A. Introduction

This Professional Counseling Practicum & Internship Handbook provides detailed information about the Practicum and Internship in Professional Counseling courses offered by the Department of Counseling, Higher Education and Speech-Language Pathology (CHS). These courses include both School Counseling and Clinical Mental Health Counseling program candidates. The clinical experiences for each program meet the requirements of the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Programs (CACREP) standards and the Board of Regents (BoR) of the University System of Georgia Principles for the Preparation of School Counselors.

Following the policies and procedures described in this Professional Counseling Handbook and maintaining close contact with your faculty advisor will help you get a clear focus on your Practicum and Internship goals. Additionally, course instructors/university supervisors will provide a syllabus containing specific details about individual course requirements.

You are encouraged to carefully read this entire Professional Counseling Practicum & Internship Handbook soon after your acceptance into the CHS program. Once you have become familiar with the material in the Handbook, make an appointment with your advisor to answer any questions. Registration

Deadlines: The UWG Registrar's Office determines academic registration deadlines. Information about registration can be found at http://www.westga.edu/registrar/. The COE Office of Field Experiences determines Practicum/Internship application deadlines. Information about application deadlines and the application process can be found at http://www.westga.edu/ofe/.

- Consultation with Advisor: Consultation with your advisor before completing your field experience application is critical to the smooth completion of your field experiences and is a requirement for approval of your field experience application.
- UWG Registration: Remember, you must also register online with UWG for Practicum/Internship. You will not be able to register unless your field experience application has been submitted to the Office of Field Experience and approved. Registration information and procedures are administered by the UWG Registrar's Office, which may be accessed at http://www.westga.edu/registrar/. Internship courses are considered variable credit (1-6). Consult with your advisor to determine the appropriate number of credits in which to enroll during Internship.
- Additional Information: An additional fee beyond tuition will be assessed for Practicum/Internship.

Internship students have multiple options for completing their internship hours:

Considerations for Selecting an Appropriate Site

Selecting your Practicum/Internship site is one of the most important steps for successful completion of your clinical experiences. Consideration of the following factors will aid this process:

Program Sheets & Plan of Study:

Review your Plan of Study to understand the program requirements. You should have completed your Plan of Study with your advisor upon initial enrollment/advisement in the program.

Professional Goals:

Determine your professional interests, needs, and expectations for your clinical/field experiences, considering your professional goals.

Licensure/Certification Requirements:

Become familiar with state or national requirements for counseling licensure and/or certification. Licensure and certification requirements may change without notice. It is your responsibility to stay current with requirements.

Multiple Developmental Levels (School Counseling Track):

School Counseling Interns are required by the State of Georgia to complete experiences with students from at least four different developmental levels: grades P-2, 3-5, Middle School, and High School. Be prepared to list specific sites on your application that will fulfill this requirement.

Site Interviews (Clinical Mental Health Counseling Track):

It is recommended that Clinical Mental Health Counseling students interview with two or three potential sites to determine which site offers the best "fit" with you, your working style, your needs and expectations, and your career goals. Suggestions and procedures are highlighted as follows:

Site Approval:

All clinical sites must be approved by the University. Self-placement in an unapproved site will result in receiving zero course credit for the clinical experience and may result in additional administrative consequences, including dismissal from the program. If a student earns a U in this course, they will be dismissed from the program. You are NOT permitted to complete any field experience at an unapproved site.

Application for Placement

All students applying for field experience should create and submit an application. The Office of Field Experience at http://www.westga.edu/ofe/ provides information and instructions about submitting an application.

A new application must be completed for each semester.

Clinical Mental Health Counseling track students should consult the list of approved placement sites and directly inquire with the agency where you wish to be placed about potential placement at that site.

School Counseling track students should NOT contact potential placement sites prior to approval of your application. List preferred placement sites on the TK20 application.

All applicants for Practicum/Internship will be required to submit to a Criminal Background Check. The Office of Field Experience at http://www.westga.edu/ofe/ provides information about this process. Under no circumstances will any candidate who has not completed the College of Education Criminal Background Check Form be considered for field placements or be permitted to begin field experiences.

Complete the application following the instructions provided.

Preparation for Beginning Practicum/Internship (Following Approval)

Liability Insurance:

All students must obtain professional liability insurance prior to the first day of class for your Practicum/ Internship, and liability insurance must be maintained for the full duration of all Practicum/Internship experiences. Professional liability insurance can be obtained from a number of providers, including professional organizations such as ACA, ASCA, and HPSO.

