

Faculty Governance Policy of the College of Education

Instrument of Shared Governance University of West Georgia College of Education

Article I

Statement of Purpose

The faculty of the College of Education affirm the principle of shared governance and recognize the responsibility of the faculty and administration to govern the internal affairs of the College. This instrument establishes the procedures whereby the responsibility of shared governance shall be conducted among the Faculty Assembly, the Faculty Governance Council, the Administrative Council, and the Dean of the College of Education.

Faculty have both the right and responsibility to maintain a strong voice in matters affecting the College of Education. When decisions are not supported by the Faculty Assembly, the Faculty Governance Council, the Administrative Council, and/or the Dean of the College of Education the members have the right to redress and/or aggrieve such actions.

Article II

Statement of Authority

These articles of shared governance have been developed to comply with state statutes, Board of Regents' policies, and University of West Georgia policies.

Article III

The Faculty Assembly

Section 1: Purpose

The faculty of the College shall have the right and responsibility to take action in matters relating primarily to the initial operation of the College. Among the powers of the college faculty shall be those of recommending structure, function, and regulation of the College of Education to the Faculty Governance Council, Dean, or the Dean's designee.

Section 2: Membership

All individuals who have faculty status and who are under contract for .75 EFT or more in the College of Education are members of the Faculty Assembly.

Section 3: Meetings

- a. The College faculty shall meet at least once each semester. The meetings are called by the Faculty Governance Council. Other meetings may be called by Faculty Governance Council, by petition of 20% of the voting membership of the College faculty to Faculty Governance Council, or by the Dean.
- b. An individual faculty member, a department, Faculty Governance Council, or Administrative Council may request that an item be placed on the agenda of a Faculty Assembly meeting. Such requests for items to be placed on the agenda must be made at least five (5) business days in advance of the meeting. Requests must be submitted in writing to the Dean of the College of Education.
- c. The Dean of the College, or the Dean's designated representative, shall preside at meetings of the faculty of the College. The Secretary of the Faculty Governance Council shall record and make available for the College faculty minutes of each College faculty meeting. Other offices may be created as need arises. - d. Meetings shall be announced at least five (5) business days in advance of the meeting.

Section 4: Quorum

A quorum shall consist of 50% of the voting membership.

Section 5: Voting

- a. A simple majority vote of the Faculty Assembly in the College of Education is required to approve recommendations brought before the assembly.
- b. Voting shall be by voice, show of hands, or ballot.

Section 6: Actions

All actions of the Faculty Assembly shall be in the form of recommendations to the Dean of the College. Should the Dean approve recommended actions, he or she shall inform the Faculty Assembly at the next regular or special meeting of the actions taken to implement the recommendation(s). If any of the recommendations of the Faculty Assembly should be vetoed by the Dean, the Dean shall, no later than thirty (30) days after the original recommendation by the Faculty Assembly, submit to the Faculty Assembly in writing his or her reason for rejecting the recommendation. If the original recommendation should be approved again by a two-thirds vote of the Faculty Assembly, a quorum being present and voting, the original recommendation shall be submitted by the Faculty Assembly to the Vice President of Academic Affairs' office for consultative purposes.

Article IV

2. Meetings will be conducted using Robert's Rules of Order Revised.
3. An individual faculty member, a department, Faculty Governance Council, or Administrative Council may request that an item be placed on the agenda for Faculty Governance Council meeting. The Chair of Faculty Governance Council shall determine if there is sufficient time to review the item at the next meeting or if the item will need to be discussed at the next available meeting time. Such requests for items to be placed on the agenda must be made seven (7) business days in advance of the meeting. Requests must be submitted in writing to the Chair of the Faculty Governance Council.

Section 5: Quorum

A quorum will consist of more than 50 % of the voting membership of the Council.

Section 6: Voting

A simple majority vote of the Faculty Governance Council is required to approve recommendations brought before the assembly.

