Carroll County Voter Turnout 2008-2016
Carroll County, Georgia 2012 Presidential Primary Election
Voter Turnout

Voter turnout (percent)
- No data
- <20%
- 20-25%
- 25-30%
- 30-35%
- 35-40%
Carroll County, Georgia
2016 Presidential General Election
Voter Turnout

Voter turnout (percent)
- No data
- <70%
- 70-75%
- 75-80%
- 80-85%
- 85-90%

0 2 4 6 8 Miles

NORTH
Key Findings

- Rural areas of Carroll county – Center Point, Hulett, Kansas, Roopville, etc., show a consistent pattern of higher voter turnout.

- Urban areas of Carroll County – Carrollton, Temple, and Villa Rica City show a consistent pattern of lower voter turnout.

- Voter turnout is consistently highest in Center Point, which is south of Temple; and consistently lowest in West Carrollton, which is north of the University of West Georgia.
Questions?
Sources

• Georgia Secretary of State [Elections Division]

• Janice Duff and Greg Rigby at the Carroll County Board of [Elections & Registration]

• Maps created by John Congleton – Department of Geosciences

• Data collected by Micayla Hersey – Department of Political Science