Right: Handsome dinner gown of white lansdowne trimmed with gold and white lace; the blouse waist joins the gauged tunic which drapes over a gathered flounce skirt; the scalloped lace rever collar opens over a blouse vest gathered at the neck; scalloped double bell sleeves over bishop sleeves of the lace sewed in tucks on the inside seam; crushed belt of yellow taffetas.

Left: Evening costume of copper spangled lavender chiffon; gauged skirt; low necked blouse waist with embroidered and spangled plastron bordered with spangle fringe; plaited belt of liberty satin; draped pieces of gauze held with satin folds form the sleeves.