A copy of the declaration page of your policy is due on the first day of class and must be submitted via CourseDen. You are required to have liability insurance before reporting to your site during Practicum/Internship. There are no exceptions to this rule.

The Counselor Education Program does not make recommendations for the amount of liability coverage you should obtain. When making that decision, consider your personal and professional circumstances and risks.

Site Contact

- School Concentration: You must not attempt contact with your placement site until you have been officially notified of approval. However, if you are requesting your worksite (a school in the same county does not qualify as a worksite, it must be the same school) as your placement for Practicum/Internship, it is your responsibility to make arrangements with the appropriate supervisor at your site and secure permission from the administration. Some school systems will require you to take a leave of absence while completing your Practicum/Internship. You must investigate your school/school system policies and procedures that may apply. You may not begin your work (even indirect hours) at the site prior to attending the first class session of your Practicum/Internship class that semester.
- Clinical Mental Health Concentration: Before the semester begins, Clinical Mental Health Counseling students are encouraged to consult with their site supervisor to make the necessary preparations for beginning work with clients as soon as Practicum class begins. Some sites may require onboarding procedures and training prior to the be first day of class but no hours may be accumulated during this process. You may not begin your work (even indirect hours) at the site prior to attending the first-class session of your Practicum/Internship class that semester.

D. What to Expect During Practicum/Internship

Grades

The University Supervisors officially determine the final grade. Grades earned are Satisfactory or Unsatisfactory. The determination of the grade is the result of considerable collaboration by the University Supervisor(s) and on-site supervising counselor.

Factors to be considered in assigning grades may include the following:

Observed professional performance, behaviors, skills, and attitudes of the student by the university supervisor during group and/or individual supervision; Site supervisor observations; Completion of assignments and any other activities; Professional ethics and conduct; Interpersonal skills; Counseling skills; Field Experience Evaluations by the university supervisor and the site supervisor

Supervision

During your clinical/field experiences you will receive supervision and feedback from your site supervisor and University supervisor(s) as required by CACREP, our accrediting body. As you read in the previous section, who you are as a person greatly influences your effectiveness as a counselor. Therefore, there will be times when the supervision and feedback you receive will address your personal qualities as well as your use of counseling skills. To take full advantage of supervision, it is critical that you prepare for the supervision session. The following sections provide information about these important areas: receiving feedback, giving feedback, and preparing for supervision.

Receiving Feedback: Probably at no other time in your counseling career will you work under such close supervision as you will in Practicum/Internship courses. You are urged to take advantage of this unique opportunity by making the personal decision to be non-defensive and open to supervision and feedback. Steps that will facilitate your participation in the supervision process include:

- Focus Yourself: Before your supervision sessions, take time to focus on the goal to become the most effective counselor you can be.
- Actively Listen and Hear: Make it a priority to genuinely hear the feedback offered to you, even when you may perceive the comments to be critical.
- Examine Yourself: Consider the validity of the feedback; remain open to new ideas that may challenge old perceptions.
- Embrace What Resonates: Be willing to grow and change as you learn more about yourself through the supervision process.
- Value Yourself: Sometimes Practicum/Internship students are most critical of themselves; be kind and gentle to yourself.

Giving Feedback: Another critical aspect of supervision is the feedback you can offer to other Practicum/Internship students. This is an important opportunity to demonstrate the ability to give honest and accurate feedback in a tactful and sensitive manner. It is often tempting to give non-specific feedback such as, "You did a good job" or "I thought you were a little off target." However, such global statements do not provide useful information. Helpful feedback has several critical qualities.

Preparing for Supervision Sessions: Being prepared for supervision sessions enables you to take the greatest advantage of this component of your clinical/field experiences. In addition to the openness described above, minimum preparation before supervision sessions includes:

• Paperwork. Complete all required paperwork prior to class/supervision

- Review of Recordings. Listen to and/or watch recordings of your counseling sessions and cue the recording to portions on which you want feedback. Be sure that recordings are clearly audible and that the equipment you will use to play the recording is operating correctly. Practicum students must present a minimum of 10 session recordings in university supervision per semester.
- Supervision Questions. Write down the specific questions you have for the supervisor.

