Of the 18 graduate degrees and certificate programs in the USG, only three are dedicated to digital media. The new degree program is designed to train students in communication theories, strategies, and analytics to ensure effective messaging to key stakeholders. Program has 4 cores and 8 courses. Per discussions in Fall 2020, this program will constitute substantive change for two reasons: new course content at a different level than currently offered (prospectus), and the program requires notification because it is 100% online. Mass Communications alumni are among the target audiences for the program, and these individuals already feel a sense of place at UWG based on their undergraduate experiences.
