The Management Department’s Spring 2016 Study Abroad course will include a 10-day trip to China (Beijing & Shanghai). While in China students will visit a variety of international business firms with numerous opportunities for direct interaction with top executives. Students will also enjoy many sightseeing tours and cultural experiences.

ACADEMIC AND CULTURAL HIGHLIGHTS
- World’s 2nd largest economy
- World’s oldest continuous civilization
- Include visits to Tian’anmen Square & Forbidden City, the Great Wall of China, Lama Temple, Zhujiajiao Water Town, and travel on a high speed train

COURSES OFFERED
Undergraduate
- MGNT 4682
- ECON 3490
Graduate
- MGNT 6685
- ECON 6470

FOR DETAILS CONTACT
Dr. John Upson - Management
jupson@westga.edu

Dr. Erich Bergiel - Management
ebergiel@westga.edu

Liz Runyan - Management
lrunyan@westga.edu

Capacity is limited, so plan ahead and apply early!