Committee IV: Academic Policies Committee (Susana Velez-Castrillon, Chair)

Action Items:

A) Proposed changes to the Faculty Handbook in the following section:
   Grade Appeal Policy -208.04
   Section F. Procedures
   1. Procedural Summary
      a. Department Chair

Prelude: The Academic Policies committee has discussed the current Grade Appeal Policy presented in the Faculty Handbook. Faculty members have raised the concern that the current policy leaves the course instructor out of the Grade Appeal Procedures. The Academic Policies committee suggests including a recommendation for consultation of the Grade Appeal with the instructor, but recognizes that this discussion cannot be mandatory.

The proposed changes are as follows:

Grade Appeal Policy – 208.04

F. Procedures. The student initiates the grade appeal in writing, using the Student Grade Appeal Form available from the Provost’s website. Students are encouraged (although not required) to present grade concerns to the faculty member before initiating a formal grade appeal.

1. Procedural Summary. Grade appeals begin at the level of the Department Chair.

   a. Department Chair. Upon receipt of the written grade appeal, the Chair (1) consults with the student, (2) determines whether the grade appeal should be considered as an Academic Dishonesty Grade Appeal or a Grade Determination Appeal, (3) shares the grade appeal with the faculty member and after review the faculty member may (but is not required to) submit a narrative and any supporting documentation, (4) examines the available documentation, and (5) grants the appeal and changes the grade, or denies the appeal. The Chair notifies the student of the decision in writing. If the chair denies the appeal, the written notification to the student should explain the student’s right to appeal to the Dean (or Dean’s designee). If the appeal is denied, the student may accept the decision and end the appeal process, or request that the appeal and all associated documentation be forwarded to the Dean (or Dean’s designee).

A) Proposed changes to the Student Grade Appeal Form to reflect the new Grade Appeal Procedure:

The following statement and signature line for the faculty member will be added to the Department chair box:

“I have reviewed the student’s grade appeal and stand by the grade.”

Items approved unanimously by voice vote

B) Proposed changes to the Faculty Handbook in the following section:
Grade Appeal Policy -208.04
Section F. Procedures
1. Procedural Summary
d. Grade Appeals Subcommittee

Prelude: It has been brought to the attention of the AP committee that the Grade Appeal Policy lacks a procedure to follow if the Grade Appeals Subcommittee has a mixed vote on a student’s appeal.

Discussion: The Academic Policies Committee proposed to change the Faculty handbook to address the process. A discussion raised some questions about the finality of a decision at a couple of levels. One recommendation is that the chair of the appeals committee should only vote when there is a tie. Another concern was raised about the potential for the process being caught in a procedural loop. Other scenarios were suggested and additional questions were raised about the overall clarity of the process.

The chair chose to withdraw the motion and return the item to the committee for further review.

C) Proposed Changes to the Undergraduate and Graduate catalog:

Prelude: Last year the Academic Policies Committee and Faculty Senate approved the revised Attendance Policy (Faculty Handbook 204). The language changes were published in the Student Handbook and also the 2015-2016 undergraduate and graduate catalogs. However, in the catalogs, the information is placed under the old title “Class Absence.”

Undergraduate Catalog - Class Absence: http://www.westga.edu/assets/docs/catalogs/UG-full-current/1766.htm

Graduate Catalog - Class Absence http://www.westga.edu/assets/docs/catalogs/UG-full-current/1766.htm
Proposal: In order for the Undergraduate and Graduate catalogs to be in accordance with the revised attendance policy, the Academic Policy Committee proposes that the title “Class Absence” be changed to “Attendance Policy.” The Faculty Senate will need to approve this in order for it to be listed differently in next year’s catalogs.

Item approved unanimously by voice vote

Information Item:

D) Plagiarism

The Faculty Senate tasked the Academic Policies Committee with discussing the issue of plagiarism on campus and developing strategies to address this problem.

There is a dishonesty reporting form that goes to a central reporting data base to see if patterns of academic dishonesty may be found in multiple classes that the reported student has taken.

The instructions for reporting academic dishonesty can be found at the following:
http://www.westga.edu/assetsDept/vpaa/Academic_Dishonesty.pdf and the Common Language for Course Syllabi, http://www.westga.edu/assetsDept/vpaa/Common_Language_for_Course_Syllabi.pdf

The committee also recommended interactions between the student government president and the AP and Student Affairs committees. There could be faculty development through the library’s Good Librations series and possible faculty training sessions.

Committee VI: Strategic Planning Committee (Nadya Williams, Chair)

Information Item:

A) Catalog language for core areas C-E to include the new QEP Learning Outcomes:

Embedded QEP Learning Outcomes: Language for the Undergraduate Catalog

Area C new language: Students will demonstrate knowledge of the foundational concepts of artistic, intellectual, or literary achievement, adapting written communication to specific purposes and audiences.

Area D new language: Use appropriate scientific tools and instruments to acquire data, process information, and communicate results, adapting written communication to specific purposes and audiences.

Area E new language: Students will demonstrate that they have developed an understanding of the political and legal processes of the U.S. and Georgia, and an understanding of the terminology of political science and U.S. politics, adapting written communication to specific purposes and audiences.

Committee VIII: Technology Committee (Craig Schroer, Chair)
Information Item (see http://bit.ly/1wa3WuL):

A) Recommendations for Marketplace Relocation to a Non-UWG Service (draft)

_Schroer provided an overview of the draft being considered for faculty Marketplace Relocation and possible platforms._

7. Announcements

Susana Velez-Castrillon announced updates to the _Best of the West_ Awards and presentations.

8. The meeting adjourned at 3:56 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Dawn Harmon McCord

The Accounting department no longer offers ACCT 4201, which was a required course in the previous plan. Students must now take ACCT 2101 and ACCT 2102, which requires 3 extra credit hours. In order to compensate, students will now be expected to take either ECON 2105 or ECON 2106, instead of both, which still meets the requirements for the MBA program.

At the same time, we are increasing the number of options for elective courses to give students added flexibility, and to make it easier for students to meet the requirements for 388 hours.

Rationale
We wish to keep the credit hours for graduation at 120, and if students must take ACCT 2101 and ACCT 2102, allowing them to take either ECON 2105 or ECON 2106 instead of requiring both will permit them to graduate with the same number of hours while still meeting the admission requirements for the MBA program. We are also updating the Physics courses to give students added flexibility, incorporate PHYS 4103 as an elective, and reflect changes in how our courses are offered (e.g., PHYS 4313 is not necessarily offered as a DSW course.).

CRIM 3411
Criminal Investigations

This course examines the basic principles of criminal investigation. Coverage includes study of current investigative procedures used in the handling of crime scenes, interviews, evidence, surveillance, report writing, modus operandi, and technical resources. In addition, this course explores theories, philosophies, and concepts related to prevention, apprehension, and suppression of crimes.

CRIM 1100

Corequisites

Rationale

This course has been taught several times (much more than three) as a "Contemporary Issues" course (4200) and it always draws a large number of students. Many students are interested in how crimes are solved. Criminal investigations has become an important social issue and a staple course in many crime studies programs. Thus the course would make a fine addition to our law enforcement course offerings.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK AND MATERIALS

CLASSROOM PROCEDURES AND POLICIES

Attendance Policy

A student may be dropped from a course in which the number of his/her unexcused absences exceeds 25% of the total number of course meetings. Please refer to the College Catalog for information regarding excused and unexcused absences.

Withdrawal

If a student decides to withdraw from the class, he/she must complete the appropriate paperwork before an official withdrawal can occur. It is imperative that the student contact the instructor upon deciding to withdraw. Any student withdrawing before midterm will receive a grade of W. If a course is dropped for any reason after midterm, the student will receive a grade of WF (Withdraw Failing). WF has zero quality points and will be calculated in the GPA. WP is considered only as a result of withdrawal due to extenuating circumstances and academic performance is passing. Please refer to Academic Calendar for the specific midpoint date.

Academic Integrity

Academic dishonesty is an act by a student to use or to represent the work (research, writing, examination answers, etc.) of another person as his or her own production. The work of another person represented as one’s own is dishonest and does not fairly measure the competence, knowledge, and achievement of the individual. Academic dishonesty is contrary to the standards, ethics, and goals of higher education and is unacceptable in the technical college community and in this course.

The Student Code of Conduct is enforced for traditional, hybrid, web-enhanced and online classes. Students must not assist or accept assistance from classmates with exams or assignments. Students caught engaging in such activity automatically fail the course and are subject to further disciplinary action.
General Rules

All college policies and rules as outlined in your student handbook and college catalog apply.

- Students shall not bring food or drinks in any area building other than the snack bar or other designated areas.
- The use of tobacco products, including cigarettes, cigars, pipes, or smokeless tobacco, is prohibited on all UWG campuses except in designated smoking areas.
- Students must abide by the dress code guidelines outlined in the Student Handbook and Planner.
- Cell phones, beepers, or any electronic devices should be silent while in class.
- Children are not to be allowed in the classroom or left unattended on college property.
- If computers are available, please do not turn on computers until requested to do so; computers should be used only for completion of assignments.
- Students will exercise all safety precautions given by the faculty.

Course Work and Grading Guide

All students are responsible for completing all assignments. Late work will not be accepted unless the instructor has given prior approval – no exceptions will be made. Students are responsible for obtaining assignments missed due to their absence. Homework and in-class assignments will be written or typed legibly, using correct grammar and punctuation. Grammar and usage will be considered in grading the overall quality of the student’s work. There will be three (3) tests administered and each test will count 100 points. There will also be one 8 page paper due, using MLA format, this paper will also count 100 points. Each student will have to work 6 hours with a Criminal Investigations Unit at a local police department. Each student will write a 2 page paper about their community service work. This will count 50 points. Each student can earn 450 points and their grade will be scored as follows:

This course will introduce one of the most common research methods used in the field of criminology: the survey. Topics covered will include sampling, modes of conducting surveys, question wording, and dealing with non-response. In the later part of the semester, students will gain practical knowledge of the topic by conducting live telephone interviews.

Rationale

The Department of Criminology is in a unique position to offer a course on survey research because it houses the UWG Survey Research Center. This allows students to not only learn the academic side of survey research but also to gain practical hands-on experience in the field. Thus, CRIM 4001 would directly support the UWG Strategic Plan, specifically Strategic Imperative #1, Goal D, Objective 2, and Strategic Imperative #2, Goal A, Objective 3. This course has been taught as CRIM 4280 (Special Topics) seven times.

Course Description
This course will introduce you to one of the most common research methods used in the field of criminology: the survey. Topics covered will include sampling, modes of conducting surveys, question wording, and dealing with non-response. In the later part of the semester, you will gain practical knowledge of the topic when you conduct live telephone interviews.

Required Textbook

Course Requirements
- Assigned readings are listed on the course calendar, and it is highly recommended that you complete the reading before class.
- Attendance is important for this class, but is not required except on interviewing days. If you miss a class, you are responsible for getting the notes from a classmate. I will answer specific questions relating to lecture, but will not provide my class notes. On interviewing days, attendance is required.
- While in class, you are expected to participate in the lecture by taking notes, asking questions, and following along on the computer when necessary. Computer use during other periods and the use of the computer to access programs unnecessary for the course are not allowed.
- No cell phones are allowed in the Survey Research Center. When you enter the room, you must turn your phone completely off (not just on silent or vibrate) and place it in the basket at the front of the room.

Exams – 100 points
There will be two required exams over the course of the semester. Each exam will be worth 50 points toward the total grade. Make-up exams will be given only under extreme circumstances (ex: a medical emergency, death in the family). In order to take a make-up exam, you must notify me before the exam and provide documentation explaining the absence. If a make-up is not taken, you will receive zero points for the exam.

Interviewing Attendance (15 points) and Response Paper (10 points) – 25 total points
Students will be expected to attend class on the days in which phone interviewing is being conducted. Failure to attend will only be excused in extreme circumstances. Students who miss their scheduled interviewing days will receive zero points for their interviewing. Additionally, students will be required to write a one page response paper about their interviewing experience. Specific, detailed instructions and requirements for the paper will be given in class. The response paper must be submitted at the beginning of class on the day due. Late assignments will not be accepted.
Final Paper – 50 points

Students will write a research proposal as their final paper in this class. The paper will be 8-10 pages in length and include a review of relevant literature, a proposed research project (including a questionnaire), and an appropriately formatted reference page. In order to encourage students to work on their papers early and often, there are interim deadlines for the paper topic and questionnaire draft. Students will also be required to set up a paper conference outside of class to discuss the paper’s progress. Specific, detailed instructions and requirements for the paper will be covered in class.

UWG Policies

Be sure to you are familiar with all of the policies listed at: http://tinyurl.com/UWGSyllabusPolicies

Learning Outcomes

By the end of the course, you will possess:

- Knowledge of the basic research methods and statistics in the social sciences
- Ability to ask relevant questions and engage in research to explore special issues in criminology/criminal justice and their effects on the larger society
- Ability to engage in critical thinking/analysis
- Demonstration of strong oral and written communication skills
- Ability to utilize appropriate technology in the study of criminology/criminal justice issues
- Ability to engage in ethical behavior in a professional work setting

Rationale

After review of our program, we have determined that requiring three additional hours of coursework in the discipline will better enable us to meet our program's learning outcomes. This change is also in sync with our move to strengthen the biological anthropology focus of the program. This move is also in line with the requirements of other BS degrees in the College of Social Sciences.

Modification Details

This is a request to modify the requirements for a B.S. in Anthropology. The change is to request a change in the number of Anthropology Upper Division Elective credit hours from 9 to 12. The overall requirement of hours for a B.S. in Anthropology will be 32 instead of 29. See attached for the existing major requirements.

ANTHROPOLOGY BS MAJOR
2015-16
Anthropology 1-B – 678-839-6455
http://www.anthropology.westa.edu

Learning Outcomes
Students completing the B.S. degree with a major in Anthropology should be able:
- apply critical thinking skills through the use of anthropological methods,
- demonstrate a broad base of anthropological knowledge,
- recognize the diversity of cultural practices through time and space,
- demonstrate oral and written communication skills, and
- apply anthropological knowledge through research in Anthropology.

B.S. DEGREE WITH A MAJOR IN ANTHROPOLOGY

Hours
Core Areas A through E (see pages 122-28 of Undergraduate Catalog) 42
Core Area F, Major Specific Courses 18
ANTH 1102 (Introduction to Anthropology) 3
Choose two: ANTH 2001; ANTH 2002; ANTH 2003 6
Remaining Hours selected from:
- 1000 or 2000-level courses from Anthropology, Biology, Computer Science, Economics, Foreign Language, Geography, Geology, History, Sociology, Political Science, Mathematics, Philosophy, Psychology, Statistics (no more than three of these hours may be ANTH) 9

Requirements for the Major
Major Courses Required
Anthropological Thought (ANTH 4100) 3
Archaeology

Modification Details

Changes were made to the Full Time and Part Time MSN Plan of Study for Health System Leadership: Clinical Nurse Leader Degree, course descriptions, and course outcomes for better alignment to the CCNE Essentials for MSN education which is the THE SON accreditation organization.

1. A new course NURS 6160 will be added for students who enter the MSN program and are poorly prepared for scholarly writing. The course is offered 100% online as the students cannot access the resources of the UMG writing center. The content was offered in Fall 2014 as part of the MSN online orientation with excellent feedback from both students and faculty.
2. Course NURS 6102 will be reduced to ten credits from three credits as the content on theories of caring in nursing was moved to NURS 6101 which is the Nursing Theory course.
3. Course NURS 6109 is moved to a fall semester, because the workload in the Spring semester is heavier due to higher number of practicum hours in practicum courses and completion of capstone project. This will change the semester credit hours for the affected semester course change.

Rationale:
Changes were made to the RN-MSN Plan of Study for Nursing Educator Track, course descriptions, and course outcomes for better alignment to the CCNE Essentials for MSN education which is The TSUS SSON accreditation organization.

1. A new course NURS 6900 will be added for Students who enter the MSN program are poorly prepared for scholarly writing. The course is offered 100% online so the student cannot access the resources of the UWM writing center. The content was offered in Fall 2014 as part of the MSN online orientation with excellent feedback from both students and faculty.

2. Course NURS 6101 will be reduced to two credits from three credits as the content on theories of caring in nursing were moved to Nursing 4101 which is the Nursing Theory course.

3. Course NURS 4109 is moved to a fall semester, because the work load in the spring semester is heavier due to higher number of practicum hours in practicum courses and completion of capstone project. This will changed the semester credit hours for the affected semester course change.

Revised 05.14.13 Revised 02.12.15
Changes were made to the RN-MSN Plan of Study for Health System Leadership, Leader/Manager Track, course descriptions, and course outcomes for better alignment to the CCNE Essentials for MSN education which is The TACSON accreditation organization.

1. A new course NURS 6900 will be added for students who enter the MSN program as poorly prepared for scholarly writing. The courses are offered 100% on line so the students cannot access the resources of the UMW writing center. The content was offered in Fall 2014 as part of the MSN online orientation with excellent feedback from both students and faculty.

2. The old version of the Nursing Theory course was condensed to two credits. The new course NURS 6101 which is the Nursing Theory course.

3. The old course NURS 6109 is moved to a fall semester, because the workload in the Spring semester is heavier due to higher number of practicum hours in practicum courses and completion of capstone project. This will change the semester credit hours for the affected semester course change.

Rationale

The N8900 course was added to both the MSN graduate Program of Study's and the EdD doctoral Program of Study for the Tanner Health System School of Nursing program to offer a focus on scholarly writing. NURS 8900 will be added for students who enter the MSN and EdD program who are poorly prepared for scholarly writing. The courses are offered 100% online so the students cannot access the resources of the UWS writing center. The content was offered in Fall 2014 as part of the MSN online orientation, with excellent feedback from both students and faculty.

Planning Info

- Library Resources Need Enhancement

| Is this a SACS substantive change? | YES | NO |

Present or Projected Annual Enrollment: 50

Comments
The 12500 course was added to both the MSN graduate plan of study and the EdD doctoral plan of study for the Tanner Health System School of Nursing programs to offer a focus on scholarly writing.

COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course provides educational leaders the opportunity to explore and use data-informed decision making to drive and sustain organizational and academic improvements in a school setting. Students will examine leadership and pedagogical strategies that promote a collegial environment focused on continuous improvement. Learning will be drawn from leadership theory and research on best practices, ethical principles, and professional norms in curriculum development, classroom instruction, student learning assessment, professional learning, and other areas that support the needs of all student populations in a learning-focused school environment. Students will demonstrate proficiency by completing performance-based tasks.

CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK

The conceptual framework of the College of Education at UWG forms the basis on which programs, courses, experiences, and outcomes are created. With the goal of Developing Exemplary Practitioners, our programs incorporate ten descriptors, clustered into three interrelated and overlapping themes, that demonstrate our commitment to (a) Professional Excellence [knowledgeable, reflective, inquisitive]; (b) Field-Based Inquiry [decisive, adaptive, proactive, leading]; and (c) the Betterment of Society [collaborative, culturally sensitive, empathetic]. These themes and descriptors are integral components of the conceptual framework and provide the basis for developing exemplary practitioners who are prepared to improve schools and communities. National (ISLLC) and Georgia PSC Leadership Standards also are incorporated as criteria against which candidates are measured.

COE Vision

The College of Education at the University of West Georgia will be recognized for Leading a New World of Learning, with relevant and innovative programs that contribute to educational improvement and the betterment of society.

COE Mission

Locally connected and globally relevant, the Mission of the College of Education is to prepare graduates for meaningful careers in diverse settings. Spanning undergraduate through doctoral study, we are committed to depth of knowledge and excellence in teaching, professional practice, and applied research.

The vision and mission of the College of Education at UWG forms the basis on which programs, courses, experiences, and outcomes are created. National and state standards are incorporated as criteria against which candidates are measured. This course’s objectives, activities, and assignments are related directly to the appropriate standards, as identified below.

APPROACHES TO INSTRUCTION

This course will be delivered approximately 100% online. This requires the online equivalent of 2250 minutes of instruction (seat-time) and an additional 4500 minutes of supporting activities. As such, you will be required to complete the following online activities during this course:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Activity</th>
<th>Instructional Equivalent</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Discussion posts</td>
<td>900 minutes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Audio/video/live instruction</td>
<td>450 minutes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Online assignments</td>
<td>900 minutes</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Additionally, it is anticipated that students will need to work independently for twice the number of minutes listed above to complete the online activities.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Students will:

1. Analyze multiple sources of school and system data using processes or protocols designed to facilitate identification of areas within the curriculum in need of increased rigor and/or greater alignment with state performance standards. This course provides educational leaders the opportunity to explore and use data-informed decision making to drive and sustain organizational and academic improvements in a school setting. (Bernhardt, 2013; Goldring & Berends, 2009); (EDLE FE2; ELCC Standards 1, 3, 4, 6, 10, 11).

2. Demonstrate an understanding and proper use of instructional and supervisory approaches that relate directly to the improvement of teaching and learning, including alignment of curriculum with performance standards, fidelity of classroom implementation, and the continuous improvement process. (Calabrese, 2002); (EDLE FE4; ELCC Standards 1, 2, 3, 4, 10, 11)

3. Examine leadership and pedagogical strategies that promote a collegial environment focused on continuous improvement, including frameworks that schools and districts can use to assure teachers and leaders are engaged in high quality professional learning that will result in improvement of instruction and student learning outcomes. (Collinson & Cook, 2007; Fullan, 2005); (EDLE FB6; ELCC Standards 2, 3, 11)

4. Identify effective team building and team work strategies and protocols drawn from leadership theory and research that will be used to encourage collaborative work in the learning community, including engagement of teachers in discussions about teaching and learning, collaborative lesson planning, and assessment of student work. (Calabrese, 2002; Deal & Peterson, 2003); (EDLE FE7; ELCC Standards 2, 3, 1)

5. Demonstrate an understanding of the role of school leaders in identifying and supporting the educational and socio-emotional needs of all special student populations within a school and/or school system, including students with disabilities, homeless students, limited or non-English proficient students, and other students who may be culturally or socially marginalized in the school environment. (Calabrese, 2002); (EDLE FE13; ELCC Standards 2, 10)

ASSIGNMENTS, EVALUATION PROCEDURES, AND GRADING

Assignments:

1. Participation and Engagement – 200 points
   Contribute to discussion during online class meetings, discussion posts, and other synchronous or asynchronous activities posted in content modules to meet course learning objectives.

2. Theory to Practice Narratives – 300 points (2 @ 150 each)
   Submit “Theory to Practice (T2P)” Reflections that focus on learning and application in the context of school leadership. Assigned readings and activities are available in CourseDen Modules.

3. Comprehensive School Data Profile – 250 points
   Develop a comprehensive school data profile for your school using data from national, state, district, and school level resources. Complete data profiles must include five years of student learning data, demographic data, perception data (examples: student, teacher, parent perception surveys, etc.), and process data (examples: student assemblies, ceremonies, parent/teacher events, etc.).

4. Reflective Research Essay – 250 points
   Submit a six-eight page reflective research essay that describes your values, beliefs, and understanding regarding the use of data in promoting continuous school improvement. Submissions should be written from the perspective of your role as an educational leader in promoting the academic success and general well-being of all students. Submissions should reflect your understanding of multiple data sets, their purpose, and pedagogical strategies for use of data in planning for continuous improvement in a district or school. Submissions should address areas of school/district demographics, curriculum, classroom teaching, student learning, assessment, and stakeholder engagement, among others, as relevant to your completed Comprehensive School Data Profile. A review of literature from six to eight relevant books and scholarly articles is required.

CLASS, DEPARTMENT, AND UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Please carefully review the information at Common Language for Course Syllabi. It contains important information related to your rights and responsibilities in this class. Because these statements are updated as federal, state, university, and accreditation standards change, you should review the information each semester. In addition to the above information the following policies apply to this course.

Academic Honesty: All work completed in this course must be original work developed this semester. Students are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic honesty. Plagiarism occurs when a student uses or purchases ghostwritten papers. It also occurs when a student utilizes ideas or information obtained from another person without giving credit to that person. If plagiarism or another act of academic dishonesty occurs, it will be dealt with in accordance with the academic misconduct policy as stated in the latest Student Handbook and the Graduate Catalog.

Attendance: Students should plan to be present in the classroom regularly. It is suggested that you are in the classroom daily.

Americans with Disabilities Act: The official UWG policy is contained in the link to the Common Language for Course Syllabi located on the Provost’s website. All students are provided with equal access to classes and materials, regardless of special needs, temporary or permanent disability, special needs related to pregnancy, etc. For more information, please contact Disability Services at the University of West Georgia:

Late Work: Assignments submitted after the due date will be penalized twenty-five percent (25%). Failure to submit an assignment or presentation will result in a zero grade for the assignment.
Extra Credit: There is no opportunity for extra credit in this course. However, students may improve any assignment that received a score equivalent to a "B" or lower. The professor will announce the deadline for resubmission if a student requests an opportunity to resubmit an assignment.

Professional Conduct: Each student is expected to act in a professional manner. This is an essential quality for all individuals who will be working in schools. Professionalism includes, but is not limited, to the following behaviors:

- Participating in interactions and class activities in a positive manner
- Collaborating and working equitably with classmates
- An actively engaged instructor
- Turning in assignments on time
- Treating classmates, colleagues, and the instructor with respect in and out of the class
- Producing original work. Plagiarism, academic fraud, or turning in work previously turned in for another course, including courses outside UWG, are serious offenses.
- The learning community will review this list and adjust as needed.

Student Email Policy: University of West Georgia students are provided a MyUWG email account, which is the official means of communication between the University and student. It is the student’s responsibility to check this email account for important University related information.

UWG Cares: If you or someone you know is in a distressing situation, support is available at [http://www.westga.edu/UWG cares](http://www.westga.edu/UWG cares). The website contains access to helpful resources and phone numbers related to emergency or crisis situations and safety concerns, medical concerns, multicultural, psychological and personal issues and interpersonal conflict.

CLASS OUTLINE

This course relies heavily upon the Course Den tool. A detailed outline of the class is located there. Students should plan to check their Course Den email each day. Check the Course Den modules for specific activities, assignments, materials, scoring rubrics, etc. We will be using the Course Den Content Tab, Discussions Tab, Dropbox, Email, and Grade Tab.

Class Schedule:

Online sessions will begin at 5:30 pm and end at or before 8 pm. Students must be logged in and ready to participate by 5:30 pm on the scheduled dates for live seminars. A webcam and earphones are required.

COURSE DESCRIPTION
This fully online course provides educational leaders the opportunity to explore how to drive and sustain organizational and academic improvements in a school setting. Students will examine leadership and pedagogical changes that promote a collegial environment focused on continuous improvement while cultivating collaborative and learning focused school cultures. Learning will be drawn from theory and research, from students' personal experiences, and from case studies.

CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK
The conceptual framework of the College of Education at UWG forms the basis on which programs, courses, experiences, and outcomes are created. With the goal of Developing Exemplary Practitioners, our programs incorporate ten descriptors (knowledgeable, reflective, inquisitive, decisive, adaptive, proactive, leading, collaborative, culturally sensitive, empathetic), clustered into three interrelated and overlapping themes, that demonstrate our commitment to (a) Professional Excellence; (b) Field-Based Inquiry; and (c) the Betterment of Society. These themes and descriptors are integral components of the conceptual framework and provide the basis for developing exemplary practitioners who are prepared to improve schools and communities. National and state standards (ELCC, PSC) also are incorporated as criteria against which candidates are measured.

The mission of the College of Education is to provide excellence in the initial and advanced preparation of professionals for a variety of settings, to foster an innovative learning community, and to empower a faculty committed to teaching and the dissemination of knowledge. This course's objectives, activities, and assignments are related directly to the conceptual framework and national standards, as identified below.

APPROACHES TO INSTRUCTION
This fully online course will utilize both independent and synchronous online learning modules. Activities and assignments are structured in ways that provide appropriate opportunities for reflecting on connections between theory and practice related to selected elements of the ELCC Standards, Georgia Board of Regents Principles, and the College of Education Framework Descriptors. The course requires the online equivalent of equivalent of 2250 minutes of instruction and an additional 4500 minutes of supporting activities.

As such, students are required to complete the following online activities during this course:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Activity</th>
<th>Instructional Equivalent</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Discussion posts</td>
<td>120 minutes (Discussions and Peer Feedback)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Audio/video instruction</td>
<td>2250 minutes (4 LIVE Online Seminars)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Online assignments</td>
<td>440 minutes</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Additionally, it is anticipated that students will need to work independently for twice the number of minutes listed above to complete the online activities.
COURSE OBJECTIVES

1. Analyze major theories of leadership and the processes of organizational change relate to improving academic outcomes in a public school environment. Such knowledge should result in an understanding of administrative behavior that promotes school improvement. (Donaldson, 2001; Fullan, 2007; Kotter, 1996; Kantor, 2003; Marzano, Waters, & McNulty 2005)

2. Recognize and understand the different types of data, the purpose of each type, and the common vocabulary associated with various sources of data (Bernhardt, 2011; Depka, 2003; Johnson, 2002; Popham, 2008); (Decision Makers; Leaders; Collaborative; Knowledgeable; Proactive; Reflective; ELCC 1-3; GAPSC1, 2, 3)

3. Demonstrate proficiency in the analysis of data from multiple sources to inform decisions related to comprehensive school improvement planning (Bernhardt, 2008; Bracey, 2000; Depka, 2003; Gronlund, 2008); (Decision Makers; Leaders; Knowledgeable; Proactive; Reflective; ELCC 1-3, GAPSC 1-5)

4. Demonstrate readiness to use different types of tools and protocols to engage others in using data within a defined problem-solving cycle. (Bernhardt, 2011; Johnson, 2002; Schmoker, 2005); Decision Makers; Leaders; Adaptive; Collaborative; Knowledgeable; ELCC 3 & 6; GAPSC 2 & 3

5. Demonstrate capacity to develop an appropriate presentation for both internal and external audiences based on analysis of multiple sources of data (Bernhardt, 2011; Depka, 2002; Schmoker, 2005).

6. Identify contemporary leadership and administrative practices that best support, motivate, and influence the improvement of instruction and enhancement of student achievement to high levels while identifying factors in the organization that support and/or impede successful implementation of change initiatives. (Kaplan & Norton, 1998; Senge et al., 1999; Schlechty, 2005; Techmenn-Moran, 2004)

7. Recognize and utilize appropriate leadership practices to build capacity for pervasive and consistent implementation of evidence-based instructional practices that address the needs of all learners and support high levels of achievement.

CLASS, DEPARTMENT, AND UNIVERSITY POLICIES

1) Submission of Assignments: Each student is expected to submit all course assignments and make all assigned presentations on the due dates as listed in the class meeting schedule attached to the syllabus. Assignments received for grading after the due date or presentations not made on the assigned date will be penalized twenty-five percent (25%) unless arrangements for late submission are made prior to the original due date. Failure to submit an assignment or to make a class presentation will result in a zero grade for the assignment.

2) Attendance: Each student is expected to be on time to and attend all scheduled online seminars.

4) Academic Honesty: Each student is expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic honesty. Plagiarism occurs when a student utilizes the ideas or information obtained from another person without giving credit to that person. If plagiarism or another act of academic dishonesty occurs, it will be dealt with in accordance with the academic misconduct policy as stated in the University of West Georgia Student Handbook, Undergraduate Catalog, and Graduate Catalog. An assignment completed for another course may NOT be used to satisfy an academic requirement for this course. Attempting to do so will result in a zero for that assignment.

5) Extra Credit: There may be opportunities for extra credit in this course if special events or guest speakers are scheduled on days that are not listed as required class meeting dates. The professor will announce these opportunities along with the number of points available at least one week prior to such events. Additionally, students may improve any assignment that received a score equivalent to a "B" or lower by submitting revised work no later than one week after the feedback is sent to the student.

6) System for Evaluating Assignments: Each assignment has a point value; the total points that can be earned in the course is 1000. At the end of the semester, points are converted to letter grades (see the scale in the next section below). Total points will not be rounded up.

7) Official Communication Channel: The University of West Georgia's official communication method is through campus e-mail (MyUWG). Even though other means of communication may be used, the campus e-mail will always be the official source of communications from the professor to the class as a whole. Check your campus e-mail several times each week. At various times during the year, the university will ask you to change your password. If you fail to do this, you will have difficulty accessing your e-mail and as a result, may miss important information.

8) Disability Statement: Every effort will be made to provide all students equal access to classes and course materials regardless of special needs or temporary or permanent disability. If a student has special learning needs particularly related to (but not limited to) needs defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act, make these known to the professor and to the university's Coordinator of Disability Services. Students with documented special needs are entitled to special accommodations related to classroom accessibility, modifications in assignments, and so forth.
Assignments, Evaluation Procedures, and Grading

Assignments:

1. Participation and Engagement
   (Assessed weekly throughout the semester)
   Contribute to online discussions by posting and responding to messages related to prompts;
   Timelines are identified for each required prompt on the Course Den discussion board box (150 of 1000 points).

2. Theory to Practice Narratives
   (Submit via CourseDen Dropbox – Tuesdays)
   Submit "Theory to Practice (T2P)" Reflections that focus on learning and application in the context school leadership. The schedule of assigned readings and activities will be distributed at the beginning of the semester; (600 of 1000 points).

3. Comprehensive School Data Profile
   (Submit via CourseDen no later 7/16)
   Develop a comprehensive school data profile for your school. The profile must include, at a minimum, FIVE years of student learning and demographic data. Available perception and process data should also be included. In the event that perception and/or process data are not available, placeholders and clearly defined action steps for collecting these data. District candidates will develop a profile for the district or a specific department.

Residency Course Leadership for Organizational Change

This course will explore how to drive and sustain organizational and academic improvements in a school setting. It will examine leadership and pedagogical changes that will promote a collaborative and professional environment focused on continuous improvement. This course will reflect school reform at the building and classroom levels, specifically focusing on improved instructional practices that ensure learning for all students regardless of background. Learning will be drawn from theory and research and from students' personal experiences. Students will demonstrate proficiency by completing performance-based tasks.

Rationale

The current (2014-2016 AY) UWG Ed. S. degree and certification program does not adequately and systematically address all of the Educational Leadership Standards. Based on our curricular mapping, we believe that by divvying the three current 6 credit residency courses (EDLE 8301, 8302, & 8303) into six three-credit courses is the best way to ensure we address all standards deeply. The current six-credit residency course requires students to both learn multiple standards and to practice them in a lab setting. The result is that some standards are not taught or are taught only superficially. Currently, new Educational Leadership Standards are being developed. The outcome will result in additional standards, which magnifies the need to make the proposed changes. The proposed new courses and revisions are based on the new standards. Another advantage of the change of splitting the 6 credit course into two 3 credit courses is that more UWG students will be able to take EDLE courses. Currently, only EDL students interested in Georgia certification can take these courses. This should improve credit hour production. This proposed new course (EDLE 8304) takes content and field experiences from the current residency Courses (EDLE 8301, 8302, & 8303) and better defines what is taught when.

COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course will explore how to drive and sustain organizational and academic improvements in a school setting. It will examine leadership and pedagogical changes that will promote a collaborative and professional environment focused on continuous improvement. This course will look at school reform at the building and classroom levels specifically focusing on improved Instructional practices that ensure learning for all students regardless of background. Learning will be drawn from theory and research and from students' personal experiences. Students will demonstrate proficiency by completing performance-based tasks.

CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK
The conceptual framework of the College of Education at UWG forms the basis on which programs, courses, experiences, and outcomes are created. With the goal of Developing Exemplary Practitioners, our programs incorporate ten descriptors, clustered into three interrelated and overlapping themes, that demonstrate our commitment to (a) Professional Excellence [knowledgeable, reflective, inquisitive]; (b) Field-Based Inquiry [decisive, adaptive, proactive, leading]; and (c) the Betterment of Society [collaborative, culturally sensitive, empathetic]. These themes and descriptors are integral components of the conceptual framework and provide the basis for developing exemplary practitioners who are prepared to improve schools and communities. National (ELCC) and Georgia PSC Leadership Standards also are incorporated as criteria against which candidates are measured.

COE Vision
The College of Education at the University of West Georgia will be recognized for Leading a New World of Learning, with relevant and innovative programs that contribute to educational improvement and the betterment of society.

COE Mission
Locally connected and globally relevant, the Mission of the College of Education is to prepare graduates for meaningful careers in diverse settings. Spanning undergraduate through doctoral study, we are committed to depth of knowledge and excellence in teaching, professional practice, and applied research.

