

CURRICULUM VITAE

Thomas Gregory Heath

Address: 100 Camp Drive Carrollton, Georgia 30117

Phone: 770-832-3696

E-mail Address: Gandlheath@charter.net

Family Status: Married with three daughters

Objective My goal is to work as a primary, mid-level healthcare provider in the role of a family nurse practitioner. My main area of interest is patient teaching and education.

Education

Kennesaw State University	Kennesaw, Georgia
• WellStar Primary Care Nurse Practitioner Program MSN Nursing 12/19/2003	GPA 3.95
State University of West Georgia	Carrollton, Georgia
• BS Nursing 5/2002	GPA 3.78
• AS Nursing 5/1999
• Program accredited by National League of Nursing Accrediting

Licensure Georgia Board of Professional Nursing Advanced Practice – NP
License Number 913476

Georgia State Board of Nursing Registered Nurse
License Number R144729

Honors

- Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society
- Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing
- Graduated Cum Laude
- Dean's List at the State University of West Georgia
- Ingram Scholar at the State University of West Georgia in recognition of maintaining a GPA of 3.75 or greater for four consecutive semesters
- HOPE Scholarship recipient

Employment History

- Center for Allergy & Asthma, January 2004-present
825 Dixie Street, Carrollton, GA 30117 and
705 Dallas Hwy, Villa Rica, GA 30180
- Family Nurse Practitioner, responsible for direct patient care and services

Tanner Medical Center, Carrollton, Georgia July 1999-Dec 2003

This facility is a medical / surgical hospital with two hundred patient beds. The hospital serves a three county area including portions of Eastern Alabama.

Emergency Room Nurse June 2002-Dec2003

- Responsible for patient care in a Level 2 emergency room where approximately forty-five hundred patients are treated annually. 65% are adult patients and 35% are pediatric patients.
- Patient triage to assess acuity level of the patient at the point of entry
- Patient education and family teaching concerning emergency room diagnosis, medications, and referrals for follow up appointments

Surgical Nurse February 2000 – June 2002

- Part of the surgical team in a seven suite surgical department. Operative specialties include: General Surgery, Otolaryngology, Orthopedics, Ob/Gyn, Ophthalmology, Plastic Surgery, Urology, and Podiatry.
- Responsible for patient care, support, and education before, during, and after surgical procedures
- Responsible for the surgical team in the capacity of circulating nurse of the surgical suite
- Assist surgeons with operative procedures as a scrub nurse
- Responsible for keeping family members advised of the patient's condition

Critical Care Nurse- ICU July 1999 – February 2000

- A member of a critical care team responsible for patients in a six bed intensive care unit and a 4 bed intermediate care unit.
- Responsible for primary patient care

- Responsible for the monitoring and management of patients requiring intravenous cardiac drugs
- Responsible for the management of patients on mechanical ventilation
- Responsible for the management of a 25 unit cardiac telemetry system

Certifications

- American Academy of Nurse Practitioners
- ACLS - Advanced Cardiac Life Support
- PALS - Pediatric Advanced Life Support
- CPI - Crisis Prevention Intervention
- BCLS - Basic Cardiac Life Support

Residency Experience

- Residency I Internal Medicine August 2002 - November 2002
Preceptor - Dr. Kevin Webster MD
West Georgia Internal Medicine Carrollton, Georgia
- Residency II Family Practice January 2003- April 2003
Preceptor- Dr. Michael Poss MD
Professional Park Medical Services Carrollton, Georgia
- Residency III Pediatrics May 2003- July 2003
Preceptor- Jim Martin FNP
Cornerstone Pediatrics Douglasville, Georgia
- Residency IV Women's Health August 2003- November 2003
Preceptor- Martha Gibbs FNP
State University of West Georgia Carrollton, Georgia
- Residency V Family Practice August 2003- November 2003
Preceptor- Dr. Michael Poss MD
Professional Park Medical Services Carrollton, Georgia

Research

Kennesaw State University

May – November 2003

“A Comparative Study of Temperature Measurements Using Electronic Digital Oral Thermometers and Infrared Tympanic Thermometers”

References available upon request