

Florida Gulf Coast University

Master of Education/Master of Arts in Elementary Education

As a teacher who will exit one of Florida Gulf Coast University's Master's Degree Programs in Elementary Education, your knowledge and instructional practices will reflect the quality of your education and the degree to which you consciously apply your internalized principles. Your students are the ultimate measure of success for FGCU.

The goals of the Master's Degree Programs in Elementary Education are for the graduates of the program to reflect an extensive knowledge base of content applicable to elementary education, to apply principles of instruction from the knowledge base, and to articulate and reflect on competencies and practices that impact the learning of their students.

To meet these goals, students will demonstrate competency in each of Florida's Educator Accomplished Practices (FEAPs). Documentation of competency in the FEAPs will be presented in a format that reflects the five core propositions of the National Board of Professional Teaching Standards.
