

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures of the University of West Georgia invites abstracts and panel proposals from scholars in a variety of humanities fields for its 2009

Interdisciplinary Conference on History and Fiction

Cultural Arts Center in Carrollton, GA November 12-14, 2009.

Keynote address by Dr. Ed Friedman, Chancellor's Professor of Spanish and Comparative Literature and Director of the Robert Penn Warren Center for the Humanities, Vanderbilt University.

Papers may be read in English, Spanish, French, or German.

Conference participants will be encouraged to expand and revise their papers for submission to JAISA: The Journal of the Association for the Interdisciplinary Study of the Arts.

Please submit one-page abstracts or panel proposals to Dr. Julia Farmer (jfarmer@westga.edu) by May 1, 2009. For panel proposals please submit abstracts and contact information for all speakers, name and contact information for panel moderator, and panel title.
