

Criminology Internships

COURSE: CRIM 4286

Internships are offered in the Department of Sociology and Criminology each semester (fall, spring, and summer). Before enrolling in an internship there are a few procedures that must be followed. These include:

- 1) Meeting the prerequisites:
Criminology majors: CRIM 1101 – Intro to Criminology; CRIM 3240 – Criminological Theory; SOCI 1101 – Intro to Sociology; CRIM 4000 – Research methods
- 2) Please consult the internship coordinator.
- 3) The internship course can be taken for three (3) credit hours (entails working 150 intern hours for the semester) or six (6) hours of credit (entails working 300 hours for the semester).
- 4) Locate an internship site. May consult the blue internship notebook located in the office manager's office during business hours (8:30 – 4:40pm).
- 5) The only way to register for the internship course is to take the necessary approval form to the registrar's office. You cannot register on Banweb!
- 6) See coordinator for general requirements

David A. Jenks, Ph.D.
Internship Coordinator