

BE ON THE LOOKOUT (BOLO)

The Carrollton Police Department has arrested several individuals for stealing property from automobiles in the city of Carrollton. It is possible that some of the thefts occurred on the University campus as well. Carrollton Police currently have a substantial amount of recovered personal property in their possession. Anyone who has had property stolen from their vehicle recently may contact the Carrollton Police Department Criminal Investigations Division to ascertain if they may be in possession of their property. The phone number for the Carrollton Police Department is 770-834-4451.