Registration: Registration is free of charge. However, all participants must register in advance, due to limited seating and so that we will be able to plan appropriately for the conference. Registration is done online at <http://www.westga.edu/~math/IntegersConference2007/>

Supporting Organization: The National Science Foundation

Location, Travel, Accomodations: The conference will be held on the campus of the University of West Georgia in Carrollton. The city of Carrollton is about 45 miles west of Atlanta. Those coming by air should fly into Atlanta. Directions, maps of the campus, and parking information will be sent to all who register. A block of rooms has been set aside at the reduced rate of $79 at the Hampton Inn ((770) 838-7862), and another block of rooms at the Holiday Inn Express ((770)-838-0508) at a reduced rate of $72; both hotels are in Carrollton. In order to obtain the reduced rate, you must make your own reservations directly with the hotel and say you are with "The Math Conference." There are several other nearby hotels including: Quality Inn (877-434-6835) and Jameson Inn (770-834-2600).

Proceedings: Papers presented at the conference will be considered for publication in a special issue of Integers:Electronic Journal of Combinatorial Number Theory. The Proceedings' papers will be handled according to the journal's usual refereeing process. The deadline for submission of these articles is February 1, 2008.

Organizing Committee: Bruce Landman, Melvyn Nathanson, Jarik Nesetril, Richard Nowakowski, Carl Pomerance
