

JOIN THE UWG SPORT MANAGEMENT SOCIETY

The Sport Management Society (SMS) is geared toward providing professional development opportunities for those who have an interest in working in the sport industry. Members will have the opportunity to interact with a number of sport business professionals through on-campus visits as well as off-campus trips. Some of the benefits of membership include:

- ◇ SMS t-shirt
- ◇ Notification when industry guest speakers will be on campus
- ◇ Opportunities to learn about internships and jobs in the sport industry directly from employers
- ◇ Special trips to off-campus conferences and events available exclusively to SMS members
- ◇ Opportunities to serve in leadership positions and build your resumé for future employment and grad school admissions
- ◇ Access to the Sport Management Professional Development Center in the new UWG Health & Wellness Center (beginning January 2009)
- ◇ Opportunity to develop relationships with those who share the same passion as you do – the business of sports!

Membership dues for the 2008-09 school year are $25. To register please bring cash or check (payable to: Sport Management Society) to 119W Row Hall. Questions? Contact one of the SMS Officers for '08-'09:
