Requirements for the Minor in American Studies

The American Studies minor requires fifteen (15) hours taken from the following:

1. ONE course (3 hours) chosen from the following:
ENGL 2130, HIST 2111 or 2112
NOTE: English majors must take HIST 2111 or 2112, and History majors must take ENGL 2130.
All other majors may choose any one of these three courses.
2. FOUR (12 hours) which include the following:
 - A. ENGL/HIST 3300, Studies in American Culture (3 hours).
Prerequisite: ENGL 2130, HIST 2111 or HIST 2112
This is a methods course in American Studies and is required for the Minor.
 - B. 3/4000-Level Electives (9-12 hours)
NOTE: A minimum of nine (9) hours chosen from approved upper-division courses in various disciplines. The minor must include one upper-level course from English, one from History, and one from another discipline. English and History majors who opt for the American Studies minor will choose no upper-level elective from their major discipline, but will instead substitute a course from another discipline. English and History majors who take ENGL/HIST 3300 for the major must take an additional upper-level elective to satisfy the American Studies minor. See American Studies Program Coordinator for approval of upper-division courses.

I have read and I understand the prescribed course requirements listed above leading to the minor in American Studies, and I accept without condition the relevant policies and requirements.