The vision and mission of the College of Education at UWG forms the basis on which programs, courses, experiences, and outcomes are created. National and state standards are incorporated as criteria against which candidates are measured. This course's objectives, activities, and assignments are related directly to the appropriate standards, as identified below.

APPROACHES TO INSTRUCTION

[INSTRUCTOR TO FILL IN DETAILS]

This course will be delivered approximately 100% online. This requires the online equivalent of 2250 minutes of instruction (seat-time) and an additional 4500 minutes of supporting activities.

As such, you will be required to complete the following online activities during this course:

Online assignments 950 minutes

Additionally, it is anticipated that students will need to work independently for twice the number minutes listed above to complete the online activities.

COURSE OBJECTIVES
Students will:

1. Analyze how the major theories of leadership and the processes of organizational change relate to improving academic outcomes in a school environment. Such knowledge should result in an understanding of administrative behavior that promotes school continuous improvement. (FE 1, 5, 11; ISLLC Standard 1, 2, 6, 8, 9, 11) { Deal and Peterson, 1999; Elmore, 2000; Fullan, 2001a, 2001b, 2003, 2005; Greenleaf, 2012; Hall and Hord, 2006; Kotter, 1996; Greenleaf, 2012; Leithwood, 1994; Leithwood, Leonard, and Sharratt, 1998; Marzano, Waters, and McNulty, 2005; Olsen and Chrispeels, 2009; Reeves, 2009; Schein, 2004; Zmuda, Kuklis, and Kline, 2004}

2. Analyze how the major theories of organizational change have influenced the way in which education is organized and administered. Such knowledge should result in an understanding of effective administrative behavior during school improvement efforts. (FE 12; ISLLC Standard 1, 2, 6, 8, 9, 11) { Darling-Hammond, 1993; Elmore, 2000; Fullan, 2001a, 2001b, 2003, 2005; Greenleaf, 2012; Leithwood, 1994; Leithwood, Leonard, and Sharratt, 1998; Marzano, Waters, and McNulty, 2005; Senge, 2006}

3. Identify contemporary leadership and administrative practices that best support, motivate, and influence the improvement of instruction and enhancement of student achievement to high levels. Gain an understanding of how to effectively monitor school improvement initiatives and develop high performing teams. (FE 1, 5; ISLLC Standard 1, 2, 6, 8, 9, 11) { Darling-Hammond, 1993; Elmore, 2000; Fullan, 2001a, 2001b, 2003, 2005; Greenleaf, 2012; Leithwood, 1994; Leithwood, Leonard, and Sharratt, 1998; Marzano, Waters, and McNulty, 2005; Senge, 2006}

4. Examine the role of leadership in building culture and determine how a school can use a system of transformational leadership, servant leadership, and distributed leadership to strengthen the school's culture. (FE 1, 5; ISLLC Standard 1, 2, 6, 8, 9, 11) { Burns, 1978; Chenoweth, 2007; Chenoweth, 2009; Darling-Hammond, 1993; Elmore, 2000; Fullan, 2001a, 2001b, 2003, 2005; Greenleaf, 2012; Leithwood, 1994; Leithwood, Leonard, and Sharratt, 1998; Marzano, Waters, and McNulty, 2005; Spillane, 2006}

Course Overview

Assignments
Detailed assignment sheets, literature, and expectations are located on the Course Den site. Each content module has an overview page which includes learning objectives, learning activities, and direction for students. There will also be monthly videos, as needed, for each module sharing important information regarding the work of this course. Students should check the Course Den each day for updates and emails. Assignments are due on the last date of each module at midnight. Please submit assignments in Microsoft Word.

(1) Asynchronous Case Studies and Discussions/Issues (Each Module)

Each content module includes activities and instructions for students designed to promote interaction and to meet course learning objectives. Follow the instructions in the module overviews and details posted on the discussion tab. (350 of 1000 points; Course Objectives 1-4)

(2) ‘Myography’ Assignment

Prepare a ‘Myography’—a self-reflective paper about your journey as a leader and the influence of course discussions and content on your perspectives of leadership. For the first part of the paper you will want to capture the key experiences, people, events, and influences that have shaped your journey as a leader. The second part of the essay is to relate how specific course content and discussions from this program may have influenced your growth as a leader, impacted your organization, and served as potential areas for future research. Please follow the instructions located in the D2L drop box. (200 of 1000 points; Course Objectives 1-4)

(3) Analysis of Leadership Practices

In this assignment, choose one of the following leadership styles (transformational, servant, or distributed) and analyze how the selected leadership practices in a school are used (or not used) to foster the development of the school’s culture. Using a framework for how leaders can engage in culture work, map the culture building work of the school’s leaders (leaders are defined as positional as well as emergent leaders). Findings will be detailed in a report with accompanying recommendations for maximizing culture building. Follow the instructions as detailed in D2L and the course drop box. (150 of 1000 points; Course Objectives 1-4)

(4) Designing High Performing Organizations

High performing organization designs promote meaningful interaction within and across their entire system. They deliver high quality services and products in a timely fashion using flexible, responsive structures. These organizations encourage individuals and teams to work across lines and positions to adapt and respond to changing requirements, technologies, and demands from the environment. They support people in identifying and leveraging member strengths and unexpected opportunities.

High performing organizations are also resilient. They serve the organization’s purpose and principals and often are connected to a higher moral purpose. These organizations create the space for people to effectively collaborate and support one another through both good and challenging times. When they are at their best, organizational designs nurture life-giving qualities, support individuals, and focus upon existing individual and systemic strengths.

1. Share a story about a time when this organization’s structure most supported you in delivering your best?
Leadership for Organizational Change
EDLE 8304, Fall 2015

a. What were the specific structures of the organization that enabled you to be at your best in meeting organizational goals?
b. What were the conditions that were created that supported this organizational excellence?
c. In what specific ways did the leadership of the organization create and maintain those conditions?

2. Describe an organization that you have heard of, or experienced whose structure was both flexible and resilient?
   a. What effect did this structure have on the organization’s members, service, and ability to achieve its vision?

3. What metaphor would you use to describe that organization?

4. What can we learn from the organization you just described?
   a. What lessons does it teach?
   b. What might we borrow from its design in order to heighten the health and vitality of our organization? Please follow the instructions and resources posted in the D2L drop box.

(200 of 1000 points; Course Objectives 1-4)

(5) Professional Development Presentation

This assignment asked you to design a PowerPoint presentation to your staff that focuses on the critical need for change. Include how employment opportunities have changed over the years. How has technology evolved and what does it mean for our staff and students? Please follow the instructions in the D2L drop box. (100 of 1000 points; Course Objectives 1-4)

CLASS, DEPARTMENT, AND UNIVERSITY POLICIES
Please carefully review the information at Common Language for Course Sylabi. It contains important information related to your rights and responsibilities in this class. Because these statements are updated as federal, state, university, and accreditation standards change, you should review the information each semester. In addition to the above information the following policies apply to this course.

Academic Honesty: All work completed in this course must be original work developed this semester. Students are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic honesty. Plagiarism occurs when a student uses or purchases ghostwritten papers. It also occurs when a student utilizes ideas or information obtained from another person without giving credit to that person. If plagiarism or another act of academic dishonesty occurs, it will be dealt with in accordance with the academic misconduct policy as stated in the latest Student Handbook and the Graduate Catalog.

Attendance: Students should plan to be present in the classroom regularly. It is suggested that you are in the classroom daily.

Disability: All students are provided with equal access to classes and materials, regardless of special needs, temporary or permanent disability, special needs related to pregnancy, etc. If you have any special learning needs, particularly (but not limited to) needs defined under the Americans with Disabilities Act, and require specific accommodations, please do not hesitate to make those known, either yourself or through the Coordinator of Disability Services. Students with documented special needs may expect accommodation in relation to classroom accessibility, modification of testing, special test administration, etc. For more information, please contact Disability Services at the University of West Georgia: http://www.westga.edu/studentDev/Index_8884.php. Any student with a disability documented through Student Services is encouraged to contact the instructor right away so that appropriate accommodations may be arranged. In addition, certain accommodations (which will be discussed in class) are available to all students, within constraints of time and space.

The Office of Disability Services will help you understand your rights and responsibilities under the Americans with Disabilities Act and provide you further assistance with requesting and arranging accommodations.

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability or chronic illness, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please notify your instructor using the course email system by the end of the second full week of class and attach a PDF copy of your SAR (Available from the Office of Disability Services).

Late Work: Assignments submitted after the due date will be penalized twenty-five percent (25%). Failure to submit an assignment or presentation will result in a zero grade for the assignment.

Extra Credit: There is no opportunity for extra credit in this course. However, students may improve any assignment that received a score equivalent to a "B" or lower. The professor will announce the deadline for resubmission if a student requests an opportunity to resubmit an assignment.

Professional Conduct: Each student is expected to act in a professional manner. This is an essential quality for all individuals who will be working in schools. Professionalism includes, but is not limited, to the following behaviors:

- Participating in interactions and class activities in a positive manner
- Collaborating and working equitably with classmates
- An actively engaged instructor
Leadership for Organizational Change
EDLE 8304, Fall 2015

- Turning in assignments on time
- Treating classmates, colleagues, and the instructor with respect in and out of the class
- Producing original work. Plagiarism, academic fraud, or turning in work previously turned in for another course, including courses outside UWG, are serious offenses.

The learning community will review this list and adjust as needed.

Student Email Policy: University of West Georgia students are provided a MyUWG email account, which is the official means of communication between the University and student. It is the student’s responsibility to check this email account for important University related information.

CLASS OUTLINE

This course relies heavily upon the Course Den tool. A detailed outline of the class is located there. Students should plan to check their Course Den email each day. Check the Course Den modules for specific activities, assignments, materials, scoring rubrics, etc. We will be using the Course Den Content Tab, Discussions Tab, Dropbox, Email, and Grade Tab.

Prerequisites

Admission to TEP and successful completion of SEED 4111 and SEED 7291

Corequisites

Rationale

The MAT course has been taught as an additional section of SEED 7281, an advanced strategies course for the MEd program. Because the MAT is designed for initial teaching certification, it is more appropriate for it to be offered as a 6000-level course without "advanced" in the course title. Additionally, having one section of a course for MEd students and a second section for MAT students is confusing for students and causes many registration problems. This 2-credit course is currently taught embedded in the 3-credit Advanced Strategies course. For purposes of field placement as well as more accurate grading of the course separate from the field experience component, each SEED 3-credit strategies course is being divided into a 2-credit course with SEED 6260 as a 1-credit field experience corequisite.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed for investigation and assessment of and research in the teaching of English with implications for strategies and curricular needs at the secondary level.
Pre-requisites required: Admission to TEP and successful completion of SEED 6111 and SEED 7291.
Co-requisite required: SEED 6260.

COE Vision
The College of Education at the University of West Georgia will be recognized for Leading a New World of Learning, with relevant and innovative programs that contribute to educational improvement and the betterment of society.

COE Mission
Locally connected and globally relevant, the Mission of the College of Education is to prepare graduates for meaningful careers in diverse settings. Spanning undergraduate through doctoral study, we are committed to depth of knowledge and excellence in teaching, professional practice, and applied research.

Conceptual Framework
The conceptual framework of the College of Education at UWG forms the basis on which programs, courses, experiences, and outcomes are created. With the goal of Preparing Exemplary Practitioners, our programs incorporate ten descriptors (knowledgeable, reflective, inquisitive, decisive, adaptive, proactive, leading, collaborative, culturally sensitive, empathetic), clustered into three interrelated and overlapping themes, that demonstrate our commitment to (a) Professional Excellence; (b) Field-Based Inquiry; and (c) the Betterment of Society. These themes and descriptors are integral components of the conceptual framework and provide the basis for developing exemplary practitioners who are prepared to improve schools and communities.

The vision and mission of the College of Education at UWG forms the basis on which programs, courses, experiences, and outcomes are created. National and state standards [(Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (INTASC), National Council for Teachers of English (NCTE)] also are incorporated as criteria against which candidates are measured. This course’s objectives, activities, and assignments are related directly to the appropriate standards, as identified below.

APPROACHES TO INSTRUCTION

This course will use interactive technology, small and large group discussion, Microsoft Office tools, and writing across the curriculum as strategies. Students are expected to read the text and use it as a guide for their coursework and field experience. Students are expected to use CourseDen for discussions.

This course will be delivered approximately 70% online. This requires the online equivalent of approximately 1560 minutes of instruction and an additional 3120 minutes of supporting activities. As such, you will be required to complete the following online activities during this course:

In addition, certain accommodations (which will be discussed in class) are available to all students, within constraints of time and space.

Extra Credit:
There is no extra credit option in this course.

Late Work:
Late work will not be accepted unless permission has been granted in advance for extenuating circumstances. Work may be, in some cases, accepted late for half-credit.

Professional Conduct:
Students are expected to act as the professionals they are by this point in their careers. Attendance and promptness are at the top of that list. Confidentiality is also important. Discussions in class and online are to be respected as confidential and should not be discussed outside of class, except with the professor or University Supervisors.

Email Policy:
University of West Georgia students are provided a MyUWG email account, which is the official means of communication between the University and student. It is the student's responsibility to check this email account for important University related information. Do not use the e-mail function within CourseDen. ALL communication should transpire via the official UWG e-mail.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Students will:
1. use national or state standards and state or local curriculum guides in making curricular decisions and evaluating curriculum;
   (Georgia Department of Education, 2014);
   (InTASC 1-8)
2. investigate and discuss current learning theories, issues, practices, and resources to develop or extend strategies and techniques considered most effective for the teaching and learning of secondary school content;
   (Cangelosi, 1996; Cooper, 2014; Kellough & Kellough, 2007; Posamentier & Stepelman, 1995);
   (InTASC 1-8)

3. develop a repertoire of skills and strategies for teaching problem-solving, social interactions, and critical thinking, and use various strategies to demonstrate flexibility in helping students learn from advanced technology to one-on-one teaching;
   (Cangelosi, 1996; Cooper, 2014; Cruickshank, Jenkins, & Metcalf, 2012; Urquhart & McIver, 2005; Marzano, 1991);
   (InTASC 1-8)

4. use knowledge of assessment, assessment techniques, and differentiated assessments to monitor students’ academic, social, and physical progress on a recurring basis to be more aware of and sensitive to students’ needs;
   (Cooper, 2014; Cruickshank, Jenkins, & Metcalf, 2012; Urquhart & McIver, 2005).
   (InTASC 1-9)

5. analyze multicultural implications, diverse needs of students, and pedagogical issues for purposes of curriculum planning;
   (Banks & Banks, 1989; Kellough & Kellough, 2007);
   (InTASC 1-9)

ASSIGNMENTS, EVALUATION PROCEDURES, AND GRADING

Evaluation and Grading:

Grading for this course is based on total points assigned. Your average will be determined by dividing the total of points you earned for the assignments by the total points possible.

Grades that influence your final average include but may not be limited to the following:
Field Experience Evaluations by cooperating teacher
Intern Keys II 50 points
Discussions 50 points (10 pts x 5)
Reflections 100 points (20 pts x 5)
Class activities 160 points
Lesson plans 200 points (100 pts x 2)
Learning Segment for edTPA 200 points
Classwork and homework as assigned 20 points
Bulletin board display 20 points
800 points TOTAL

Class Grade
A = 90 - 100 % of points
B = 80 - 89 % of points
C = 70 - 79 % of points
F = 0 - 69 % of points
Assignments:

Always refer to CourseDen for additional assignment details!
Assignments are not listed in order; pay attention to due dates!

1. Field Experience Evaluations. Due on Tk20 by cooperating teacher. 50 points. Obj 1-7.
   Intern Keys rubrics are found in the Field Experience Information folder on the CourseDen homepage and on Tk20. The information on the Intern Keys will guide what you do during the time you are in the classroom. The cooperating teacher must complete the Intern Keys Rubrics on Tk20 by the end of your field experience and you must verify that to get your credit! He or she should receive information from Stephanie Siegel (tk20@westpa.edu, 678-839-6104) for that. At least twice, you should teach all or part of a lesson, under the guidance of the cooperating teacher. Your cooperating teacher will observe you teaching and working with students throughout your field experience, and those observations will influence his or her evaluations of you on Tk20.

2. Learning Segment for edTPA. Due on CourseDen and Tk20. Course Objectives 1-10.
   This is the critical assessment for this course. You will develop a learning segment of 3 lessons with teaching artifacts, video segments, and evaluative commentary, as implemented with the students in your field placement.

3. Discussions. Refer to CourseDen for the five due dates. 50 points (10 each).
   There will be five discussions on CourseDen that coincide with assigned readings and/or class activities. Further instructions, including topics to discuss, will be posted on CourseDen. For each of the discussions, you should make a minimum of five entries. One entry will be your primary answer to the question(s). The other three should be responses to other students’ entries. For this to run smoothly, everyone should post their primary posting before the end of the week, so you all have time at the end of the week to reply to each other.

4. Reflections. Refer to CourseDen for the five due dates. 100 points (20 each).
   There will be five reflections on CourseDen that coincide with assigned readings and/or class activities. Further instructions, including topics, will be posted on CourseDen. For each of the five reflections, you should write a narrative essay in response to the topic, and upload your MSWord document to the dropbox.

Tentative Schedule

This is a general plan for this course. Be aware that this schedule may change as the semester progresses!
Any/all changes will be reflected in the weekly assignment postings on CourseDen.

Rationale

The addition of this course was decided upon during a meeting of MAT leaders as a means to ensure that all teacher candidates are aware of expectations, requirements, and deadlines moving forward to their experiences in the field. As the program grows, student awareness of these is becoming an increasing problem and the COE’s reputation in the public school system depends, in part, upon the responsibilities of our students. The course syllabus was written collaboratively between the SEED program coordinator and the director of the Office of Field Based Preparation, and will be co-taught by these representatives.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is a review of general field experience expectations and requirements. Documents and deadlines will be introduced. Upon completion of this course, students will have met the requirements necessary to be placed in a public school setting. This course is designed to serve as a prerequisite for any MAT course in the SEED program that includes a field experience.
Pre-requisite required: Admission to TEP.

COE Vision
The College of Education at the University of West Georgia will be recognized for Leading a New World of Learning, with relevant and innovative programs that contribute to educational improvement and the betterment of society.

