

Robert J. Stone Endowment for Entrepreneurial Studies Grant Proposal

Faculty are invited to submit proposals for scholarly projects in entrepreneurship and small business. The following list provides details about proposal criteria.

1. An amount of $1,000.00 will be made available 2018-19.
2. Use of funds may include, but is not limited to, expenses related to visiting and studying entrepreneurs and/or small businesses, purchase of mailing lists and/or databases, preparation and distribution of survey instruments, preparation of publication materials, and travel to conferences to present research findings.
3. Both qualitative and quantitative projects are eligible for consideration.
4. All full-time faculty are eligible; proposals may be submitted jointly between two or more faculty.
5. All proposal funds must be spent or encumbered during FY 2019.
6. Within one academic year after receiving funding, the faculty involved will present a summary of fund usage and any resulting outcomes to the Dean of the Richards College of Business.

Please submit a one- to two-page proposal to the Dean's office by Monday, March 5, 2018. The proposal should include a description of:

- The intended use of funds,
- A timetable for implementation,
- Anticipated outcomes, and
- A brief statement about how this grant fits in to your career objectives and/or research agenda.

You may submit attachments (e.g., conference information) or supporting documents.
