THE IMPORTANCE OF ADMISSION TEST SCORES

All individuals applying for admissions to graduate programs at the University of West Georgia must take the appropriate test. For graduate programs in the Arts & Sciences, prospective students must submit an official GRE score.

REGULAR ADMISSION

- 2.5 grade point average on all undergraduate work
- A GRE score of at least 800 - (minimum 400 Verbal score and minimum 400 Quantitative and/or Analytical, whichever of the two scores is higher. This will only affect test scores taken prior to October 2002. For applicants submitting test scores after October 2002, the Verbal and Quantitative scores will be considered. Applicants must also submit a minimum GRE Analytical Writing test score of 3.5.

NOTE: It is very important for every candidate to know that the above represents the minimum admission standards. No candidate shall be considered for admission in the Department of Sociology & Criminology if she or he does not meet these minimal admission standards.

PROVISIONAL ADMISSION

Applicants with less than the required GPA and GRE scores may be considered for provisional admission if the undergraduate grade point average multiplied by 100 and added to the student's verbal and quantitative scores on the GRE Test equals a minimum of 1000. In no event may the grade point average be less than 2.2 or the score on any portion of the GRE be less than 350. Applicants must also submit a minimum writing score of 3.0. Meeting the criteria for provisional status is no guarantee of admission. Provisional admission is ultimately subject to departmental approval and the Dean of the Graduate School.

ADMISSION TEST INFORMATION

Computer-based testing for the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) is available throughout the year by calling 1-800-GRE-CALL or visiting online at www.gre.org/gentest.html. You can also obtain information on test dates and registration for the GRE. If you need more information, please call the Graduate School Office at 678-839-6419.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

As your admissions letter states, no more than 9 hours taken as a post baccalaureate or non-degree student may subsequently be applied to a degree. In most situations, students will not be allowed to take the full 9 hours; therefore, students attempting to gain admittance to a degree program should make every effort to take the appropriate admissions test as soon as possible.
