PROFESSIONAL CONFERENCES

ATTENDED

Charles Clarke (Dean of the College of Graduate Studies and Professor of History): The Southeast Regional Middle East and Islamic Studies Conference, held in Valle Crucis, North Carolina, October 9-11, 2009.

Lisa Osbeck (Associate Professor of Psychology): The American Psychological Association’s Annual Convention, held in Toronto, Canada, August 6-9, 2009.

PAPERS PRESENTED

Thomas Foster (Assistant Professor of Anthropology) and Barbara Kawulich: “Aspects of Creek Removal,” Trail of Tears Association’s Annual Conference, held in Guntersville, Alabama, October 7, 2009.

Kareen Malone (Professor of Psychology): “Using Lacan to Think Through the Subject of Discourse Psychology,” American Psychological Association’s Annual Convention, held in Toronto, Canada, August 6-9, 2009.

Alan Pope (Associate Professor of Psychology): “Psychospiritual Transformation in the 21st Century,” Invited Address delivered at the American Psychological Association’s Annual Convention, held in Toronto, Canada, August 6-9, 2009.

Discussant

Brad Yates (Associate Professor of Mass Communications): He served as the Discussant for the Top 5 Papers presented at “The Best of ESIG Research Session,” Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication’ Conference, Boston, Massachusetts, August 5-9, 2009.

PUBLICATIONS

BOOK CHAPTERS

Catherine Jenks (Assistant Professor of Sociology/Criminology) and John Fuller (Professor of Sociology/Criminology): “Civility in Prisons: A Radical Proposal,” in David Polizzi and Michael Braswell (eds), Transforming Corrections: Humanistic Approaches to Corrections and Offender Treatment, Durham, NC: Carolina Academic Press, 2009, pp. 139-148.

JOURNAL ARTICLES

Gary Schmidt (Associate Professor and Interim Chair, Foreign Languages and Literature): “Between Authors and Agents: Gender and Affirmative Culture in Das Leben der Anderen,” The German Quarterly, 82(2), 2009.

OTHER

PERFORMANCES

Daniel Bakos (Professor of Music): Jazz Quartet Concert for the Opening of the Middle Grades Building at Darlington School, Rome, Georgia, September 9, 2009; arrangement of his own composition Happy New Ahnyo and Hot Wheels for Jazz Percussion(scored for three horns and percussion); and composition of jazz work, C’ton Cha Cha Cha for both Jazz Percussion(scored for five horns and percussion) and Jazz Nonet(two trumpets, alto and tenor saxophone, trombone, piano, bass, drums and Latin percussion).

Amy Cuomo (Associate Professor of Theater): She directed “Lady Windermere’s Fan,” Main Stage Theatre of the Townsend Center for the Performing Arts, September 30 ‐ October 4, 2009.

Carol Gingerich (Associate Professor of Music) and Elizabeth Kramer (Assistant Professor of Music): “Performing Farewell in 1809: A Lecture ‐ Recital on Beethoven’s Piano Sonata Op 81a,” University of West Georgia’s Faculty Recital, October 1, 2009.

RESEARCH GRANTS

Thomas Foster (Assistant Professor of Anthropology): “Paleobotany of the Leake Site,” Georgia Department of Transportation, $15,353.00.

Hans Gerhardt (Assistant Professor of Geosciences): “Collaborative Research: Territorial Imaginaries and Arctic Sovereignty Claims,” National Science Foundation, $82,710.00. This is part of a larger collaborative project worth over $370,000.00.

Farooq Khan (Associate Professor of Chemistry): “Understanding the Role of Metal Ions in Mass Spectrometric Ionization Processes: Experimental and Computational Studies,” for undergraduate research, American Chemical Society funded by the Petroleum Research Fund, $65,000.00.

Larry Schor (Associate Professor of Psychology): “The Continued Development of www.georgiadisaster.info,” Georgia Department of Human Resources Disaster Mental Health, $30,000.00.

Marjorie Snipes (Professor and Chair of Anthropology) and Mark Tietjen (Assistant Professor of Philosophy): They received a research grant from the John Templeton Foundation, as one of the 72 pairs of scientists-theologians in the United States to attend and participate in the Sciences for Ministry Institute at Princeton University’s Theological Seminary. This is a three-year program, which commenced in the fall 2009.
SCHOLARLY HONORS AND AWARDS

Mary Kay McBrayer (Senior Undergraduate English Major): Her paper on “Lauren Slater’s Lying: A Metaphorical Memoir,” has been accepted for presentation at the prestigious International Auto/Biography Association’s Conference in Sussex, England, in June 2010.

Kareen Malone (Professor of Psychology): She was elected President of Division 24: Society for Theoretical and Philosophical Psychology, American Psychological Association, 2009-2010.

Lisa Osbeck (Associate Professor of Psychology): She has been appointed to the Editorial Boards of the Journal of Theoretical and Philosophical Psychology, and Theory and Psychology.

Alan Pope (Associate Professor of Psychology): He received Division 32 of the American Psychological Association’s “Carmi Harari Early Career Award for Inquiry” for outstanding contribution to inquiry in Humanistic and Interpersonal Psychology.

Kendall Pope (English Graduate, Class of 2009): His essay, “Monster Lore,” has won an award of $500.00, and will appear in an upcoming issue of Memoirs, Ink.

Brad Yates (Associate Professor of Mass Communications): He served as the Head of the Entertainment Studies Interest Group Session (ESIG) for the Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication, 2009.