Above: Traveling costume of blue mixed cheviot; the partly plaited skirt with graduated front fold has a flounce at the lower part trimmed with two circular folds; Eton jacket with top round bolero trimmed with velvet piped folds and a velvet collar; partly tucked bishop sleeves with straps fastened with buttons over a velvet band holding bell cuffs; crushed velvet belt.

Right: Stylish visiting costume of silver gray lansdowne trimmed with silver embroidered silk ornaments and crochet buttons; the skirt is made with stitched panels which hold wide box plaits; blouse waist with front and back double box plaits opening over a lace yoke; bell sleeves cut in tabs over tucked bishop sleeves of liberty silk trimmed with lace; the belt of silk is crossed with folds of gray velvet.