Section 7: Actions

- a. All actions of the Faculty Governance Council shall be in the form of recommendations to the Dean of the College. Should the Dean approve these recommendations, he or she shall inform the Council at the next regular or special meeting of the actions taken to implement these recommendations. If any recommendations of the Council should be vetoed by the Dean, the Dean shall, no later than thirty (30) days after the original recommendation by the Council, submit to the Council in writing his or her reasons for rejecting the recommendation. If the original recommendation should be approved again by a two-thirds vote of the Council, a quorum being present and voting, the original recommendation shall be submitted by the Council to the College of Education Faculty Assembly. If two thirds of the Faculty Assembly, present and voting, approves the original recommendation of the Faculty Governance Council, then the Faculty Assembly takes the original recommendation to the Vice President for Academic Affairs' office for consultative purposes.
- b. Twenty percent of the Faculty Assembly may petition to the Council for a vote on action taken by the Council. Such a petition should carry a rationale or alternative statement when feasible for consideration and be presented to the Council Chair. A majority vote of the Council will determine if a Faculty Assembly vote is needed by ballot or called faculty meeting. If a majority of the Faculty Assembly approves the original action of the Council, a quorum being present & voting, then Faculty Governance Council could take the action to the Dean for implementation. If two-thirds of the Faculty Assembly, present and voting, disapproves the original action of the Faculty Governance Council, then the Faculty Assembly could take the original action to the Dean in the form of a recommendation. - a. The Chair of the Council shall appoint a Council member as temporary Chair of an ad hoc committee, with the approval of the Council.
- b. The temporary chair shall submit an official list of committee members, including permanent chair, to the Council following the first meeting.

Article V

Administrative Council

Section 1: Purpose

The Administrative Council provides advice to the Dean on all aspects of the operation of the College of Education. The Council is concerned with facilitating the mission and vision of the College; administering, leading, and managing activities of the College; developing and enhancing policies; and disseminating information to, as well as seeking information from, the faculty and staff of the College.

Section 2: Membership

The Administrative Council is composed of the Chairs of the academic departments, the Dean, Associate Dean, a representative of Doctoral Program in School Improvement and others (at the discretion of the Dean).

Section 3: Meetings

- a. The Council generally meets weekly and at the discretion of the Dean, who chairs the Council.
- b. An individual faculty member, a department, or Faculty Governance Council may request that an item be placed on the agenda for an Administrative Council Meeting. Individual faculty members and any department as an entity must make requests through their department chair who will then forward the request to the Dean of the College of Education. The Faculty Governance Council may make a direct request to the Dean of the College of Education. Such requests to the Dean of the College of Education for items to be placed on the agenda must be made at least five (5) business days in advance of the meeting.

Section 4: Voting

The Council works to develop consensus on issues rather than using more formal arrangements (e.g., Robert's Rules of Order Revised).

Section 5: Actions

1. Actions of the Administrative Council shall be made either in the form of recommendations to the Dean of the College or through consensus decision-making with the Dean.
2. Representatives of each department on Administrative Council will inform the faculty at the next regular or special department meeting of any recommended actions made by Administrative Council to the Dean or recommended actions made by Administrative Council with the Dean.
3. Twenty percent of the Faculty Assembly may petition to the Faculty Governance Council for a vote on action(s) made by the Administrative Council to the Dean or with the Dean. Such a petition should carry a rationale or alternative statement when feasible for consideration and be presented to the Council Chair. A majority vote of the Council will determine if faculty vote is needed by ballot or called faculty meeting. If two-thirds of the Faculty Assembly, a quorum being present and voting, approves the original action of the Administrative Council and the Dean, then the original action would be returned to Administrative Council and the Dean for implementation. If two-thirds of the Faculty Assembly, a quorum being present and voting, disapproves the original action of the Administrative Council and the Dean, then the Faculty Assembly could take the original action back to the Dean for reconsideration. The Dean and the Faculty Assembly would then proceed with steps as outlined in Article III, Section. 6.

Article VI

Dean of the College of Education

As Head of the College the Dean has the ultimate responsibility and authority for the College of Education as outlined in the University Policies and Procedures. The Dean or his/her designee shall preside at Faculty Assembly and Administrative Council meetings. The Dean, or the Dean's designee, shall work collaboratively with Faculty Governance Council to address and resolve issues related to curricular matters, academic freedom and responsibilities of faculty, and faculty culture and climate.

Section 1: Committees Reporting to the Dean

Membership on these committees is by appointment from the Dean of the College.

Assessment Advisory
Collaborative Schools
Doctoral Program in School Improvement

Field Experience Advisory

Section 2: Actions

All actions related to policy changes of committees reporting to the Dean shall be in the form of recommendations to the Dean of the College. Should the Dean approve these recommendations, he or she shall inform the committee at the next regular or special meeting of the actions taken to implement these recommendations. If any recommendations of the Committees should be vetoed by the Dean, the Dean shall, no later than thirty (30) days after the original recommendation by the Council, submit to the Committee in writing his or her reasons for rejecting the recommendation. If the original recommendation should be approved again by a two-thirds vote of the Committee, a quorum being present and voting, the original recommendation shall be submitted by the Committee to the College of Education Faculty Assembly. If two thirds of the Faculty Assembly, present and voting, approves the original recommendation of the Committee, then the Faculty Assembly takes the original recommendation to the Vice President for Academic Affairs' office for consultative purposes.
