

Ernest McClendon

Atlanta Chamber Orchestra member since 1998. Holds a Doctorate in Education. Served as band teacher for many years in Georgia and retired as Principal of Carrollton Jr. High School in Carrollton, Georgia. Proud to be the grandfather of 12 grandchildren with Doris, his lovely wife of over 50 years. Knows just about everyone in Georgia and plays Golf almost daily! His past time includes teaching violin at home, developing his youth orchestra, traveling in his RV, playing the violin, and most importantly Enjoying retired life with his lovely wife and 12 grandchildren! Admired and respected for his life high achievements, a true inspiration to us all!! Dr. McClendon seats in many art organizations board of directors.