2014 Chapter Honorees

Jeanine Chambers

Ms. Chambers received her bachelors degree in Finance from the University of West Georgia in 1996 and her MBA with a concentration in CIS from Georgia State University in 1999.

After graduate school, Jeanine began making even more of a difference in the lives by becoming the Executive Director of “Angel Flight Soars.” This organization has seen growth of more than 800% during her tenure.

Additionally, Jeanine was the President and Founder of a limited-life non-profit to develop Georgia’s first aviation park and playground for children at the DeKalb Peachtree Airport. She also volunteers as the Executive Vice President and has served on the Board of Directors of the national Air Care Alliance (ACA), chaired the National Conference Committee for the ACA and serves on the Membership, Nominations and Communications Committees for this organization.

In 2004, Jeanine was named in Business to Business magazine’s “Diva” list– a selection of 15 of Atlanta’s most influential women and also named Champion of the Week in The Champion Newspaper.