COE Mission
Locally connected and globally relevant, the Mission of the College of Education is to prepare graduates for meaningful careers in diverse settings. Spanning undergraduate through doctoral study, we are committed to depth of knowledge and excellence in teaching, professional practice, and applied research.

Conceptual Framework
The conceptual framework of the College of Education at UWG forms the basis on which programs, courses, experiences, and outcomes are created. With the goal of Preparing Exemplary Practitioners, our programs incorporate ten descriptors (knowledgeable, reflective, inquisitive, decisive, adaptive, proactive, leading, collaborative, culturally sensitive, empathetic), clustered into three interrelated and overlapping themes, that demonstrate our commitment to (a) Professional Excellence; (b) Field-Based Inquiry; and (c) the Betterment of Society. These themes and descriptors are integral components of the conceptual framework and provide the basis for developing exemplary practitioners who are prepared to improve schools and communities.

The vision and mission of the College of Education at UWG forms the basis on which programs, courses, experiences, and outcomes are created. National and state standards [(Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (INTASC), National Council for Teachers of English (NCTE)] also are incorporated as criteria against which candidates are measured. This course's objectives, activities, and assignments are related directly to the appropriate standards, as identified below.

APPROACHES TO INSTRUCTION

Students are expected to use CourseDen for information and communications.

This course will be delivered approximately 95 % face-to-face.
CLASS, DEPARTMENT, AND UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Academic Honesty:
All work completed in this course must be original work developed this semester. Students are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic honesty. Plagiarism occurs when a student uses or purchases ghostwritten papers. It also occurs when a student utilizes ideas or information obtained from another person without giving credit to that person. If plagiarism or another act of academic dishonesty occurs, it will be dealt with in accordance with the academic misconduct policy as stated in the latest Connection and Student Handbook and the Graduate Catalog.

Attendance:
Attendance is required for this orientation, as a prerequisite to enrollment in any SEED course requiring a field experience placement in a public school system.

Disability:
All students are provided with equal access to classes and materials, regardless of special needs, temporary or permanent disability, special needs related to pregnancy, etc. If you have any special learning needs, particularly (but not limited to) needs defined under the Americans with Disabilities Act, and require specific accommodations, please do not hesitate to make those known, either yourself or through the Coordinator of Disability Services. Students with documented special needs may expect accommodation in relation to classroom accessibility, modification of testing, special test administration, etc. For more information, please contact Disability Services at the University of West Georgia: http://www.westga.edu/studentDev/index_8884.php. Any student with a disability documented through Student Services is encouraged to contact the instructor right away so that appropriate accommodations may be arranged. In addition, certain accommodations (which will be discussed in class) are available to all students, within constraints of time and space.

Professional Conduct:
Students are expected to act as the professionals they are by this point in their careers. Attendance and promptness are at the top of that list. Confidentiality is also important. Discussions in class and online are to be respected as confidential and should not be discussed outside of class, except with the professor or University Supervisors.

Email Policy:
University of West Georgia students are provided a MyUWG email account, which is the official means of communication between the University and student. It is the student’s responsibility to check this email account for important University related information. Do not use the e-mail function within CourseDen. ALL communication should transpire via the official UWG e-mail.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Students will:

1. Complete the field experience application in Tk20 (Educator Preparation Handbook);

2. review professional expectations and agree to adhere to the provisions set forth in the College of Education Memorandum of Understanding for Field Experiences (Educator Preparation Handbook; GA Code of Ethics for Educators);

3. review protocols and complete the documentation and application materials required for successful participation in field experiences (Educator Preparation Handbook; GA Code of Ethics for Educators).

Prerequisites

- Admission to TEP and successful completion of SEED 6111. One field experience application is required for placement.

Corequisites

- Instructional Strategies course appropriate to certification area (such as SEED 6261, 6262, 6263, or 6264)

Rationale

This course is currently taught embedded in a 3-credit Advanced Strategies course. For purposes of field placement and proper assignment of a university supervisor in Banner/EnWeb as well as more accurate grading of the field experience component of the course, each SEED 3-credit strategies course is being divided into a 2-credit course with this 1-credit field experience corequisite.

APPROACHES TO INSTRUCTION

Students are expected to use CourseDen for information and communications.

This course will be delivered approximately 95 % face-to-face. Students will be placed with a mentor teacher in a public school classroom at the secondary level.

Additionally, it is anticipated that students will need to work independently to prepare for teaching in the field.
CLASS, DEPARTMENT, AND UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Academic Honesty:
All work completed in this course must be original work developed this semester. Students are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic honesty. Plagiarism occurs when a student uses or purchases ghostwritten papers. It also occurs when a student utilizes ideas or information obtained from another person without giving credit to that person. If plagiarism or another act of academic dishonesty occurs, it will be dealt with in accordance with the academic misconduct policy as stated in the latest Connection and Student Handbook and the Graduate Catalog.

Attendance:
Students will be required to spend 7 weeks in schools, two days a week, to complete the field experience.

Disability:
All students are provided with equal access to classes and materials, regardless of special needs, temporary or permanent disability, special needs related to pregnancy, etc. If you have any special learning needs, particularly (but not limited to) needs defined under the Americans with Disabilities Act, and require specific accommodations, please do not hesitate to make those known, either yourself or through the Coordinator of Disability Services. In addition, certain accommodations (which will be discussed in class) are available to all students, within constraints of time and space.

Extra Credit:
There is no extra credit option in this course.

Late Work:
Late work will not be accepted unless permission has been granted in advance for extenuating circumstances. Work may be, in some cases, accepted late for half-credit.

Professional Conduct:
Students are expected to act as the professionals they are by this point in their careers. Attendance and promptness are at the top of that list. Confidentiality is also important. Discussions in class and online are to be respected as confidential and should not be discussed outside of class, except with the professor or University Supervisors.

It is the student’s responsibility to check this email account for important University related information. Do not use the e-mail function within CourseDen. ALL communication should transpire via the official UWG e-mail.
COURSE OBJECTIVES

Students will:

1. apply knowledge from accompanying strategies course in their field experience placement (InTASC 1-8);
2. implement lesson plans that promote active student engagement beyond direct instruction (InTASC 1-8);
3. implement lesson plans that provide for differentiation to engage all students (InTASC 2, 7);
4. demonstrate proficiency in using and/or implementing technologies that are in place at the school/classroom of their field placement (InTASC 5, 8);
5. demonstrate professional and ethical behavior at all times (InTASC 9);
6. successfully complete the field experience (InTASC 1-10); and
7. demonstrate readiness to progress into the student teaching internship (InTASC 1-10).

Prerequisites

Admission to MAT and successful completion of SEED 6261 and SEED 7291

Corequisites

Rationale

This M-Th course has been taught as an additional section of SEED 7262, an advanced strategies course for the MAT program. Because the MAT is designed for initial teaching certification, it is more appropriate for it to be offered as a 600-level course without "advanced" in the course title. Additionally, having one section of a course for MAT students and a second section for ED students is confusing for students and causes many registration problems. This 2-credit course is currently taught embedded in the 3-credit Advanced Strategies course. For purposes of field placement as well as more accurate grading of the course separate from the field experience component, each SEED 3-credit strategies course is being divided into a 2-credit course with SEED 6260 as a 1-credit field experience corequisite.

COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course is designed for investigation and assessment of and research into the teaching of social studies with implications for strategies and curricular needs at the secondary level. Pre-requisites required: Admission to TEP and successful completion of SEED 6111 and SEED 7291. Co-requisite required: SEED 6260.

COE Vision
The College of Education at the University of West Georgia will be recognized for Leading a New World of Learning, with relevant and innovative programs that contribute to educational improvement and the betterment of society.

COE Mission
Locally connected and globally relevant, the Mission of the College of Education is to prepare graduates for meaningful careers in diverse settings. Spanning undergraduate through doctoral study, we are committed to depth of knowledge and excellence in teaching, professional practice, and applied research.

Conceptual Framework
The conceptual framework of the College of Education at UWG forms the basis on which programs, courses, experiences, and outcomes are created. With the goal of Preparing Exemplary Practitioners, our programs incorporate ten descriptors (knowledgeable, reflective, inquisitive, decisive, adaptive, proactive, leading, collaborative, culturally sensitive, empathetic), clustered into three interrelated and overlapping themes, that demonstrate our commitment to (a) Professional Excellence; (b) Field-Based Inquiry; and (c) the Betterment of Society. These themes and descriptors are integral components of the conceptual framework and provide the basis for developing exemplary practitioners who are prepared to improve schools and communities.

The vision and mission of the College of Education at UWG forms the basis on which programs, courses, experiences, and outcomes are created. National and state standards [(Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (INTASC), National Council for the Social Studies (NCSS)]) also are incorporated as criteria against which candidates are measured. This course’s objectives, activities, and assignments are related directly to the appropriate standards, as identified below.

APPROACHES TO INSTRUCTION
This course will use interactive technology, small group discussion, Microsoft Office tools, and writing across the curriculum as strategies. Students are expected to read the text and use it as a guide for their Internship. Students are expected to use D2L for discussions and turning in homework.

This course will be delivered approximately 50% online. This requires the online equivalent of 1080 minutes of instruction (seat-time) with 2250 minutes of supporting activities.

As such, you will be required to complete the following online activities during this course:

CLASS, DEPARTMENT, AND UNIVERSITY POLICIES

University policies are posted on the Provost website at http://www.westga.edu/assets/Depts/vpaa/Common_Language_for_Course_Syllabi.pdf

Attendance:
Attendance is required.

Disability:
All students are provided with equal access to classes and materials, regardless of special needs, temporary or permanent disability, special needs related to pregnancy, etc. If you have any special learning needs, particularly (but not limited to) needs defined under the Americans with Disabilities Act, and require specific accommodations, please do not hesitate to make those known, either yourself or through the Coordinator of Disability Services. Students with documented special needs may expect accommodation in relation to classroom accessibility, modification of testing, special test administration, etc. For more information, please contact Disability Services at the University of West Georgia: http://www.westga.edu/studentDev/index_8884.php. Any student with a disability documented through Student Services is encouraged to contact the instructor right away so that appropriate accommodations may be arranged. In addition, certain accommodations (which will be discussed in class) are available to all students, within constraints of time and space.

Extra Credit:
There is no extra credit for this class.

Late Work:
Late work may be accepted with point deduction.

Student Email Policy:
University of West Georgia students are provided a MyUWG email account, which is the official means of communication between the University and student. It is the student’s responsibility to check this email account for important University related information.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Students will:

1. use national or state standards and state or local curriculum guides in making curricular decisions and evaluating curriculum; (Georgia Department of Education, 2014); (InTASC 1-8)

2. demonstrate an awareness of and the ability to use a variety of strategies, resources, and evaluation techniques for the teaching of history and other social studies fields, (various articles from various scholarly journals and the Internet; Lesh, 2011); (InTASC 4, 8, NCSS 1-10)

3. develop a repertoire of skills and strategies for teaching problem-solving, social interactions, and critical thinking, and use various strategies to demonstrate flexibility in helping students learn from advanced technology to one-on-one teaching; (Cangelosi, 1996; Cooper, 2014; Cruickshank, Jenkins, & Metcalf, 2012; Urquhart & Melver, 2005; Marzano, 1991); (InTASC 1-8)
4. use knowledge of assessment, assessment techniques, and differentiated assessments to monitor students' academic, social, and physical progress on a recurring basis to be more aware of and sensitive to students' needs;
(InTASC 1-9)

5. analyze multicultural implications, diverse needs of students, and pedagogical issues for purposes of curriculum planning;
(Banks & Banks, 1989; Kellough & Kellough, 2007);
(InTASC 1-9)

6. review multimedia programs, videos, and information via Internet and be prepared to discuss the impact of media on the social studies curriculum (Berson, 2003; Hyerle, 1996; Land & Turner, 1997; Stockard, 2005); and (InTASC 7-8; NCSS 1-10)

7. prepare classroom presentations using technology and online applications, and be prepared to discuss the impact of technology on curriculum; and
Urcuhart & McIver, 2005);
(InTASC 1-8)

8. read about, discuss, and practice state licensure performance-based assessment(s).
(InTASC 1-10)

ASSIGNMENTS, EVALUATION PROCEDURES, AND GRADING POLICY

1. Attendance: Four Face-to-face meetings are required as outlined in the schedule below. (100 points)
   (Course Objectives 1-8)

2. Discussion Boards: Six discussion boards on the times listed below. They should reflect that one has read the assigned readings. (300 points)
   (Course Objectives 1-7)

3. Reflection Papers: Five reflection papers to be based on field experience. (100 points).
   (Course Objective 8)

4. edTPA Commentaries and attachments. Turn in Tasks 1, 2, 3, with attachments for me to review before you turn them in as a part of your unit plan. Task 1 is the Planning Commentary and should include graphic organizers, handouts, etc. that go with it. Task 2 is the Instructional Commentary and 3 lesson segments. Task 3 is the Assessment Commentary plus three student work products with your comments on them. Turn in on D2L on March 29. (150 points)
   (Course Objective 5)

5. edTPA Final. This includes 4 Commentaries, 3 lesson plans, 3 examples of materials, 3 work samples (one must be an assessment). Limit 20 pages as for edTPA. Hand in in class not on D2L on April 11, 2015. Your score will go into Gradebook on D2L. Further instructions will be provided in class. One lesson plan should be loaded to Tk20 by April 19, 2015. I will grade that lesson on Tk20. Therefore, these points cannot be recorded until I can see the lesson on Tk20. (300 points)
   (Course Objective 5)

6. Microteaching: Referencing one of the above mentioned lesson segments, teach the class for 15 minutes. You should use a strategy from one of the segments. Please read the rubric for the microteaching and take special note that you cannot pass if you spend your time in direct-teaching mode, e.g., lecturing, showing YouTube, PowerPoint. (100 points)
   (Course Objectives 1-7)
7. Video and Reflections: Tape yourself twice for ten minutes during your field experience. Upload to YouTube. Copy URL for YOUR YouTube into dialogue box on D2L. Write a one-page reflection for each. Instructions for doing this are located under News in D2L. Date will be open until April 19, 2015. (100 points each) (Course Objectives 5 and 8)

8. Load one lesson segment to Tk20. This is a Key Assessment for your degree. Date will be open until April 19, 2015. (50 points) (Course Objective 5)

- Admission to TEP and successful completion of SEED 4111 and SEED 7293

Corequisites
- SEED 6260

Rationale
This MAT course has been taught as an additional section of SEED 7293, an advanced strategies course for the MEd program. Because the MAT is designed for initial teaching certification, it is more appropriate for it to be offered as a 6000-level course without "advanced" in the course title. Additionally, having one section of a course for MEd students and a second section for MAT students is confusing for students and causes many registration problems. This 2-credit course is currently taught embedded in the 3-credit Advanced Strategies course. For purposes of field placement as well as more accurate grading of the course separate from the field experience component, Each SEED 3-credit strategies course is being divided into a 2-credit course with SEED 6260 as a 1-credit field experience corequisite.

COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course is designed for investigation and assessment of and research in the teaching of science with implications for strategies and curricular needs at the secondary level. Pre-requisites required: Admission to TEP and successful completion of SEED 6111 and SEED 7291. Co-requisite required: SEED 6260.

COE Vision
The College of Education at the University of West Georgia will be recognized for Leading a New World of Learning, with relevant and innovative programs that contribute to educational improvement and the betterment of society.

COE Mission
Locally connected and globally relevant, the Mission of the College of Education is to prepare graduates for meaningful careers in diverse settings. Spanning undergraduate through doctoral study, we are committed to depth of knowledge and excellence in teaching, professional practice, and applied research.

Conceptual Framework
The conceptual framework of the College of Education at UWG forms the basis on which programs, courses, experiences, and outcomes are created. With the goal of Preparing Exemplary Practitioners, our programs incorporate ten descriptors (knowledgeable, reflective, inquisitive, decisive, adaptive, proactive, leading, collaborative, culturally sensitive, empathetic), clustered into three interrelated and overlapping themes, that demonstrate our commitment to (a) Professional Excellence; (b) Field-Based Inquiry; and (c) the Betterment of Society. These themes and descriptors are integral components of the conceptual framework and provide the basis for developing exemplary practitioners who are prepared to improve schools and communities.

The vision and mission of the College of Education at UWG forms the basis on which programs, courses, experiences, and outcomes are created. National and state standards ([Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (INTASC), National Council for the Social Studies (NCSS)]) also are incorporated as criteria against which candidates are measured. This course’s objectives, activities, and assignments are related directly to the appropriate standards, as identified below.

CLASS, DEPARTMENT, AND UNIVERSITY POLICIES
Please carefully review the information at Common Language for Course Syllabi. It contains important information related to your rights and responsibilities in this class. Because these statements are updated as federal, state, university, and accreditation standards change, you should review the information each semester. In addition to the above information the following policies apply to this course.

Academic Honesty:
All work completed in this course must be original work developed this semester. Students are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic honesty. Plagiarism occurs when a student uses or purchases ghostwritten papers. It also occurs when a student utilizes ideas or information obtained from another person without giving credit to that person. If plagiarism or another act of academic dishonesty occurs, it will be dealt with in accordance with the academic misconduct policy as stated in the latest Student Handbook and the Graduate Catalog.

Attendance:
You are required to attend each of the 6 scheduled Saturday meetings and participate in class each week that we meet online. Absences will not be excused without documentation of an emergency.
Americans with Disabilities Act:
The official UWG policy is contained in the link to the Common Language for Course Syllabi located on the Provost’s website. All students are provided with equal access to classes and materials, regardless of special needs, temporary or permanent disability, special needs related to pregnancy, etc. For more information, please contact Disability Services at the University of West Georgia: http://www.westga.edu/studentDev/index_8884.php.

Extra Credit:
Extra credit will not be available in this course. Please do your best work on the assigned activities.

Late Work:
Papers and projects submitted after the due date will have a full letter-grade reduction for each day they are late. The course outline lists all assignments and due dates.

Professional Conduct:
As teachers you have made a commitment to the education profession. As such, you should conduct yourself at all times in a professional manner. Please plan on actively participating in all course activities, reflecting on and discussing your teaching profession, and developing collegial, supportive relationships with your fellow teachers. The use of computers, cell phones, tablets, and other devices for non-course related activities during our face-to-face class meetings is unprofessional. Please step outside the room to take an important call or answer an emergency message.

