Presidential Commission on Campus Inclusion

Mission:

The Presidential Commission on Campus Inclusion (PCCI) is established as a representative body charged by the President with making recommendations for the promotion of diversity and inclusion at the University of West Georgia. The PCCI collaborates with campus partners to enable students, faculty, and staff to realize their full potential through academic engagement, supportive services, professional development, and a caring, student-centered community that embraces and benefits from an inclusive environment welcoming to diverse populations.

Vision:

UWG’s aspiration to become the best comprehensive university in America requires a culture that embraces diversity and inclusion, and that recognizes the valuable contributions of each of our faculty, staff, and students. Our individual differences lend us a collective strength that also serves as an expression of our values and beliefs.

The purpose of the Presidential Commission on Campus Inclusion is to facilitate an educational environment that values every member of our community, not in spite of but, because of our differences in age, color, creed, education, ethnicity, gender expression, national origin, physical and cognitive ability, race, sex, sexual orientation, socioeconomic class, and veteran status. Under the guidance of the Senior Diversity Officer, the PCCI works to position UWG as a leader in matters of diversity and inclusion, sought after by diverse populations of faculty, staff, and students as the best place to work, learn and succeed.
