ Sign the certification statement

Dependent Students:
✓ If both parents are living and are married to each other: answer the questions on the entire form about them.
✓ If parents are divorced or separated: Answer the questions on this form about the parent you lived with most in the past 12 months. If you did not live with one parent more than the other in the past 12 months, answer in terms of the parent who provided you the most financial support during that time.
✓ If parent is widowed or single: Answer questions on this form about the surviving parent – do not include information about the deceased or absent parent.
✓ If you have a step-parent: If the parent you are completing this form about has married, or remarried, you must include information about your step-parent, even if they were not married in 2009. If you are answering questions about your step-parent, note that whenever we say “parents” on the rest of this form, we also mean your step-parent.
✓ Grandparents and guardians cannot substitute for parents. Please contact our office for assistance
✓ Parent and student sign certification statement below.

I. Marital Status:
Please check your current marital status (also check your parent’s if you are a dependent student)