Student Email Policy:
The official email policy is contained in the link to the Common Language for Course Syllabi located on the Provost’s website. Please do not use the email function in CourseDen to contact your instructor. You will receive a faster response by emailing my jedelman@westga.edu address directly.

UWG Cares:
If you or someone you know is in a distressing situation, support is available at http://www.westga.edu/UWGcares/ The website contains access to helpful resources and phone numbers related to emergency or crisis situations and safety concerns, medical concerns, multicultural, psychological and personal issues and interpersonal conflict.

APPROACHES TO INSTRUCTION
This course will use interactive direct instruction, small group discussion, peer editing and feedback, and writing across the curriculum as strategies. Of special focus will be the strategies of inquiry- and argumentation-based instruction.

This course will be delivered partially online. This requires the online equivalent of 790 (minutes of instruction (seat-time) and an additional 1580 minutes of supporting activities.

As such, you will be required to complete the following online activities during this course:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Activity</th>
<th>Instructional Equivalent</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Online assignments &amp; activities</td>
<td>1580 minutes</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Additionally, it is anticipated that students will need to work independently for twice the number minutes listed above to complete the online activities.

The remainder of the class will be delivered face-to-face. During this time (1200 minutes) you will be required to participate in activities such as:

ASSIGNMENTS, EVALUATION PROCEDURES, AND GRADING

Assignments and core requirements: Written assignments are final products that will be graded on both what is written (clarity, depth, insight) and how it is written (the form of the written work). Therefore, it is crucial to realize that correct grammar and spelling, proper punctuation, neatness, and adherence to assignment guidelines will affect your grade. As an educator, you will be expected to demonstrate high levels of competence not only in verbal but also in written communication with parents, administrators, and other educators. Evaluation of written assignments will be accomplished through rubrics, which will be distributed as assignments are given. All assignments must be completed in a typed, double space format, with Times/Times New Roman font, size 12 and 1-inch margins on all sides unless otherwise indicated.
Course Assignments are due by 1:00 p.m. on the designated date. Due dates are listed on the course schedule; full instructions for each assignment are posted on CourseDen. Assignments are to be typed and submitted to the appropriate dropbox on CourseDen (except for the Unit Plan which will be turned in on TK20). Late papers and projects will have their grades reduced by 10% for each day they are late. Please do not wait until the last minute to upload your assignments; technical/computer issues will not excuse the lateness of the assignment. Your Learning Segment must be turned in on Tk20 on the due date in order to receive credit.

Assignments: This is a brief overview of how you will demonstrate your learning in this course. Each assignment will have further instructions posted in CourseDen and will be discussed in class.

1. Course Modules: The course is divided into 3 modules: Identity, Practice, and Reflection. Each module is further divided into weekly units. The weekly units contain the assigned readings and activities. All weekly unit activities are due on Saturday by 1:00 pm.

2. Preparation, Participation, and Professionalism: Attendance and punctuality are required, since much of the value of the course will be through the experiences that occur during our class sessions. You must be present to learn, and to contribute to the learning of others. Active participation is expected, a critical assumption for learning anything more deeply. The pedagogy being advocated and modeled through our course is the belief that our students must commit to, and be involved actively in, the problems and situations being posed. Be involved whether we are meeting face to face or completing an online unit.

3. Philosophy of Teaching: You will develop a philosophy of teaching science at the beginning of the course. This philosophy will be revisited at the end of the semester.

4. Targeted Observations: In lieu of a weekly field experience journal, you are asked to complete 5 targeted observations in your field experience classroom. Each observation will have a different focus.

5. Learning Segment: The capstone assignment for this course is the completion of a learning segment consisting of 5 connected lessons. The lessons should focus on a single concept within the discipline and be inquiry-based. You will turn this in on Tk20 not CourseDen.

Evaluation Procedures

Grading

Assignments will be graded by the course instructors based on accuracy, completeness, and consistency with deadlines, as well as the guidelines distributed and/or discussed in class. Failure to meet deadlines/guidelines for the assignments will result in a grade reduction.

Grading scale:

A = 1800-2000 points B = 1600-1799 points C = 1400-1599 points and F = 1399 or less

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is an introduction to the basics of teaching and learning with an emphasis on establishing decorum and structure in the classroom.
Prerequisite required: Admission to TEP. Co-requisite required: SEED 7291L.

COE VISION AND MISSION

The College of Education at the University of West Georgia will be recognized for Leading a New World of Learning, with relevant and innovative programs that contribute to educational improvement and the betterment of society.

Locally connected and globally relevant, the Mission of the College of Education is to prepare graduates for meaningful careers in diverse settings. Spanning undergraduate through doctoral study, we are committed to depth of knowledge and excellence in teaching, professional practice, and applied research.

The vision and mission of the College of Education at UWG forms the basis on which programs, courses, experiences, and outcomes are created. National standards [Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (InTASC)] also are incorporated as criteria against which candidates are measured. This course’s objectives, activities, and assignments are related directly to the appropriate standards, as identified below.

APPROACHES TO INSTRUCTION

This course will be delivered approximately 95% online. This requires the online equivalent of approximately 1425 minutes of instruction and an additional 2850 minutes of supporting activities. Thus, you should plan to devote a weekly average of 2 hours toward instructional time and an additional 2 hours toward independent work on the supporting activities and assignments.

As such, you will be required to complete the following online activities during this course:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Activity</th>
<th>Online Instructional Equivalent</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Discussion posts</td>
<td>400 minutes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Audio/video/instruction</td>
<td>525 minutes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Online assignments</td>
<td>500 minutes</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Additionally, it is anticipated that students will need to work independently for twice the number minutes listed above to complete the online activities.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Students will:

1. find and use the Georgia Performance Standards appropriate to their subject area (Georgia Department of Education, 2015);
   (InTASC 7)
2. discuss current theories as they relate to curriculum development (Cooper, 2014; Cruickshank, Jenkins, & Metcalf, 2009);
   (InTASC 1-2, 5-9)
3. analyze multicultural implications, diverse needs of students, and pedagogical issues for purposes of curriculum planning (Banks & Banks, 2006; Carjuzaa & Kellough, 2013);
(InTASC 1-2, 5-9)

4. design curriculum materials and instruction using a variety of tools, including lesson plans that are based on a variety of models (Cruickshank, Jenkins, & Metcalf, 2012; Dean, Hubbell, Pitler & Stone, 2012; Carjuzaa & Kellough, 2013; Wiggins & McTighe, 2005);
(InTASC 4-8)

5. develop a perspective on key concepts of organizing a classroom and managing student behavior, including the importance of routines and procedures to successful classroom management (Cooper, 2014; Sprick, 2006; Weinstein & Novodvorsky, 2011; Wong, 2009);
(InTASC 3, 9)

6. apply experience from accompanying SEED 7291L in their coursework (InTASC 1-10);

CLASS, DEPARTMENT, AND UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Academic Honesty:

All work completed in this course must be original work developed this semester. Students are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic honesty. Plagiarism occurs when a student uses or purchases ghostwritten papers. It also occurs when a student utilizes ideas or information obtained from another person without giving credit to that person. If plagiarism or another act of academic dishonesty occurs, it will be dealt with in accordance with the academic misconduct policy as stated in the latest Connection and Student Handbook and the Graduate Catalog.

Attendance:

Attendance is required, either in person or online, for all class meetings and field experience dates.

Disability:

All students are provided with equal access to classes and materials, regardless of special needs, temporary or permanent disability, special needs related to pregnancy, etc. If you have any special learning needs, particularly (but not limited to) needs defined under the Americans with Disabilities Act, and require specific accommodations, please do not hesitate to make those known, either yourself or through the Coordinator of Disability Services. Students with documented special needs may expect accommodation in relation to classroom accessibility, modification of testing, special test administration, etc. For more information, please contact Disability Services at the University of West Georgia:
http://www.westga.edu/studentDev/index_8884.php. Any student with a disability documented through Student Services is encouraged to contact the instructor right away so that appropriate accommodations may be arranged. In addition, certain accommodations (which will be discussed in class) are available to all students, within constraints of time and space.

UWG Cares:
If you or someone you know is in a distressing situation, support is available at http://www.westga.edu/UWGcares. The website contains access to helpful resources and phone numbers related to emergency or crisis situations and safety concerns, medical concerns, multicultural, psychological and personal issues and interpersonal conflict.
Extra Credit:
There is no extra credit option in this course.

Late Work:
Late work will not be accepted unless permission has been granted in advance for extenuating circumstances. Work may be, in some cases, posted early.

Professional Conduct:
Students are expected to act as the professionals they are by this point in their careers. Attendance and promptness are at the top of that list. Confidentiality is also important. Discussions in class and online are to be respected as confidential and should not be discussed outside of class, except with the professor or University Supervisors.

Email Policy:
University of West Georgia students are provided a MyUWG email account, which is the official means of communication between the University and student. It is the student’s responsibility to check this email account for important University related information.
Do not use the e-mail function within CourseDen. ALL communication should transpire via the official UWG e-mail.

Evaluation and Grading:

Grading for this course is based on total points assigned. Your average will be determined by dividing the total of points you earned for the assignments by the total points possible.

Note: Assignments may be altered, added, or eliminated, based on the instructor’s discretion and the needs of the class. Grades that influence your final average include (but may not be limited to) the following:

Total: 700 points

Class Grade
A = 90 - 100 % of points
B = 80 - 89 % of points
C = 70 - 79 % of points
F = 0 - 69 % of points

Assignments:

Always refer to CourseDen for additional assignment details!
Assignments are not listed in order; pay attention to due dates!

1. InTASC Reflective Essay Due on CourseDen and Tk20. 50 points. Objectives 1-6.
   This paper is based upon the ten InTASC Principles. The paper should incorporate a personal reflection on each of the ten principles that demonstrates an understanding of each principle, documents examples of personal and/or field experiences related to each principle, and describes ways in which each principle may be incorporated into future plans for teaching.

2. Classroom Management Plan Due on CourseDen and Tk20. 125 points. Objectives 2, 3, 5, 6.
   This is the big-ticket item for the course! Develop a one-page handout (single-sided) suitable to give to students on the first day of class to ensure that your classroom runs smoothly and has an atmosphere that is safe, positive, and conducive to the learning process. It should outline your policies for class procedures for teachers and students, your class rules, and your consequences.

3. Class Assessment Plan Due on CourseDen. 75 points. Objectives 1-4, 6.
   Develop a one-page handout (single-sided) suitable to give to students on the first day of class to communicate your grading policy / procedures for make-up work, late work, extra credit, cheating, etc.

4. Class Brochure Due on CourseDen. 50 points. Objectives 2, 3, 5.
   This will be a professional-looking tri-fold brochure, suitable for giving to parents during Open House. Layout and graphics are important. It should introduce you, your course, and any information you feel parents need at their fingertips: perhaps rules/consequences, grading, your contact information, how parents can help, etc.
5. Discussions. Refer to CourseDen for the ten due dates. 100 points (10 each). Course Objectives 1-6.

There will be ten discussions on CourseDen that coincide with assigned readings and/or your field experiences. Further instructions, including topics to discuss, will be posted on CourseDen.

For each of the discussions, you should make a minimum of five entries. One entry will be your primary answer to the question(s). The other four should be responses to other students’ entries. For this to run smoothly, everyone should post their primary posting before the end of the week, so you all have time at the end of the week to reply to each other.

6. Reflections. Refer to CourseDen for the five due dates. 100 points (20 each). Course Objectives 1-6.

There will be five reflections on CourseDen that coincide with assigned readings and/or your field experiences. Further instructions, including topics, will be posted on CourseDen.

For each of the five reflections, you should write a narrative essay in response to the topic, and upload your MSWord document to the dropbox. Although these are personal responses, this is not a casual composition like your online postings – part of your evaluation will be of your writing skills, so prove to me that you can write an essay!

7. Lesson Plan. Due on CourseDen. 100 points. Course Objectives 1-4, 6.

You will prepare a lesson plan following the UWG lesson plan format provided on CourseDen. Refer to the annotated lesson plan for details that pertain to each element, as well as the scoring rubric.

The lesson plan should be based on your primary content area (English, social studies, math, science, business, etc.). If you plan ahead, it could be a lesson that you are able to teach during your field experience. You should plan the lesson, receive feedback from your cooperating teacher, teach it, and revise it as necessary before turning it in.

8. Final Exam and Answer Key. Due on CourseDen. 100 points. Objectives 1-5.

Develop a 100-point test suitable for this college class. You decide the number of questions, point values, layout, order, directions, etc. Your grade will be based primarily on how well you follow the test-making directions, but the answers are important too. This semester final exam will test your knowledge of Classroom Teaching Skills chapters 1, 2, 5, 6, 8, 9, 10, class discussions, and assignments.

Tentative Schedule

This is a general plan for this course. Be aware that this schedule may change as the semester progresses! Any/all changes will be reflected in the weekly assignment postings on CourseDen.

Assignments:
Always refer to CourseDen for additional assignment details!
Assignments are not listed in order; pay attention to due dates!

1. Field Experience Evaluations. Due Feb 20 on Tk20 by cooperating teacher. 50 points. Objectives 1-7.
   Intern Keys and Dispositions rubrics are found in the Field Experience Information folder on the CourseDen homepage and on Tk20. Two copies should be printed at the beginning of the semester for reference: one for yourself and one for your cooperating teacher. The information on the Intern Keys will guide what you do during the six-week time you are in the classroom. The cooperating teacher must complete both the Intern Keys and the Disposition Rubrics on Tk20 by the end of your field experience and you must verify that to get your credit! He or she should receive information from Stephanie Siegel (tk20@westga.edu, 678-839-6104) about how to do that.
   At least twice, you should teach all or part of a lesson, under the guidance of the cooperating teacher. Your cooperating teacher will observe you teaching and working with students throughout your field experience, and those observations will influence his or her evaluations of you on Tk20.
   Note: The field experience is a key component of this course. Failure to successfully complete the field experience will result in an F for the course, regardless of other grades.

2. InTASC Reflective Essay. Due Apr 19 on CourseDen and Tk20. 50 points. Objectives 1-7.
   This paper is based upon the ten InTASC Principles. The paper should incorporate a personal reflection on each of the ten principles that demonstrates an understanding of each principle, documents examples of personal and/or field experiences related to each principle, and describes ways in which each principle may be incorporated into future plans for teaching.

Prerequisites

Admission to MAT and successful completion of SEED 4111 and SEED 7381

Corequisites

Rationale

This MAT course has been taught as an additional section of SEED 7384, an advanced strategies course for the MEd program. Because the MAT is designed for initial teaching certification, it is more appropriate for it to be offered as a 6000-level course without "advanced" in the course title. Additionally, having one section of a course for MEd students and a second section for MAT students is confusing for students and causes many registration problems. This 2-credit course is currently taught embedded in the 3-credit Advanced Strategies course. For purposes of field placement as well as more accurate grading of the course separate from the field experience component, each SEED 3-credit strategies course is being divided into a 2-credit course with SEED 6260 as a 1-credit field experience corequisite.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
This course is designed for investigation and assessment of and research in the teaching of mathematics with implications for strategies and curricular needs at the secondary level. Pre-requisites required: Admission to TEP and successful completion of SEED 6111 and SEED 7291. Co-requisite required: SEED 6260.

COE Vision
The College of Education at the University of West Georgia will be recognized for Leading a New World of Learning, with relevant and innovative programs that contribute to educational improvement and the betterment of society.

COE Mission
Locally connected and globally relevant, the Mission of the College of Education is to prepare graduates for meaningful careers in diverse settings. Spanning undergraduate through doctoral study, we are committed to depth of knowledge and excellence in teaching, professional practice, and applied research.

Conceptual Framework
The conceptual framework of the College of Education at UWG forms the basis on which programs, courses, experiences, and outcomes are created. With the goal of Preparing Exemplary Practitioners, our programs incorporate ten descriptors (knowledgeable, reflective, inquisitive, decisive, adaptive, proactive, leading, collaborative, culturally sensitive, empathetic), clustered into three interrelated and overlapping themes, that demonstrate our commitment to (a) Professional Excellence; (b) Field-Based Inquiry; and (c) the Betterment of Society. These themes and descriptors are integral components of the conceptual framework and provide the basis for developing exemplary practitioners who are prepared to improve schools and communities.

The vision and mission of the College of Education at UWG forms the basis on which programs, courses, experiences, and outcomes are created. National and state standards [(Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (INTASC), National Council for the Social Studies (NCSS)] also are incorporated as criteria against which candidates are measured. This course’s objectives, activities, and assignments are related directly to the appropriate standards, as identified below.

CLASS, DEPARTMENT, AND UNIVERSITY POLICIES
Please carefully review the information at Common Language for Course Syllabi. It contains important information related to your rights and responsibilities in this class. Because these statements are updated as federal, state, university, and accreditation standards change, you should review the information each semester. In addition to the above information the following policies apply to this course.

Academic Honesty:
All work completed in this course must be original work developed this semester. Students are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic honesty. Plagiarism occurs when a student uses or purchases ghostwritten papers. It also occurs when a student utilizes ideas or information obtained from another person without giving credit to that person. If plagiarism or another act of academic dishonesty occurs, it will be dealt with in accordance with the academic misconduct policy as stated in the latest Student Handbook and the Graduate Catalog.

Attendance:
You are required to attend each of the 6 scheduled Saturday meetings and participate in class each week that we meet online. Absences will not be excused without documentation of an emergency.
Americans with Disabilities Act:
The official UWG policy is contained in the link to the Common Language for Course Syllabi located on the Provost's website. All students are provided with equal access to classes and materials, regardless of special needs, temporary or permanent disability, special needs related to pregnancy, etc. For more information, please contact Disability Services at the University of West Georgia: http://www.westga.edu/studentDev/index_8884.php.

Extra Credit:
Extra credit will not be available in this course. Please do your best work on the assigned activities.

Late Work:
Papers and projects submitted after the due date will have a full letter-grade reduction for each day they are late. The course outline lists all assignments and due dates.

Professional Conduct:
As teachers you have made a commitment to the education profession. As such, you should conduct yourself at all times in a professional manner. Please plan on actively participating in all course activities, reflecting on and discussing your teaching profession, and developing collegial, supportive relationships with your fellow teachers. The use of computers, cell phones, tablets, and other devices for non-course related activities during our face-to-face class meetings is unprofessional. Please step outside the room to take an important call or answer an emergency message.

