END OF THE SEMESTER ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. The essay is due on Monday, April 26 by 5:00. If you hand it in between 12:00 and 5:00, you need to bring it to my office in 3210TLC and hand it to me in person.

2. Test III (the final exam) is on Friday, April 30 from 11:00 to 1:00 in our usual classroom. It will follow the same format with the same number of questions as the other tests, but you will have twice as long to take it. It will cover the assignment sheets for Chapters 25, 26, 27A, 27B, 28, and 29. If I do not cover all of Chapter 29 in class, I’ll do a revised version of this announcement on the afternoon of April 28, indicating which questions I cannot ask on the test. All of the assignment sheets are available on my website.

3. The optional review session will be on Thursday, April 29 from 11:00-12:00 in our classroom, Bonner Lecture Hall.

4. You may hand in any comment sheets, extra credit reports, or redone tests by 5:00 on Wednesday, May 5. Anything you hand in after the final exam, you should put under the door to my office (3210 TLC). Send an email telling me that you have done this.

5. You can see your semester grade by going to BanWeb after I have entered the grades. At the latest, this will be by the morning of Monday, May 10. I shall aim to do them by Friday evening on May 7, but I am not going to make any promises about this.

6. Even if I have finished grading your essays by the time of the final, I shall not be handing them back or telling you your grade because sometimes, when I am doing the semester grades, I rethink how I graded the essays. If you want to know your grade on the essay and/or the last test, you may email me between May 10 and July 20. At that point, I’ll put the grades inside a folded and taped piece of paper with your name on it and stick that in the box by my office door (3210 TCL). If you want the tests and/or essays back with comments on them, you need to give me a week and then make an appointment to get them from me in person. I do not get email anywhere except in my office and I shall not always be in town once school is out, but once I have answered your email, you can know that I have done what you have asked me to do.

7. Because I am retiring after this semester, I do not have to hand out the standard evaluation forms. Anyone who wishes to make a comment about this class or anything else connected with the university may do so anonymously by putting a note in one of the brown envelopes marked “Evaluation Comments” that will be by the usual folders. Will Avery, our graduate student assistant, will take the responsibility of giving them to the Chair of the Department of History. I do not have the right to see them until I have recorded all of your grades.

8. Best of luck in this last stage of the semester. I have enjoyed my last survey and hope you have a terrific summer.