Professional Considerations

Personal Challenges: During clinical experiences, you will likely encounter clients/supervisors who will "push your buttons." This is a normal and desirable process that challenges you to grow by facing and acknowledging unresolved issues that may block your effectiveness as a counselor. Although encountering these issues may be painful at first, openness to the experience is an important quality to develop.

It is equally essential for you to become aware of your own biases, attitudes, values, and beliefs and how they affect the counseling process. Rigidity in these areas can seriously inhibit your effectiveness as a counselor. Acknowledging and accepting your deeply ingrained viewpoints and the limits they place on your work, as a counselor is a critical aspect of your professional development. Review your notes from your multicultural course on bias and prejudice when necessary.

Many students choose to invest in their professional futures by participating in personal counseling. In addition to personal counseling resources available in your own community, you may contact the UWG Counseling Center (678-839-6428) for information about free counseling services available to students.

Code of Ethics: A professional ethical code is the set of guidelines that governs professional behavior. Standards of practice are statements of minimum behavior by which professionals are expected to abide. ACA publishes the Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice that "establishes principles that define the ethical behavior of association members." ACA members are required to adhere to the ethical responsibilities outlined in this publication. For School Counseling students, ASCA also publishes Ethical Standards for School Counseling.

As a Practicum/Internship student, you are required to meet your professional obligations regarding ethical practice. Therefore, without exception, you are expected to meet the minimum responsibilities outlined below:

Minimum Ethical Obligations:

- Secure the Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice available online at the ACA website (www.counseling.org). Students will also need to secure the Ethical Standards for School Counselors from their website www.schoolcounselor.org
- > Read and become thoroughly familiar with the applicable ethical codes
- > Abide by the ethical behavior and standards of practice endorsed by ACA/ASCA.
- > Learn and abide by an ethical decision-making model.
- > Bring your general, non-emergency ethical questions to supervision.
- Immediately consult with your faculty supervisor and/or site supervisor when emergency ethical dilemmas arise (i.e., suicide, homicide, child abuse, etc.).
- Become familiar with and abide by policies and procedures established by your Practicum site.
- Adhere to the code of ethics and laws of the state in which you conduct your Practicum/Internship.
- Please Note: Failure to adhere to professional codes of ethics, standards of practice, and state laws may result in disciplinary action and/or dismissal from the program.

Confidentiality: Under the guidance of the site supervisor, you may have access to client/student records. It is important that this information be used in a professional manner and remain confidential. Federal law protects the confidentiality of these records either through HIPAA or FERPA. Under no circumstances is information to be released to or discussed with any unauthorized person. Take care in copying any information from records. Check with the site supervisor prior to making copies.

Self-Care: Many students fulfill numerous roles, such as student, spouse/significant other, parent, child, employee, and community/professional leader. Sometimes it is difficult to find time to care for oneself in the midst of such a hectic day-to-day life. Yet, self-care is critical to meeting life's demands as well as effectively responding to the obligations of your chosen profession and avoiding burnout. Obviously, this list of recommended areas of self-care is limited. Use these suggestions as starting points for developing your own self-care plan.

Consider developing and implementing workable strategies to meet your needs in areas like those suggested below:

- Physical: Good nutrition, adequate rest, and moderate exercise
- Social: Enhancing supportive relationships
- Peer Relationships: Creating a circle of peers who understand your work
- Spiritual: Nurturing your faith and religious/spiritual beliefs
- Recreation: Playing and having fun
- Humor: Finding humor, particularly during challenging times
- Letting Go: Remember, you cannot "fix" your clients, take away their pain, or make their decisions

Please Note: If you postpone your Practicum or Internship, you must submit a new application for the semester you plan to take the course

SECTION II: PRACTICUM

A. Practicum Objectives

The general goal of Practicum is for students to master skills learned in previous courses by demonstrating rational analytical thinking and flexible decision-making when working with clients. You will engage in individual counseling and group experiences with actual clients in a school or clinical mental health setting. You are urged to engage clients of culturally diverse populations, genders, and age groups. General performance objectives for this course are included here. Supervision

You are expected to fully participate in Practicum supervision sessions. As previously stated, extensive supervision is provided by the University supervisor, your on-site supervisor, peer supervisors, and/or other means as established by your University supervisor. Supervision by your Practicum instructor and/or designees (e.g., you may be assigned a Doctoral Intern supervisor when applicable) will most likely take place on the UWG campus, however, in some cases, and with the approval of the program coordinator, supervision may be required at some other meeting site. The table below details the time requirements for Practicum supervision. Be sure you schedule sufficient blocks of time for this important activity.

