Minor (15-18 hours)

Check requirements with departments

Electives—from any department (hours vary depending on minor, so select electives so as to complete 120 hours. Subtract core, major, AND minor hours from 120 to get elective hours).

_ _ 2 WAC courses (at least 1 in PSYC)
[please note that this is not 2 additional courses]

Important Things to Keep in Mind about Advising:

- a) you need 120 hours to graduate, 39 of which need to be above the 3000 level
- b) you need a 2.5 grade point average to declare Psychology as your major
- c) you need to declare Psychology as your major by filling out the requisite paperwork with the department secretary
- d) being a Pre-Psychology major is NOT a formal declaration of Psychology as your major
- e) if you do not have a 2.0 grade point average after completing 60 hours of course work, it will be very difficult to get your grade point average up to the 2.5 required to declare Psychology as your major. You should speak with your advisor about the wisdom of remaining a pre-Psychology major during your Junior and Senior years. You do NOT want to have all of your core and major coursework completed and a GPA too low to declare
- f) the very latest you can declare Psychology your major is the semester prior to the semester you graduate
- g) you need to take TWO WAC courses, at least one of which is a Psychology course
- h) WAC courses are not additional courses you have to take
- i) you should make an appointment with the Registrar after 80 hours of course work for your Senior Evaluation
- j) you cannot use the same course to count in more than one category of this checklist
- k) meet regularly with your advisor, and talk about your career rather than just the courses you need for next semester
- l) if you are interested in Graduate School or internships, talk to your advisor early rather than waiting until your senior year.
