

Professional Disclosure Statement

This is a statement of professional disclosure for Lisa Adams, Ph.D, LPC

Dr. Adams holds a Doctoral Degree in Counselor Education and Supervision from Auburn University conferred in December 2008, and maintains licensure as a professional counselor (license# LPC003908) with the Georgia Composite Board of Professional Counselors, Social Workers, and Marriage and Family Therapists through the office of the Secretary of State.

Dr. Adams' professional counseling experience includes individual and group therapy in university and college settings, and in her private practice. Dr. Adams specializes in career counseling, academic counseling and gender issues. Dr. Adams has been providing counseling services at the University of West Georgia Counseling & Career Development Center since August 2008.

Counselors at the Counseling & Career Development Center utilize a developmental model of therapy offering a holistic, humanistic and individualized approach. Counseling services are confidential and free of charge to students enrolled at the University of West Georgia. If a student is not enrolled during a summer semester, but is registered for the subsequent fall semester, he/she may attend counseling sessions. Career instruments and evaluations are provided for a small fee, please inquire with office personnel regarding cost.

In some instances, providing a mental health diagnosis is necessary. Your counselor will discuss this with you. Please be aware that diagnostic information will become a part of client record. When medications are prescribed to accompany counseling, the Counseling & Career Development Center will be coordinating with Health Services personnel to ensure a continuum of care. You will be asked to sign a 'Release of Information' for all other requests of documentation or communication from the Counseling & Career Development Center.

If you are concerned that Dr. Adams has violated your privacy rights, or if you disagree with a decision about access to your records, you may contact the Counseling & Career Development Center office manager at 678-839-6428. You may also contact the Georgia Composite Board of Professional Counselors, Social Workers and Marriage and Family Therapists at: 237 Coliseum Drive, Macon, GA 31217-3858, phone# 478-207-2440.

Signing below indicates an understanding and acceptance of all documentation provided. If there are any questions about this information, please do not hesitate to inquire with a member of the office staff.