1-hour	Weekly site supervision with site supervisor
1-hour	Weekly individual/triadic supervision with University Supervisor (i.e., Faculty or Doctoral Intern student). This may require an additional trip to campus for the PRACTICUM STUDENT . A minimum of 10 audio/video recordings must be presented.

Confidentiality

Under the guidance of the on-site supervisor, the PRACTICUM/INTERNSHIP STUDENT may have access to client/student records. It is important that this information be used in a professional manner and remain confidential. The PRACTICUM/INTERNSHIP STUDENT is reminded that federal law protects the confidentiality of these records either through HIPAA or FERPA, respectively. Under no circumstances is information to be released to or discussed with any unauthorized person. Take care in copying any information from records. Check with the site supervisor prior to making copies. Do not use identifying information on recordings or paperwork except where absolutely necessary. Exceptions, of course, are the consent forms that require full signatures. Also, be very aware that you may not discuss your clients/students in any way that might identify them to any unauthorized person.

Audio/Video recording:

ALL sessions with clients/students are to be video or audio recorded if allowed onsite. You will need to obtain quality recording equipment (either your own, from your site or from the COE Innovation Lab).

Informed Consent:

Consent to record forms must be signed by the student or parent/guardian prior to any recorded Practicum session. If you remember to put audio/video on the consent form both types of recording will be covered. Keep a copy of each consent form in the client/student's records.

Practicum Goals

Another important Practicum preparation activity involves the formulation of goals to define your efforts during the semester. It is required that you prepare a goal statement to give to your instructor at the first class meeting. Be sure the goals you establish are feasible, measurable, and stated in behavioral terms. Include a plan ("how-to") for accomplishing each goal. Discuss your goals with your site supervisor and obtain his/her signature to indicate agreement. A sample goal statement is below.

Clinical Mental Health Counseling - Practicum Goal Statement - Sample

Demonstrate Challenging Skills with Clients:

I will be alert to incongruities in clients' verbal and nonverbal behaviors and point these out while in the session.

Analyze client-counselor interactions from one theoretical perspective:

I will identify the theoretical approach I use in counseling sessions and develop a rationale for my choice. Also, I will analyze the effectiveness of the approach I use by noting client progress in developing/increasing coping skills.

Initiate Supervision:

I will prepare questions for my supervision sessions and ask for help when I have questions between supervision meetings. My university & site supervisor will be able to evaluate this goal by my preparation & presentation of client concerns during the weekly supervision sessions.

Record of Hours Worked

Track the time spent on Practicum activities. Record your practicum hours on CourseDen on a weekly basis. Remember to make a copy of your hours for your personal records or utilize another way to keep track of your hours. The submitted hours log will become part of your CEP permanent file.

Here is a digital log you may use to record for your records: https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1xav5uOPH9mMaHZmJHwl02tK3OQaadswk/edit?usp= sharing&ouid=113405339576727041274&rtpof=true&sd=true

Student Assessments

Evaluations of your performance as a Practicum student will be conducted via written and/or verbal feedback. Continuous verbal feedback will be provided during supervision sessions. Additionally, a formal written evaluation is expected from your site supervisor at the middle and at the end of the semester.

Assessments by Students

You are required to complete an evaluation of your Practicum site and your Practicum supervision. You may be required to submit to your instructor periodic self-evaluations. Additionally, the faculty supervisor may have other assessments that will be explained in class.

Work Location

Practicum students are not permitted to meet with clients in clients' homes or at any other location outside of the agency unless the site supervisor accompanies the practicum student and program/faculty approval is provided.

Practicum Minimum Hourly Requirements

School and Clinical Mental Health Counseling Practicum students are required to complete a total of 100 site hours of Practicum experience and an additional 52.5 supervision hours. In a typical 15-week semester, this requirement translates to about 10 hours per week.

B. Practicum Hours

Practicum students must engage in individual and group counseling with clients from diverse backgrounds. Students also will meet in a small group for 1.5 hours weekly with the faculty supervisor (Practicum class). During this time, a variety of activities will occur, including discussion of on-site issues, presentation of case studies/recordings, discussion of ethical issues, peer supervision, and teaching. Also, students will meet individually with the faculty instructor or the instructor's designate (University Supervisor) for one hour each week. During this time, students will discuss personal counseling goals and general concerns as well as present recordings of and notes from client/student counseling sessions for review.

