

Criminology:

Bureau of Labor Statistics:

- Employment of correctional officers is expected to grow by 5 percent from 2010 to 2020.
- According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, employment of probation officers and correctional treatment specialists is expected to grow by 19% nationally and 12% in the state of Georgia.
- Employment of police and detectives is expected to grow by 7 percent from 2010 to 2020.
- Employment of forensic science technicians is expected to grow by 19 percent from 2010 to 2020.

Georgia Department of Labor:

- The Georgia Department of Labor list Correctional Officers and Jailers as well as Police and Sheriff's Officers as jobs they predict to have the most future job openings til 2018.
- Employment of Correctional Officers and Jailers are projected to increase 15.7% in Georgia between 2008 and 2018.
- Detectives and Criminal Investigators are expecting a 16.9% increase and Police and Sheriff's Patrol Officers are expecting a 8.6% increase in Georgia between 2008-2018.

Career One Stop (link off the US Department of Labor):

- States that Police and Sheriff's patrol officers jobs are expected to grow by 8% nationally and 9% in the state of Georgia between 2010 and 2020.
- Detectives and Criminal investigators are expected to grow 3% nationally and 17% in the state of Georgia between 2010 and 2020.
- Correctional Officers and Jailers are expected to grow 5% nationally and 16% in the state of Georgia between 2010 and 2020.

Projections Central:

- Private Detective and Investigators jobs are projected to grow 22% nationally and 11% in the state of Georgia.
- Employment of Police and Sheriffs Patrol Officers are expected to grow 8% nationally and in the state of Georgia.

Continued growth in the demand for probation and parole services will lead to new openings for officers. As alternative forms of punishment, such as probation, become more widely used, the demand for probation and parole officers will grow.

According to the book, Work in Criminal Justice: An A-Z Guide to Careers by Debbie Goodman and Ron Grimming, these are some of the jobs available to students:

Air Safety Investigator	Investigator (Municipal, County, State)
Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms Inspector	National Parks Police
Customs Inspector	Naval Investigative Service/ Criminal Investigator
Department of Labor, Labor and Pension Compliance Investigator	Police Officer
Deputy Sheriff	Secret Service Agent
Deputy U.S. Marshal	State Police Officer
Diplomatic Security Special Agent	Research Analyst/Statistician
Dispatcher	Arson Specialist
Drug Enforcement Special Agent	Crime Scene Investigator
Environmental Conservation Officer	Classification and Treatment Director
Federal Air Marshal	Correctional Treatment Specialist
Federal Bureau of Investigation, Special Agent	Corrections Counselor
Federal Bureau of Prisons	Detention Deputy
Federal Protective Service Officer/Criminal Investigator	Juvenile Justice Counselor
Fish and Wildlife Service, Special Agent	Prerelease Program, Corrections Counselor
Immigration and Naturalizations Service, Border Patrol Agent	Parole Officer
Immigration and Naturalizations Service, Deportation Officer	Probation Officer
Inspector General
Intelligence Support Analyst
Internal Revenue Service

Those who graduate with a degree in Criminology have many plausible job opportunities available to them in the State of Georgia. Some companies in the state of Georgia are:

Georgia Bureau of Investigations

Georgia Department of Corrections

Georgia Department of Public Safety

Georgia State Probation Office

Cobb County Community Center

Dekalb County Schools

Office of Child Support Services