

2015 Undergraduate Philosophy Conference

Armstrong State University - Georgia Southern University

Savannah, Georgia

April 25, 2015

Students are invited to attend the fourth annual Undergraduate Philosophy Conference, hosted by Georgia Southern University's Phi Sigma Tau Honors Society and the Philosophy department of Armstrong State University, to be held on April 25, 2015. Students are welcome to submit papers on the philosophical topic of their choice. Papers should be in the form of a philosophical critique or an original philosophical thesis. Submission resembling summaries and/or book reports will be declined or returned for revision.

Participation in the conference is open to all undergraduate students, regardless of major, who are interested in submitting a paper. The top papers will be published in Georgia Southern's undergraduate philosophy journal, The Indefinite Dyad.

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Thomas R. Flynn
Emory University

Submission Guidelines

- Papers must be submitted in full
- Submissions should be no more than 4,000 words
- Word counts do not include footnotes, endnotes, or references
- A brief abstract should be included with all submissions
- Abstracts should be between 150 and 250 words
- Submissions should be prepared for blind review
- All identifying information should be removed from the submission (author's name, affiliations, contact information, etc.)
- A separate attachment must be included with author's name, university affiliation, title of their paper, and contact information
- Submit proposals to gsuphisigmatau@gmail.com

Deadline: March 30th, 2015 AT MIDNIGHT

Students will be notified whether their papers were accepted by April 6, 2015

Contact Information:

Dr. Maria Adamos at madamos@georgiasouthern.edu

Geneva Hendrix at gsuphisigmatau@gmail.com