Student Email Policy:
The official email policy is contained in the link to the Common Language for Course Syllabi located on the Provost’s website. Please do not use the email function in CourseDen to contact your instructor. You will receive a faster response by emailing my jedelman@westga.edu address directly.

UWG Cares:
If you or someone you know is in a distressing situation, support is available at http://www.westga.edu/UWGcares/. The website contains access to helpful resources and phone numbers related to emergency or crisis situations and safety concerns, medical concerns, multicultural, psychological and personal issues and interpersonal conflict.

APPROACHES TO INSTRUCTION
This course will use interactive direct instruction, small group discussion, peer editing and feedback, and writing across the curriculum as strategies. Of special focus will be the strategies of problem-based and discourse instruction.

This course will be delivered partially online. This requires the online equivalent of 790 (minutes of instruction (seat-time) and an additional 1580 minutes of supporting activities.

As such, you will be required to complete the following online activities during this course:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Online assignments &amp; activities</td>
<td>1580 minutes</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Additionally, it is anticipated that students will need to work independently for twice the number minutes listed above to complete the online activities.

The remainder of the class will be delivered face-to-face. During this time (1200 minutes) you will be required to participate in activities such as:

ASSIGNMENTS, EVALUATION PROCEDURES, AND GRADING POLICY

Link to Conceptual Framework: This course provides students an opportunity to gain knowledge about current research and practices in teaching secondary mathematics. Students will also be provided the opportunity to apply this knowledge through designing a unit that employs current best practices in secondary mathematics and enacting two lessons from the unit plan in class. As the students progress through the course, they are expected to demonstrate achievement in several areas related to the College of Education conceptual framework.

First, students must demonstrate that they are knowledgeable in mathematical content knowledge and pedagogical content knowledge: selecting appropriate mathematical content, designing activities that build conceptual and procedural understanding in mathematics, gathering resources for those activities, and enacting the lessons (Assignments 1-5). Second, student must also demonstrate that they are reflective decision makers who can appropriately apply their understanding of mathematics to lesson design and enactment (Assignments 1-5). Third, students are expected to be leaders who are adaptive, collaborative, culturally sensitive, empathetic, proactive, and reflective as they consider the needs of their students and how they apply and gain knowledge in this setting (Assignments 1-5). Lastly, as they gain and apply this knowledge in their experiences and then compare this knowledge to their previous knowledge in mathematics content and pedagogy, students gain an appreciation for appropriate mathematics instruction and consequently commit to lifelong learning (Assignments 1-5).

Assignments and core requirements: Written assignments are final products that will be graded on both what is written (clarity, depth, insight) and how it is written (the form of the written work). Therefore, it is crucial to realize that correct grammar and spelling, proper punctuation, neatness, and adherence to assignment guidelines will affect your grade. As an educator, you will be expected to demonstrate high levels of competence not only in verbal but also in written communication with parents, administrators, and other educators. Evaluation of written assignments will be accomplished through rubrics, which will be distributed as assignments are given. All assignments must be completed in a typed, double space format, with Times/Times New Roman font, size 12 and 1-inch margins on all sides unless otherwise indicated.

Course Assignments are due by 1:00 p.m. on the designated date. Due dates are listed on the course schedule; full instructions for each assignment are posted on CourseDen. Assignments are to be typed and submitted to the appropriate dropbox on CourseDen (except for the Unit Plan which will be turned in on TK20). Late papers and projects will have their grades reduced by 10% for each day they are late. Please do not wait until the last minute to upload your assignments; technical/computer issues will not excuse the lateness of the assignment. Your Learning Segment must be turned in on Tk20 on the due date in order to receive credit.

Assignments: This is a brief overview of how you will demonstrate your learning in this course. Each assignment will have further instructions posted in CourseDen and will be discussed in class.

1. Course Modules: The course is divided into 3 modules: Identity, Practice, and Reflection. Each module is further divided into weekly units. The weekly units contain the assigned readings and activities. All weekly unit activities are due on Saturday by 1:00 pm.

2. Preparation, Participation, and Professionalism: Attendance and punctuality are required, since much of the value of the course will be through the experiences that occur during our class sessions. You must be present to learn, and to contribute to the learning of others. Active participation is expected, a critical assumption for learning anything more deeply. The pedagogy being advocated and modeled through our course is the belief that our students must commit to, and be involved actively in, the problems and situations being posed. Be involved whether we are meeting face to face or completing an online unit.

3. Philosophy of Teaching: You will develop a philosophy of teaching science at the beginning of the course. This philosophy will be revisited at the end of the semester.

4. Targeted Observations: In lieu of a weekly field experience journal, you are asked to complete 5 targeted observations in your field experience classroom. Each observation will have a different focus.

5. Learning Segment: The capstone assignment for this course is the completion of a learning segment consisting of 5 connected lessons. The lessons should focus on a single concept within the discipline and be inquiry-based. You will turn this in on Tk20 not CourseDen.

Grading

Assignments will be graded by the course instructors based on accuracy, completeness, and consistency with deadlines, as well as the guidelines distributed and/or discussed in class. Failure to meet deadlines/guidelines for the assignments will result in a grade reduction.

Grading scale:

A = 1800-2000 points B = 1600-1799 points C = 1400-1599 points and F = 1399 or less

EDLE 8301, 8302, and 8303 (each currently 6 credit hours) are modified to become three credit hour courses.

EDLE 8304, 8305, and 8306 are new Residency courses created from the standards and field experiences that were previously taught in the 6 hour courses (EDLE 8301, 8302, 8303). These new courses are designed for job-embedded learning experiences.

EDLE 8318 is dropped as a required course.

EDLE 8324 is added as a required course. (This course is better aligned to new standards and the state's expectation for new emphasis on ethics).

Rationale

The Educational Leadership faculty members have been submitting several course revisions during the fall 2014 semester. The reasons for the changes are as follows:

1. New educational leadership standards required revision of course learning objectives and titles. The addition of seven new standards calls for more structured definition in the Residency Experiences.

2. To develop more courses that are available to non-leadership majors and to make the program more marketable to leadership students and faculty. This includes returning the program to its original intent and design as a three-semester program.

3. To prepare for Georgia's new leadership certificate. The rule will include a new Tier One certificate (no degree) and a Tier Two certificate (and Ed. S. degree), and results from our curriculum audit indicated a need to revise courses and the program overall.

Attached, please find three program sheets, including a) the original program sheet approval of the LCO leadership program (approved for variable credit between 27-33 credit hours), b) the current program sheet, and c) the proposed program sheet (which will lead into the new Tier One and Tier Two certificates).

We are currently seeking the approval of the program sheet labeled "proposed."

During the fall of 2015, we will be asking for approval of the new Tiered Program with the program beginning in summer of 2016.

Thank you for your consideration.

University of West Georgia
Educational Specialist Program
General Information Sheet

The new specialist program at the University of West Georgia is a performance based program that emphasizes job embedded learning through a coaching model. The program has been approved by both the Georgia Professional Standards Commission and the Georgia Board of Regents. The Educational Specialist Program affords candidates advanced preparation in educational leadership for both school level and system level leadership positions and will result in a Performance Based Leadership Certificate (PL-6) in educational leadership. The main component of the program is a one year field-based residency in which students are provided the opportunity to practice, learn and demonstrate performance while on the job as a school leader. Eighteen semester hours of the program are in the residency and nine hours are in course work for a total of 27 semester hours. The program is designed to be delivered within one year; specifically summer, fall, and spring semesters.

During the residency, students are expected to demonstrate performance within fourteen leadership areas with the support and direction of a Beginning Leader Support Team consisting of a school sponsor, professor, and a coach. In addition, each student is expected to attend four seminars per semester as part of the residence requirements. The culminating requirement of the residency will be the production of a portfolio describing the candidate’s performance-based experiences and evaluations. Student performance will be evaluated by the Beginning Leader Support Team. Grades each semester will be issued by the professor.

Ed.S. cohorts will start only in the summer semester. Students finishing the program will qualify for a Performance Based Leadership Certificate (PL-6) with either a school endorsement or a central office endorsement.

Admission requirements include the following:

- A Masters degree from a nationally or regionally accredited institution
- GRE score of at least 900 (minimum of 450 verbal and 450 quantitative)
- Either a clear and renewable certificate (L-5) or a non-renewable certificate (NL-5 or NPL-5) in Administration and Supervision
- Hold a leadership position in a local education agency (LEA)
- Be recommended by the Superintendent in the LEA

A total of 27-33 semester hours of graduate credit must be completed for this degree program. If after an initial assessment of the candidates past graduate studies it is determined that there is a deficiency, candidates may be required to take up to six (6) additional hours of graduate classes to compensate for this deficiency.

Program Notes

1. All candidates must take and pass a field experience orientation the semester prior to enrolling in a course with a field experience component. The orientation is conducted through the course SEED 6111.
2. Students are required to purchase a TK20 account, where all relevant course and program assessment information will be stored.
3. Upon completion of 15 credit hours in the MAT program (or toward the end of the semester of enrollment in the 15th credit hour), candidates will be required to schedule an on-campus dispositional review conference with the SEED program coordinator, a SEED faculty member, and a representative from the Office of Field-Based Preparation. Available time slots for the SEED MAT Review Conference will be posted in advance and filled on a first-come basis. This benchmark must be successfully cleared prior to enrollment in subsequent semesters; an unsatisfactory review may result in a Professional Growth Plan or termination from the program.
4. With the advisor’s permission, up to nine semester hours of credit may be transferred to UWG from an accredited institution. Transfer credit must carry at least a grade of B. SEED 7291, the strategies/methods course(s), SEED 7288, and SEED 7289 must be done at UWG. Candidates must have a 3.0 to enroll in the Internship.
5. Six hours of content has to match the GACE content area exam.
6. Content courses must be taken in the area of certification. Content courses have Arts and Sciences prefixes unless a substitution is approved by an advisor. Content pedagogy courses with a SEED prefix and a focus in the area of certification may be used to satisfy this requirement.
7. Students must maintain a cumulative 3.0 GPA in graduate coursework.
8. Students must meet all requirements imposed by the Office of Graduate Studies, the College of Education, and the Department of Leadership and Instruction.
9. All candidates must take and pass a comprehensive examination during their last semester of the program. The exam is administered through the course SEED 6200.
10. It is the candidate’s responsibility to apply for graduation in a timely manner.

Program Notes

1. It is the candidate's responsibility to apply for graduation in a timely manner.
2. All candidates must take and pass comprehensive exams during their last semester of the program inside SEED 7289, Seminar.
3. With the advisor's permission, up to 9 semester hours of credit may be transferred to UWG from an accredited institution. Transfer credit must carry at least a grade of B. SEED 7291, the three credit hour strategies course, and SEED 7288 & SEED 7289 must be done at UWG. Candidates must have a 2.7 to enroll in the Internship.
4. Six hours of content has to match the GACE content area exam.
5. Students must maintain a cumulative 3.0 GPA in graduate coursework.
6. For students not seeking P-12 certification and who desire to teach or coach in junior colleges or senior colleges where certification is not required, the admission requirement to take the GACE is waived. For these students, the admission to the MAT program requires candidates to sign a statement indicating that they acknowledge that this degree will not lead to certification. See next page.
7. Students not seeking certification will be allowed to substitute six hours of advisor approved coursework for the Internship requirement.
8. Students with a 2.0-2.49 GPA may be admitted to take graduate coursework under Personal Enrichment status. They must maintain a 3.0 GPA to remain in graduate coursework and to be eligible for admissions to the MAT program.

Advising Notes

History Note: The Georgia Professional Standards Commission requires that candidates in History majors take or have had a Georgia history course.

English Note: The Georgia PSC requires that all English education majors take a course in young adult literature in order to be certified.
Master of Arts in Teaching
Secondary Education
Rationale for Program Revision Spring 2015

Professional Education Foundation
1. This line item (SPED 6706) remains unchanged.
2. This line item (CEPD 6101) remains unchanged.
3. This line item (SEED 6111) is a new 0-cr course as a prerequisite for any course that has a field experience component. Refer to the specific course add request for more details.
4. This line item (SEED 7291) is the same content, split into a 2-cr course and a 1-cr lab; numbers 4 and 5 on the new program sheet correlate to number 3 on the old program sheet.
5. See above.
6. This line item (MEDT 6401) remains unchanged from number 4 on the old program sheet.
7. This line item (EDRS 6342) remains unchanged from number 5 on the old program sheet.

Pedagogical Content Courses
8. These choices remain essentially unchanged from the choices in number 6 on the old program sheet. The SEED Advanced Instructional Strategies courses are being replaced by 2-cr courses with a 1-cr lab corequisite to streamline best-practice approaches to teaching. The 7000-level Advanced Instructional Strategies courses were designed for the MEd program; the 6000-level Instructional Strategies courses reflect a course level and title more appropriate for the MAT initial certification program. Refer to the specific course add requests for more details.
9. These line-item choices have been expanded and updated from the choices in number 7 on the old program sheet.
10. This line item remains unchanged from number 8 on the old program sheet.
11. This line item remains unchanged from number 9 on the old program sheet.

Internship
12. This line item remains unchanged from number 10 on the old program sheet.
13. This line item remains unchanged from number 11 on the old program sheet.

Comprehensive Exam
14. This newly established 0-credit course is being added to the program sheet to ensure that all MAT students are aware of the comprehensive exam component and to formalize this long-standing program requirement.

The advisement page has been updated to reflect current program practices and admissions policies.

For information on the related fields of forensic science and criminal investigations, visit the American Academy of Forensic Science: www.aafs.org, and the American Academy of Forensic Psychology: www.abfp.com.

Course Description

This course provides an overview of the field of criminology including the scope of crime, theories of crime, typologies of crime and how criminologists and the criminal justice system respond to crime. There is a large research component in this course.

Learning Outcomes

1) Critically evaluate the use of criminological theory to explain crime
2) Apply knowledge of research methods to explore an issue in crime or justice
3) Critically evaluate current issues in criminology and criminal justice

Participation

This is a traditional face-to-face course. Class periods will be used to complete or work on assignments. Many tasks can only be performed in class, making attendance mandatory. While points are not given for attendance directly, participation credit is built into the structure of assignments. As a supplement, CourseDen online instruction tools will be used to share information by means stated by the instructor (e.g. discussion boards, online chats, etc.) and to submit assignments, thereby making the course “paperless.”

On the dates identified in the Course Schedule, the class will discuss assigned articles. A list of these articles is attached, and they may be accessed electronically through the UWG Library’s databases. (See the Ingram Library home page for helpful links.) Each article must be read prior to class discussion. A two-part short assignment is associated with each article. First, students must post a thoughtful reaction to each article in CourseDen by the due date—24 hours prior to class discussion of the article. Each reaction must be 200-250 words and is worth 3 points.
See the CourseDen Dropbox Folders for directions. (These may be completed as early as you wish.) Second, each student must thoughtfully comment upon each article during class discussion. This is worth an additional 2 points. If a student misses a discussion day due to an excused absence (see Excused Absence Policy), an alternative assignment will be given. A total of eight articles will be covered.

The Course Schedule also shows that two documentary videos will be presented and discussed in class. A two-part short assignment is also associated with each video. After the video is shown in class, each student must post a 200-250 word reaction to the video (worth 3 points) in CourseDen, due 24 hours after the video is presented, and thoughtfully comment upon the video during the next class period (worth 2 points).

IMPORTANT: Excused Absence Policy

An absence is excused only in cases of proven unavoidable and dire circumstances, such as illness and university sponsored events. Students must provide proof of such circumstances, such as an authentic doctor's note or a notice from a university office asking that one be excused. Events that are scheduled ahead of time require that arrangements for make-up work are made with the professor immediately. If an unforeseen emergency makes one absent, the student must make contact with the professor very soon after the incident. In the case of an excused absence, the student is still responsible for making up any missed assignments or other obligations. It is the student's responsibility to provide documented proof of an excusable absence, which the professor will verify. What constitutes an excusable situation is subject to the professor’s discretion. An absence, in advance or afterward, will not be excused in situations in which it is simply inconvenient for a student to come to class.

University of West Georgia students are expected to give their courses high priority. One is obligated to be present for all classes throughout the entire semester, including finals week and the days prior to and after breaks. In most cases, it is inappropriate to make plans that conflict with course schedules. With few exceptions, if plans that conflict with the course schedule are made prior to the beginning the course, the student must change those plans. It is students’ responsibility, not the professor’s, to resolve their scheduling conflicts. For example, work hours, job interviews, and recreational events must be scheduled around class periods and due dates, and time and/or travel conveniences will not be accepted as reasons to finish the semester early.

[The instructor should include in the syllabus a schedule of any course-related events the students may need to plan around.]

Research Portfolio

Each student will conduct, write up, and present a research study. The professor will provide the class with a data set and help each student choose a topic. The topic must be chosen by the eighth week of class. The project has three main components which are described below: 1) Data Analysis 2) Research Paper 3) Power Point Presentation. All assignments will be submitted in CourseDen. See the Course Schedule for due dates.
1) Data Analysis

With assistance from the professor, each student will develop a set of 3-5 research hypotheses. In class, and with hands-on instruction from the professor, each student will perform a data analysis testing these hypotheses using SPSS software. The outputs containing results will be saved and turned in. The results output is worth 25 points.

2) Research Paper

This will be a paper reporting on the above data analysis and must contain the sections described below. The paper is worth a total of 100 points and each section will be graded according to the attached rubric. A template for writing the paper will be provided in CourseDen.

Introduction. This is a 1-2 page introduction describing the purpose, importance, and general methodology of the study. This section is worth up to 10 points.

Literature Review. This is a 3-5 page review of past studies on the topic explored in the student’s study. Five to seven separate peer-reviewed (scientific) sources must be covered, and they must be approved by the professor. All sources must be cited using American Psychological Association (APA) standards which includes a References section at the end of the paper. This section is worth up to 30 points.

Methods. This is a 2-3 page description of the data analysis and must include 1) Data & Procedures 2) Measures and 3) Analytic Strategy (with hypotheses). This section is worth up to 10 points.

Results. This is a 2-3 page description of the results from analyzing the data and will include at least two Tables. It will be divided into two parts: A description of the variables used in the analysis and the results of testing hypotheses. This section is worth up to 20 points.

