Your FAFSA application has been selected for a process called “Verification”. In this process, we will be comparing information from your application with the students (if filed) and parent’s 2006 federal tax return and household information that is requested on the verification form. During this process if there is conflicting data, additional documentation will be required to obtain an accurate calculation.

Please read and follow these instructions to complete the attached verification form. Failure to answer each question will delay the process of your application and may result in loss of institutional funding.

Section A – 2006 Income Tax Information

You must provide student and parent’s (must include step-parent’s if remarried) 2006 federal income tax returns plus all 2006 W-2 forms. Acceptable forms include a signed copy of the original: 1040, 1040A or 1040EZ submitted to the IRS. Form 8453 is not acceptable. During this process you may be required to submit a confirmation or statement from IRS and/or an amended tax return should it be determined that there is conflicting data with what you have submitted.

Financial aid administrators (FAA’s) must have a fundamental understanding of relevant tax issues that can considerably affect the need analysis. Because conflicting data often involves such information, FAA’s are obligated to know: whether a person was required to file a tax return, what the correct filing status for a person should be, and that an individual cannot be claimed as an exemption by more than one person or claim a person that they have not supported. For example, a FAA noticing that a dependent student’s married parents have each filed as “head of household” (which offers a greater tax deduction than filing as single or married) might question whether that is the correct filing status. Visit www.irs.gov for Publication 17 of the IRS, Your Federal Income Tax, describes on p. 25 the requirements that a person must meet to file as head of household. An amended tax return may be required before you can be awarded aid.

Marital Status: Please check the appropriate box for your parents’ status as of this day and give date of this status. (i.e.; if married give wedding date; divorced, give date of final decree). If your biological parents are divorced/widowed and the parent you live with is remarried you must include step-parent’s information.
Section B - Household members and who will be in college

If your biological parents are married to each other, provide information about them. If your biological parents are divorced (or widowed) provide information about the parent/step-parent you lived with more during the past 12 months. If you did not live with one parent more than the other, give information about the parent/step-parent that provided more financial support during the last 12 months. You cannot use information from guardians, grandparents or anyone else you may have lived with. You must use biological parent's information only.

Who counts in Parent's/Step-parent’s Household:

List the people in your parent's/step-parent’s household: (a) yourself (b) your parents even if you did not live with your parents; (c) your parent's other children, if your parents will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2007 through June 30, 2008. If you have siblings or others (i.e. grandparents and grandchildren) living in the home that work or receive social security or disability do not include them unless your parents provide more support than their benefits provide. (Adequate documents may be required i.e. legal guardianship documents, proof of foster care, income tax forms or 1099).

Who will be in college:

Write in the name of the college for any family member listed in household size (excluding parents) who will be attending college at least half-time (6 hours per semester or quarter) between July 1, 2007 and June 30, 2008 and will be enrolled in a degree seeking undergraduate program. Confirmation may be required.

Section C – Worksheets

This page must be completed by student and parent/step-parent. If the answer to a question is zero, write zero in the space provided, otherwise the Verification Form will be returned to you. Question regarding Social Security must include benefits for all family members in household size. Also questions regarding child support require the names of children that support is paid and received for. If support received is zero and there are children under 18 years of age please explain why support is not received. This form will be returned if this is left blank. Divorce decree may be required. Question regarding grants and scholarships is only applicable if reported on your 2006 federal tax forms.

SECTION D – Signatures

Student and Parent signatures are required on the back of the verification worksheet.