Internship is designed to provide on-the-job experience under the supervision of the university supervisor and a qualified professional at a designated placement site. Internship is intended to be a culmination of your graduate counseling program; you will be expected to demonstrate knowledge and skills gained over the entire program. To fully benefit from this experiential requirement, work closely with your advisor and faculty supervisor (course instructor) to get a clear focus on your goals and the course requirements. A total of 600 clock hours (minimum) of internship experience is required for licensure and certification purposes.

SECTION III: INTERNSHIP

A. Internship Objectives

As an Internship student, you will engage in real-life work experiences under the supervision of your course instructor (faculty supervisor) and a professional in the field (site supervisor). A significant portion of your Internship experiences will be client contact. You are expected to engage clients of culturally diverse populations, genders, various age groups (as appropriate to your site), and diverse lifestyles in your work.

B. Supervision

You are expected to fully participate in Internship supervision sessions. Supervision by your Internship instructor will most likely take place on the UWG campus, however, in some situations, and with permission of the program coordinator, supervision may be required at some other meeting site. The table below details the time requirements for Internship supervision. Be sure you schedule sufficient blocks of time for this important activity.

1-hour	Weekly site supervision with the site supervisor
2.5hours	Bi-weekly on-campus group supervision, which will usually occur during the regularly scheduled class time.

C. Internship Procedures

CEP has established (1) general expectations for all internship students. There also are more specific expectations regarding (2) development of internship goals, (3) maintenance of internship activities records and completion of various assessments, and (4) fulfillment of other course requirements as determined by individual instructors and/or individual placement sites.

General Internship Expectations:

As an Intern, you are expected to:

- Follow the policies and procedures in this Handbook as well as other CHS and UWG publications.
- Follow policies and procedures established by your internship site.
- Gain a thorough knowledge of your internship site, including mission statement, goals, objectives, operation, and structure.
- Follow the ACA Ethical Code and Standards of Practice, ASCA Code of Ethics, and the laws and ethical codes of the state in which you are interning

Internship Agreement:

After the start of the semester, develop a preliminary set of goals (see Appendix C, "Internship Agreement") you would like to accomplish during the course. You may find it helpful to reflect on your previous clinical experience to determine skill and knowledge areas that you would like to further develop. Plan to have a draft of the document ready to turn into your instructor soon after the first class meeting following contact with your site. Be sure to discuss your goals with your site supervisor and university supervisor. Before turning in the final activities agreement, obtain appropriate signatures. Individual instructors may have more specific activities agreement requirements. When developing your goals, be sure they are feasible, measurable, and behaviorally stated. Successful completion of these plans will be evaluated based on the counseling candidate completing all of the objectives to the best of ability. The student will not be penalized for not completing activities, which are beyond her/his control.

Internship Goals – Examples

Become Familiar with Site Policies and Procedures:

I'll read the Policies and Procedures manual and develop a list of questions to discuss in supervision.

Become More Competent with Brief Therapy Skills:

I'll read materials suggested by my site supervisor and use brief therapy techniques in my sessions.

Become Involved in Professional Organizations:

I'll attend at least one professional organization meeting or conference this semester. Continue Developing my Challenging Skills:

I'll continue to listen for client incongruities and use advanced empathy and questions to challenge the client.

*Record of Hours Worked:

Track the time spent in internship activities. Record your internship hours on CourseDen on a weekly basis. Remember to make a copy of your hours for your personal records. The submitted record of hours will become part of your CEP permanent file.

Here is a digital log you may use to record for your records: https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1xav5uOPH9mMaHZmJHw102tK3OQaadswk/edit?usp=sharing&ouid=113405339576727041274&rtpof=true&sd=true

Student Assessments:

Evaluations of your performance as an Intern student will be conducted via written and/or verbal feedback. Continuous verbal feedback will be provided during supervision sessions. Additionally, a formal written evaluation is expected from your field site supervisor at the end of the semester.

Assessments by Students:

You are required to complete an evaluation of your Intern site and your site supervisor. You may be required to submit to your instructor periodic self-evaluations. Additionally, the University Supervisor(s) may have other assessments that will be explained in class or supervision.

Case Presentation:

You are required to submit a minimum of one case presentation to your University Supervisor. Refer to your syllabus for additional details.

Other Internship Expectations:

Other course requirements will be determined and outlined by the course instructor's syllabus. These requirements may include, but are not limited to:

- Attending each class