Discussion. This is a 2-3 page reflection of the study describing: 1) The results in general 2) How the study compares to the past studies covered in the literature review 3) The implications the study has for theory, future research, and/or social policy/professional practice 4) Limitations of the study and 5) Concluding remarks. This section is worth up to 30 points.

3) Power Point Presentation

Each student will create a 10-slide power point outline of the research paper and present it to the class. Each slide must be sufficiently detailed but succinct, and visually appealing. The presentations will be timed for 10-12 minutes and scheduled using a sign-up sheet. This presentation is worth up to 25 points and will be graded according to the attached rubric. The power point slides must be submitted in CourseDen by the due date.

Turning in Assignments & Academic Integrity
Regardless of the source of any kind of problem, students must find a way to ensure that their completed assignments are uploaded on time. Simply believing that work has been uploaded will not be an excuse for missing assignments, so students must be sure that the CourseDen record shows that assignments are submitted. The professor must be contacted immediately if unavoidable and dire circumstances prevent the submission of an assignment on time. Verifiable proof beyond a verbal explanation that is was impossible, not just inconvenient, to perform one’s duties must be provided. Technological problems, even those associated with CourseDen functioning, will not be accepted as an excuse to fail to turn in work on time. Might include a link to dates when CourseDen is down for maintenance. The instructor should state in the syllabus if an online method such as “TurnItIn” will be used.

Like all courses, this one is covered by UWG’s Academic Honesty Policy. Familiarizing oneself with this policy will help avoid plagiarism and other activities that could create serious problems for students. Violations of this policy will be met with sanctions and ignorance of its provisions is not an acceptable excuse. Please read the university policies regarding plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty in the student handbook.

Basically, plagiarism is the use of others’ words and/or ideas without giving them proper credit, which includes passing another person’s paper off as one’s own and failing to properly cite a source. Students are responsible for knowing how to properly cite sources—being unfamiliar with a system of citing conventions (such as APA) will not be accepted as an excuse for failure to properly cite sources. For a more precise definition of plagiarism, go to the English Department at http://www.westga.edu/~engdept/Plagiarism/pladef.html.

Grading

As an evaluator, I use points and grades to assess only the student’s knowledge of the subject matter delivered in a course. I do not directly evaluate your behavior. Rather, I directly evaluate how you demonstrate your knowledge of the subject of this course. Neither do I directly grade your effort. A great deal of effort on your part is essential in fulfilling the requirements of this course and it increases your chances of getting your desired grade; however it does not guarantee that you get your desired grade. If you are working hard but not receiving the grade(s) you want, you must consider revising your learning strategies for the course and seek assistance from the University’s tutoring and/or writing center services. Also, I do not consider hardships in students’ lives when I grade their work—I will not “give you a break” because you are going through some tough times. I will make reasonable accommodations for students with excusable problems, but I will not lower standards or decrease the amount of work. Simply put, it is not enough that you struggle in the course; you have to create high quality work as “the bottom line” for evaluation. Please realize that I am evaluating your performance on assignments, not you as a person.

The only way to get a good grade in this course is to do well on the assignments and activities described in this syllabus. I do not give extra assignments to boost grades nor do I curve. If you have grade concerns, you must be proactive and contact me early in the semester about developing your learning strategy, and then throughout the semester for help in studying. Your final grade is based on the percentage of your total accumulated points out of 200 possible points using the following scale: 90% + = A; 80-89% = B; 70-79% = C; 60-69% = D; 59% - = F.

Addendum V
At the beginning of the academic year, the Faculty Development Committee received a charge to review the time limits for promotion and tenure and present recommendations to the Provost for consideration. According to Section 103.0301 Time Limits – Promotion of the Faculty Handbook,

“An Assistant Professor shall normally not be considered for promotion to Associate until after his or her fourth year in rank at the University of West Georgia. A faculty member's receipt of tenure in rank shall not preclude his or her future consideration for promotion. An Associate Professor shall normally not be considered for promotion to professor until his or her fifth year in rank.”

Additionally, Section 103.0402 - Time Limitations (for Tenure) states,

“1. Tenure may be awarded upon recommendation by the President and approval by the Board of Regents upon completion of a probationary period of at least five years of full-time service at the rank of Assistant Professor or higher.

2. The maximum time that may be served at the rank of assistant professor or above without the award of tenure shall be seven years…”

In reviewing the time limitations for promotion and tenure, variations among units in the determination as to when a faculty member should “normally” be permitted to submit a dossier became readily apparent. Some units defined “normal” to be at the end of the fourth year, and submission of the dossier would occur at the beginning of the fifth year in rank, with promotion and tenure possibly to be awarded at the beginning of the sixth year. This was found to be the case for the College of Social Sciences and Richards College of Business.

Other units allowed faculty members to submit dossiers “early” (at the beginning of the fifth year) with the demonstration of an “extraordinary record” of teaching, service, and/or scholarship, but defined “normal” to be at the end of the fifth year in rank, and submission would occur at the beginning of the sixth year, with promotion and tenure possibly to occur at the beginning of the seventh year. The colleges/units that followed this pattern included the College of Arts and Humanities, the College of Education, the College of Science and Math, and the School of Nursing. Unfortunately, this places some faculty in an “all-or-none” situation in which they must prove their contributions worthy of the award of promotion and tenure in their final year of eligibility or seek other employment.
In order to make the promotion and tenure process more equitable to faculty members, regardless of the college or unit in which they are employed, it is our recommendation that the university support all eligible faculty members to seek promotion and tenure by submitting a dossier at the beginning of the fifth year in rank. If, after consultation with the appropriate chair or supervisor, the individual faculty member decides that it is in his or her own best interest to forgo submission for an additional year, this would remain the prerogative of the faculty member. The intention of the university should be to retain and promote qualified faculty and provide a more equitable evaluation process across the university community that would support that initiative.

Thank you for your time and consideration of these recommendations.

Addendum VI
107 Dispute Resolution and Grievance Procedures

The University of West Georgia recognizes the value of constructive dispute resolution. Faculty, staff, and students at the University of West Georgia are encouraged to seek resolution of any conflict through informal discussion with those persons involved. If such informal efforts do not resolve the dispute, the parties may choose to utilize the Office of the University of West Georgia Ombuds (see section 107.03), the services of the Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Program at the University of West Georgia (see section 107.01) and/or may pursue resolution of disputes through established Grievance Procedures (see section 107.02).

107.01 Oversight and Administration of Alternative Dispute Resolution program.

The University of West Georgia ADR program is administered by the University Co-Liaisons for Alternative Dispute Resolution in cooperation and consultation with the Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution.

107.0101 The university co-liaisons for ADR will be appointed by the President. One co-liaison will be a member of the staff; the second co-liaison will be a member of the faculty.

The co-liaisons will serve as the first point of contact for any member of the university community who wishes to utilize mediation to pursue resolution of a conflict; screen requests for mediation to determine the appropriateness of mediation (including the willingness of parties to participate in mediation); secure the consent of all parties involved and arrange for an approved neutral or neutrals to mediate the dispute; and maintain all necessary records, forms of consent, and evaluations required during the mediation process.

107.0102 The Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution will consist of persons recommended by the co-liaisons and appointed by the President. Every major constituency in the university will be represented on the committee. The committee will meet at least once a semester and participate in a variety of tasks associated with mediation, including but not limited to: overseeing the general operations of the ADR program; distributing and updating information about the program’s policies and procedures; coordinating mediation training for faculty, staff, and students; and overseeing all ADR-related tasks requested by the Board of Regents.

107.0102.1 At its first meeting of the year, the committee will elect a chair from its membership to serve for a two year term. The chair may be re-elected for one subsequent term.

107.0103 The Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution will recruit mediators from the faculty, staff and students at the university. Persons wishing to mediate within the institution should submit a written request to the committee. Each person wishing to mediate must have successfully completed an appropriate course designed to train mediators. In those cases where it may be deemed appropriate to obtain the services of a mediator from off-campus, the co-liaisons will contact the office of the Consortium on Negotiation and Conflict Resolution (CNCR).

Every effort will be made to provide appropriate training to faculty who are interested in becoming mediators within the University System of Georgia. 53
107.0104 Requests for Mediation

Any member of the University Community may request a mediation to resolve disputes with any other member.

Seeking a solution through mediation does not take away an individual’s rights to pursue claims through the grievance process or litigation.

Under ordinary circumstances, parties involved in a dispute would ideally attempt mediation before pursuing claims through the grievance process or litigation. There may be cases, however, in which parties involved in a dispute may wish to request suspension or delay of a grievance process in order to pursue possibilities for a mediated resolution of their dispute. If a grievance process is interrupted in this way and a solution is not reached in mediation within ten (10) working days from the initial request for mediation, aggrieved parties may return to the grievance process.

107. 0105 The Mediation Process

If the co-liaisons have determined that mediation is appropriate, they will appoint a mediator or co-mediators to assist parties in resolution of their dispute(s). It will be the responsibility of the mediator(s) to arrange for an appropriate time and place to conduct the mediation, and to conduct the mediation according to all applicable policies and procedures.

Procedures that govern the mediation process include the following:

A. Mediation is a form of dispute resolution in which a neutral party, a trained mediator, attempts to assist parties in conflict to negotiate a mutually satisfactory resolution to their dispute. A mediator does not decide who wins or loses the dispute. A mediator does not act as judge or jury, does not take sides in disputes, and does not guarantee the results of mediation. Instead, a mediator is in the role of a neutral third-party who establishes a fair and structured process which facilitates communication and mutual decision-making between and among parties to a dispute.

B. At the beginning of the mediation session, the mediator(s) will inform the parties involved of the policies and procedures that will be followed and will ensure that participation in mediation is purely voluntary. No mediation will occur without the consent of all parties involved.

C. If the mediator(s) allow the parties to have an advisor present, the mediator(s) will decide to what degree the advisor may participate in the process.

D. All parties will be given the opportunity to present their side of the matters at issue in their own words. Because mediation is essentially a communication process and not a legal proceeding, the customary rules of evidence do not apply. Parties are free to discuss any matters related to the issue(s) they believe will support resolution of their dispute(s).

E. Confidentiality. The discussions held during mediation are strictly confidential with the following exceptions:
F. A successful mediation is one in which the parties involved in the dispute reach an agreement described as “win/win.” In mediation, parties agree only to things that are acceptable to them, to resolutions which each believes will actually resolve the dispute(s) between/among them. Because parties jointly work to resolve the dispute, the resolutions are frequently more creative and have the potential to enhance, or at least preserve, relationships better than other forms of dispute resolution.

G. If an agreement is reached, the agreement will be written by the mediator(s), and signed by all parties. A copy of the agreement will be given to the parties but not retained by the mediator(s).

H. The mediator(s) will inform the co-liaisons only that an agreement was or was not reached.

I. Each participant in mediation will be given the opportunity to evaluate the mediation process at the conclusion of the mediation.

J. It is important to understand that: time spent in mediation will be considered part of the working day and will not require any person to take leave to participate. All supervisors will make reasonable efforts to enable employees to be available for participation in mediation.

K. The acceptance or refusal of either party to submit a dispute to a mediator will not influence the outcome of any subsequent grievance proceeding.

107.0106 Limitations to Mediation

It is important to understand that not all disputes are appropriate for mediation. Some examples of disputes that are not appropriate for mediation include those that have been the subject of a final ruling or decision in accordance with University policies and procedures; disputes involving purely academic decisions (i.e., faculty assessment of students’ work); disputes involving trivial matters; allegations of sexual harassment; complaints of discrimination based on protected class; and disputes that have no relation to the University. It is also important to understand that mediation will not result in resolution for every dispute.

107.02 Grievance Procedures

Within ninety days after becoming aware of the grievance, a person having a grievance shall attempt to resolve it at all levels through that of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs before submitting it to the chair on the Subcommittee on Faculty and Staff Grievances.

The initialization of a grievance shall not preclude attempts to resolve a dispute by means of Alternative Dispute Resolution (see Section 107). The person should understand that a committee appointed to hear the grievance functions to study the case and to make recommendations; it is not empowered to reverse decisions.

107.0201 A person submitting grievance shall follow the stated procedures at each level.

107.0202 Department Chair (or Supervisor)

A. The aggrieved person shall first discuss the grievance with the appropriate department chair.

B. If the matter is not resolved at this level, the person should prepare a written statement clearly delineating the grievance, supplying appropriate documentation.
C. Simultaneously, the department chair shall prepare a written statement to justify his or her action.

D. These documents shall be forwarded to the next highest administrative level.

107.0203 Dean of College (or comparable Administrator)

A. Upon receipt of the documents, the dean of the college shall review the grievance in consultation, if necessary, with the person involved, the department chair, and/or any other persons who might provide useful information.

B. If the grievance is not resolved at this level, the dean shall prepare a written statement describing his or her actions and justifying his or her decision.

C. The folder of documents including the dean's statement shall be forwarded to the next highest administrative level.

107.0204 Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs

A. The Provost and Vice President shall review all statements concerning the case. He or she may consult with the involved dean, department chair, and faculty or staff member before rendering a decision on the grievance.

B. If the person filing the grievance is not satisfied with the decision, the Vice President shall forward the folder including a written statement of the decision and justification to the chair of the Subcommittee on Faculty and Staff Grievances.

107.0205 Chair of the Subcommittee on Faculty and Staff Grievances

A. Any petition or material which has not gone through the stated procedures described above (from the level of the department chair or supervisor up through the level of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs) will be returned to the petitioner with a copy of the pages of the Faculty Handbook describing the grievance procedures on campus. The petitioner will be informed that the Faculty and Administrative Staff Personnel Committee of the Faculty Senate has no authority to act on grievances which have not properly gone through channels.

B. Upon receipt of the folio concerning the grievance, the chair of this subcommittee shall consult with the chair of the Faculty and Administrative Staff Personnel Committee. They shall discuss the grievance petition and identify persons who might be best suited to constitute a committee to hear this grievance. The appointed committee shall be constituted in an effort to ensure that the aggrieved person receives a fair and impartial hearing.

1. In most cases, a four-member committee of faculty members will be selected to hear a given grievance: one from the College of Arts & Sciences, one from the College of Business, one from the College of Education, and one from the Library or some other segment of the campus.

2. The chair of the Subcommittee on Faculty and Staff Grievances will contact on an individual basis the persons identified as prospective committee members to determine their willingness to serve and their acceptability (re: impartiality, fairness, absence of conflict of interest). Their service as committee members will also be agreed to by any involved administrators and by the faculty member submitting the grievance.
3. Under normal circumstances, the chair of the Subcommittee on Faculty and Staff Grievances will serve as the chair of each of the grievance hearing committees established.

4. The chair of the Subcommittee on Faculty and Staff Grievances is required to convene meetings to hear given grievance petitions and is responsible for writing the final draft of each committee’s report with regard to a given grievance.

C. The Hearing Committee has the authority to conduct inquiries into faculty grievances, to attempt the resolution of these grievances by mediation, and to present to the President (via the appropriate channels) its recommendations for appropriate responses to the grievances it has considered. It is the responsibility of the Hearing Committee to seek to determine whether there is substance to the grievances brought before it and, if so, to attempt to resolve these grievances. In carrying out this responsibility, the Hearing Committee reviewing a given grievance may examine decision-making processes related to that grievance to determine whether or not such processes were handled fairly, professionally, and in accordance with university policy. To this end, faculty members, administrators, and designated committee members involved in or knowledgeable about particular issues pertaining to the grievance may be asked by the committee hearing the grievance to provide clarifying information and/or to discuss and defend their actions related to grievance charges. Hearing committee members may interview persons that the aggrieved faculty member and/or the administration feels would be helpful in getting the clearest picture of what has occurred.

The aggrieved individual should be provided every opportunity to fully state his or her contentions to the Hearing Committee, and the Hearing Committee should make every reasonable effort to understand the facts and the substance of an aggrieved person's allegations before rendering its report and recommendation(s).

Respecting due process and confidentiality, faculty members serving on a Hearing Committee will not discuss a given grievance or set of grievances with the aggrieved individual, other administrative or non-administrative colleagues, or with students, except when as such contacts are agreed to by the Hearing Committee as an authorized part of their role in reviewing said grievance(s).

D. Should the Hearing Committee determine that a formal hearing is appropriate, the following guidelines for conducting such a hearing shall be adhered to:

1. An oath or affirmation shall be administered to all persons expected to testify in the hearing by any person authorized by law to administer oaths in the State of Georgia.

2. All witnesses (except the principal parties), if they expect to testify, shall leave the room following the administration of the oath until called upon to testify.

3. The burden of proof is on the aggrieved party to sustain his or her allegations by appropriate evidence, and the administrative spokesperson or other appropriate party shall have the opportunity to respond.

4. The Hearing Committee shall allocate an amount of time to each side. Time shall be charged only against the party asking the questions. Time used by the Hearing Committee members in questioning witnesses shall not be charged against either party.

5. The Subcommittee on Faculty and Staff Grievances has no subpoena powers, so the parties involved in a formal grievance hearing are responsible for producing witnesses, advisors and evidence. The Hearing Committee, however, may request the appearance of witnesses whose testimony it believes would be helpful to its purposes.

6. Each party may present an opening statement of not more than 10-15 minutes. The aggrieved person makes his or her presentation first, and then the opposing party shall have an opportunity to make its presentation.

7. Following the opening statements, the aggrieved party may then call witnesses to present evidence in support of his or her side of the case. He or she may question these witnesses or ask that the witnesses be permitted to make a narrative statement. When the aggrieved person has concluded his or her questioning of a given witness, the administrative spokesperson or other appropriate party shall be provided an opportunity to question (cross-examine) this witness.

8. When the aggrieved person has concluded with his or her witnesses, the administration or other appropriate party may proceed with its witnesses, if it chooses to call any. The administration or other appropriate party may question its witnesses, or ask that the witnesses be permitted to make a narrative statement. When the administrative spokesperson or other appropriate party has concluded his or her questioning of a given witness, the aggrieved party shall be provided an opportunity to question (cross-examine) this witness.

9. The Hearing Committee may question each witness after both parties have concluded their questions. During the hearing, once each party's witnesses have testified, the Hearing Committee may question both parties in an effort to clarify various aspects of the grievance petition.

10. The aggrieved person and the administration's spokesperson (or other appropriate party) shall be present during the entire proceeding, including the examination of all witnesses.

