

BETA GAMMA SIGMA

2006 Chapter Honorees

Phillip Kauffman

Phillip Kauffman is a Carrollton resident, business owner and community leader who has supported the university and the Richards College of Business for decades. He moved to Carrollton more than 30 years ago and has four children who have graduated from West Georgia.

Mr. Kauffman has a long business history in the city of Carrollton and Carroll County. He served as vice president of Royal Creations, Inc., in Villa Rica and managed every aspect of the company from 1966 to 1989. In 1989, he purchased Henderson Diamond Carbide and served as president until he sold the company in 1996. He has been involved with several real estate companies and developments including Mirror Lake and Mill Pond. He has been active on the University of West Georgia Foundation board since 1996 and currently owns Kauphi Properties, a real estate management company.

.