UWG Noyce Internship Application Packet

Application checklist

In order to be considered for University of West Georgia’s Noyce Summer Internship, you must submit the following items to the Departmental Assistant in the Fusion Center lobby of the Ed Annex by March 6th at 5:00pm.

_______ I. A typed and completed UTeach Scholarship/Internship Application
_______ II. A letter of intent, describing why the applicant is applying for the Noyce Summer Internship and what makes the applicant stand out from other candidates
_______ III. A letter of reference in a sealed envelope bearing the author’s signature on the back from either an UWG STEM or UTeach Faculty member attesting to your qualifications for this internship
_______ IV. An up to date résumé

In order for your application to be considered, you need to have the above items completed and placed in a manila envelope, with this form completed attached to the front. Incomplete applications will not be considered for funding. By signing and dating below, you agree that all information included in this packet is accurate. Providing false information will also disqualify you from the selection process.