11. Witnesses and any other evidence must be addressed to issues discussed in the grievance petition, not to inconsequential matters. Any evidence which may assist the Hearing Committee in reaching a decision should be admitted into the record. However, the Chair may exercise discretion and exclude any evidence which is not pertinent to the case. The scope of questions asked by appropriate persons shall not be limited by the Chair unless it appears that the questions are wholly irrelevant to the purpose of the hearing or the questions are asked solely to embarrass, harass, or intimidate the witness.

12. The chair may allow informal exchanges and comments between parties or among Hearing Committee members and participants. The chair may require that the hearing be conducted on a more formal basis when he or she believes this approach will be more conducive to an orderly hearing. Neither party shall be allowed to interfere with the orderly presentation of the other's case. Personal abuse, harassment or obscene language is to be considered out-of-order.

13. Each party may bring to the hearing an advisor who may be present during the entire proceeding, but shall not be called as a witness or speak for the parties. In addition, each party may bring up to three other persons (not witnesses) to act as observers, if desired.

14. The hearing shall be tape-recorded.

15. All witnesses and parties to this matter must be present at the time designated for the swearing in, regardless of their time of appearance. When a witness can not appear because of illness or other cause acceptable to the Hearing Committee, the sworn statement (affidavit) of the witness may be introduced into the record and served on the opposing party, who should be allowed additional time, not to exceed three (3) working days following the completion of the hearing, to file counter-affidavits.

16. The party introducing written evidence should identify the evidence for the record (unless the opposite party agrees to its authenticity), preferably by calling a witness with firsthand knowledge of the document. Since the legal rules of evidence do not apply, however, it shall be sufficient if the party simply describes the documents, their source, and what the introduction of such documents is intended to prove. The chair should announce that the document is admitted into the record if that is his or her decision. Documentary (written) evidence introduced by the Hearing Committee or by either party should be marked for identification by the person making a record of the hearing. Generally, Hearing Committee evidence should be marked C-1, C-2, C-3, etc.

17. Evidence presented by the person bringing the grievance should be marked G-1, G-2, G-3, etc. Evidence presented by the administration or other appropriate party in response to the grievance will be marked A-1, A-2, A-3, or R-1, R-2, R-3, respectively.

18. If the hearing cannot be concluded in the time established by the Hearing Committee, the chair of the Hearing Committee shall adjourn the hearing for the day and reconvene at the earliest possible time convenient to all parties involved.

19. At the conclusion of the hearing, the administration (or other appropriate party) may make a closing statement (not more than 15 minutes in length). Then the aggrieved person may make a closing statement (not more than 15 minutes in length). As the aggrieved person bears the burden of proof in this hearing, he or she may wish to reserve part of his or her closing statement for rebutting the closing argument of the administrative spokesperson or other appropriate party.

20. Each party shall have three (3) working days following the hearing to file any counter-affidavits or responses with the Hearing Committee. If neither party wishes to submit additional documentary evidence after the hearing is concluded, the Chair shall announce that the record is closed. If either party asks to present additional evidence, additional time not to exceed three (3) working days may be granted, with the other party granted an additional three (3) working days to rebut the evidence. The Chair shall announce the record then be closed, and thereafter no further evidence shall be received. Copies of evidence presented shall be sent by the party presenting it to the opposite party.

21. The Hearing Committee shall develop its findings and formulate its recommendations based on the evidence submitted to it by the parties involved. This evidence includes all written material submitted to it prior to the hearing and attested to at the hearing, all evidence produced at the hearing itself, and any counter-affidavits or responses filed with the Hearing Committee before the record is closed.

22. Immediately after the conclusion of the hearing, the Hearing Committee shall meet privately to discuss their initial reaction to the case and the evidence. As soon as the record (transcript, tape, etc.) of the hearing is available, each Hearing Committee member shall carefully review it before reaching a decision. The Hearing Committee shall then meet again, discuss the case and reach its decision, which is then written and signed. The decision does not have to be unanimous and a minority report may be filed.
E. This committee shall forward its decision with justifications to the chair of the Faculty and Administrative Staff Personnel Committee who shall present it to the full committee for consideration.

F. The report of the Hearing Committee will follow the guidelines stated below:

1. Findings of Fact: A brief summary of the facts as determined by the Committee hearing the grievance from the evidence presented at the hearing, including a statement as to the nature of the case. This summary will state findings of fact on each major issue raised by the parties.

2. Violations: A general statement of Regents' Policies or institution rules and regulations violated, if any, and/or the stated reasons for the action.

3. Recommendation: A statement specifying the action the Hearing Committee recommends. The Hearing Committee will keep its purpose in mind and limit the scope of its recommendations to the case before it. To reduce the length of the decision without sacrificing clarity, the Hearing Committee report should include only such factual recitals as necessary to present and decide the issues.

G. This committee shall forward its report to the chair of the Faculty and Administrative Staff Personnel Committee who shall present it to the Faculty and Administrative Staff Personnel Committee for its consideration. The chair of the Faculty and Administrative Staff Personnel Committee may request that one or more members of the Hearing Committee be present when the report is presented to the Faculty and Administrative Staff Personnel Committee.

1. The chair of the Faculty and Administrative Staff Personnel Committee shall submit the evidence and the report accepted by the full committee to the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs.

2. Simultaneously, a letter stating that action has been taken concerning the grievance and a copy of the report approved by the Faculty and Administrative Staff Personnel Committee shall be transmitted to the aggrieved person.

3. The Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs shall assume responsibility for transmitting all information back down through the appeal chain.

107.0206 President of the University

If the grievance is not resolved at this point, the aggrieved person may appeal to the next highest level -- the President of the University.

107.03 Office of the University Ombuds

The Office of the University Ombuds has been established to provide an accessible, informal channel of communication to facilitate non-adversarial means of dispute resolution and to promote conflict management and cooperation throughout the University community. The office will work to resolve concerns, complaints and questions about University policies, procedures and practices in a neutral, impartial and confidential manner.

In their dealings with visitors (i.e.: faculty, staff and students), Ombuds staff will act with integrity.
and will advocate, not for any individual, but for fairness, equitable treatment, and respect throughout the University community. Ombuds staff shall be properly trained and will adhere to the Code of Ethics and Standard Operating Practices of the International Ombudsman Association. They shall also serve as sensors and resource persons in identifying systemic institutional problems.

107.0301 Purpose and Scope

The University Ombuds Office is an independent source of assistance to faculty, staff and students who seek guidance in dealing with problems, issues and conflicts. The office works outside the formal organizational structure of the University to resolve concerns and complaints. Ombuds personnel promote communication, fairness and civility in work relationships and in the resolution of conflicts. The office supplements, rather than replaces, other alternative dispute resolution (ADR) processes at the University. It strives to help parties reach mutually acceptable resolutions of disputes in non-adversarial fashion. Ombuds staff also design and conduct training programs in conflict resolution and related areas for the University community.

Without violating the confidential nature of the information, Ombuds staff may make recommendations for institutional change to the President when appropriate (e.g.: policy change, needed training, or other procedures that may enhance the campus climate). They also may provide feedback with regard to trends or issues.

107.0302 Organization and Procedures

Professional staff in the University Ombuds office are appointed by, and report to, the President of the University. The office shall operate independent of the ordinary line and staff structure of the University. All staff with the title of Ombuds shall be appropriately trained and affiliated with the University Ombuds office.

The office shall have access to any University office and will be provided information in an expeditious manner. It shall safeguard the confidentiality of that information. Ombuds serve neither as advocates nor as adjudicators and do not exercise decision-making authority. The office acts in an informal manner outside usual administrative procedures, but does not subvert those procedures. It shall not be involved in any compliance function of the institution. Contact with the Ombuds office is voluntary and shall not be required.

Ombuds provide informal, confidential guidance to visitors and assist the University community in the development of policies and procedures. They listen, offer information on University policies and procedures, discuss options, make inquiries and referrals and facilitate communication. Ombuds will explain the limits of services to visitors and the policy of confidentiality. No member of the University community shall experience reprisal in seeking the services of the office.

Ombuds do not take sides in a conflict and strive to ensure fair and equitable treatment for all concerned. Ombuds must consider the interests of all individuals affected.

With the permission of the visitor, the Ombuds will meet with all parties involved in a conflict. If the Ombuds determines that formal mediation may be appropriate, the parties involved in the conflict will be referred to the ADR liaisons who will arrange the mediation. Ombuds will advise visitors of proper procedures to follow, including the lodging of a formal grievance if necessary. At that point, the Ombuds will withdraw from the process. The Ombuds office shall not conduct formal investigations nor will it provide testimony in formal or legal proceedings unless required by subpoena or court order.

The Ombuds office may initiate review without a specific complaint in the determination of procedural or systemic problems. An Ombuds may decline or withdraw from involvement in any matter which is inappropriate for the engagement of the office. An Ombuds shall avoid situations in which there is appearance of conflict of interest.

Contact with the Ombuds office is not regarded as official notice to the University on any matter nor is an Ombuds required to report any such communication to the University. If a visitor wishes to put the University on notice, the Ombuds will make a referral to the appropriate official.

Communication with the Ombuds office is confidential. Statistical data maintained by the office will not reveal confidential information. Records of communications will not be kept and informal notes will be destroyed promptly. Oral communication is preferred and use of e-mail in communicating confidential matters with the office is not encouraged.

107.0303 Code of Ethics and Standard Operating Procedures

The Ombuds office at the University of West Georgia will adhere to the Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice of the International Ombudsman Association (see appendices). In the exercise of duties, Ombuds shall be “truthful and act with integrity, shall foster respect for all members of the organization he or she serves, and shall promote procedural fairness in the content and administration of those organizations’ practices, processes, and policies.”

A. Independence

The Ombuds office reports to the President of the University. It shall function free from interference and will not be constrained by the organizational structure of the institution. Ombuds staff will have no other affiliation or function at the University which might compromise their independence. To fulfill Ombuds functions, the Ombuds office shall have a specific, allocated budget, adequate space, and sufficient resources to meet operating needs and pursue continuing professional development. The Ombuds shall have the authority to manage the budget and operations of the Ombuds office. The Ombuds shall report to the office of the University President for administrative and budget matters.

B. Neutrality and Impartiality

An Ombuds shall not advocate for any individual but shall strive for fair and equitable treatment for all members of the University community. Ombuds must avoid participation in matters which would create a conflict of interest or otherwise compromise neutrality, including involvement in a compliance function.

C. Confidentiality

The Ombuds office shall not reveal the name of any party with whom it has communicated and shall maintain confidentiality in communications, disclosing confidential information, at the discretion of the Ombuds, only when given permission, when compelled by law, judicial subpoena or court order or when there is an imminent risk of possible violence or physical harm to self or others as determined by the Ombuds. Ombuds staff do not keep notes or records on individual cases. 62

D. Informality

Ombuds will not participate in any internal formal grievance process or external formal process or action, even if given permission to do so. Use of the office is voluntary and shall not be required.

The Ombuds office does not keep records for the University and in carrying out its mission is not authorized to:

- Make, change, or set aside a law, policy, or administrative decision;
- Make binding decisions or determine rights;
- Compel anyone to implement recommendations;
- Conduct investigations that substitute for administrative or judicial proceedings;
- Give legal advice;
- Determine “guilt” or “innocence” of anyone accused of wrong-doing;
- Provide testimony in formal grievance or disciplinary procedures or litigation except to explain the role of the office and provide publicly available information (unless ordered to do so by a judge);
- Maintain formal written case records identifying users of the office;
- Assist individuals with an issue that is currently pending in a formal forum (e.g.: a grievance) unless all parties and the presiding officer in that action explicitly consent to suspend the formal process;
- Assist individuals with no affiliation with the campus community;

107.0304 Evaluation

Evaluation of the Ombuds office and staff will be conducted periodically by the University President through external review and shall include an assessment of visitor satisfaction.

107.0305 Reporting

The Ombuds office shall at least annually make reports to the University President, the Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution and the campus community on conflict trends and areas of general concern regarding policies and procedures.

107.0306 Adoption

These Terms of Reference and any subsequent amendments shall be approved by the Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution, the Faculty Senate and the President of the University. They shall be effective on the date approved by the President and shall be incorporated into the dispute resolution and grievance procedures in the faculty, employee and student handbooks.
Addendum VII
107 Dispute Resolution and Grievance Procedures
The University of West Georgia recognizes the value of constructive dispute resolution. Faculty, staff, and students at the University of West Georgia are encouraged to seek resolution of any conflict through informal discussion with those persons involved. If such informal efforts do not resolve the dispute, the parties may choose to utilize the Office of the University of West Georgia Ombuds (see section 107.013), the services of the Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Program at the University of West Georgia (see section 107.024) and/or may pursue resolution of disputes through established Grievance Procedures (see section 107.032).

107.01 Office of the University Ombuds
The Office of the University Ombuds has been established to provide an accessible, informal channel of communication to facilitate non-adversarial means of dispute resolution and to promote conflict management and cooperation throughout the University community. The office will work to resolve concerns, complaints and questions about University policies, procedures and practices in a neutral, impartial and confidential manner.

In their dealings with visitors (i.e.: faculty, staff and students), Ombuds staff will act with integrity and will advocate, not for any individual, but for fairness, equitable treatment, and respect throughout the University community. Ombuds staff shall be properly trained and will adhere to the Code of Ethics and Standard Operating Practices of the International Ombudsman Association. They shall also serve as sensors and resource persons in identifying systemic institutional problems.

107.0101 Purpose and Scope
The University Ombuds Office is an independent source of assistance to faculty, staff and students who seek guidance in dealing with problems, issues and conflicts. The office works outside the formal organizational structure of the University to resolve concerns and complaints. Ombuds personnel promote communication, fairness and civility in work relationships and in the resolution of conflicts. The office supplements, rather than replaces, other alternative dispute resolution (ADR) processes at the University. It strives to help parties reach mutually acceptable resolutions of disputes in non-adversarial fashion. Ombuds staff also design and conduct training programs in conflict resolution and related areas for the University community.

Without violating the confidential nature of the information, Ombuds staff may make recommendations for institutional change to the President when appropriate (e.g.: policy change, needed training, or other procedures that may enhance the campus climate). They also may provide feedback with regard to trends or issues.

107.0102 Organization and Procedures
Professional staff in the University Ombuds office are appointed by, and report to, the President of the University. The office shall operate independent of the ordinary line and staff structure of the University. All staff with the title of Ombuds shall be appropriately trained and affiliated with the University Ombuds office.

The office shall have access to any University office and will be provided information in an expeditious manner. It shall safeguard the confidentiality of that information. Ombuds serve neither as advocates nor as adjudicators and do not exercise decision-making authority. The office acts in an informal manner outside usual administrative procedures, but does not subvert those procedures. It shall not be involved in any compliance function of the institution. Contact with the Ombuds office is voluntary and shall not be required.

Ombuds provide informal, confidential guidance to visitors and assist the University community in the development of policies and procedures. They listen, offer information on University policies and procedures, discuss options, make inquiries and referrals and facilitate communication. Ombuds will explain the limits of services to visitors and the policy of confidentiality. No member of the University community shall experience reprisal in seeking the services of the office.

Ombuds do not take sides in a conflict and strive to ensure fair and equitable treatment for all concerned. Ombuds must consider the interests of all individuals affected.

With the permission of the visitor, the Ombuds will meet with all parties involved in a conflict. If the Ombuds determines that formal mediation may be appropriate, the parties involved in the conflict will be referred to the ADR liaisons who will arrange the mediation. Ombuds will advise visitors of proper procedures to follow, including the lodging of a formal grievance if necessary. At that point, the Ombuds will withdraw from the process. The Ombuds office shall not conduct formal investigations nor will it provide testimony in formal or legal proceedings unless required by subpoena or court order.

The Ombuds office may initiate review without a specific complaint in the determination of procedural or systemic problems. An Ombuds may decline or withdraw from involvement in any matter which is inappropriate for the engagement of the office. An Ombuds shall avoid situations in which there is appearance of conflict of interest.

Contact with the Ombuds office is not regarded as official notice to the University on any matter nor is an Ombuds required to report any such communication to the University. If a visitor wishes to put the University on notice, the Ombuds will make a referral to the appropriate official.

Communication with the Ombuds office is confidential. Statistical data maintained by the office will not reveal confidential information. Records of communications will not be kept and informal notes will be destroyed promptly. Oral communication is preferred and use of e-mail in communicating confidential matters with the office is not encouraged.

107.0303 Code of Ethics and Standard Operating Procedures
The Ombuds office at the University of West Georgia will adhere to the Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice of the International Ombudsman Association (see appendices). An Ombuds shall not advocate for any individual but shall strive for fair and equitable treatment for all members of the University community. Ombuds must avoid participation in matters which would create a conflict of interest or otherwise compromise neutrality, including involvement in a compliance function.

C. Confidentiality
The Ombuds office shall not reveal the name of any party with whom it has communicated and shall maintain confidentiality in communications, disclosing confidential information, at the discretion of the Ombuds, only when given permission, when compelled by law, judicial subpoena or court order or when there is an imminent risk of possible violence or physical harm to self or others as determined by the Ombuds. Ombuds staff do not keep notes or records on individual cases.

D. Informality
Ombuds will not participate in any internal formal grievance process or external formal process or action, even if given permission to do so. Use of the office is voluntary and shall not be required.

The Ombuds office does not keep records for the University and in carrying out its mission is not authorized to:

- Assist individuals with no affiliation with the campus community;

107.0104 Evaluation
Evaluation of the Ombuds office and staff will be conducted periodically by the University President through external review and shall include an assessment of visitor satisfaction.

107.0105 Reporting
The Ombuds office shall at least annually make reports to the University President, the Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution and the campus community on conflict trends and areas of general concern regarding policies and procedures.

107.0106 Adoption

These Terms of Reference and any subsequent amendments shall be approved by the Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution, the Faculty Senate and the President of the University. They shall be effective on the date approved by the President and shall be incorporated into the dispute resolution and grievance procedures in the faculty, employee and student handbooks.

107.021 Oversight and Administration of Alternative Dispute Resolution program.

The University of West Georgia ADR program is administered by the University Co-Liaisons for Alternative Dispute Resolution in cooperation and consultation with the Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution.

107.02101 The university co-liaisons for ADR will be appointed by the President. One co-liaison will be a member of the staff; the second co-liaison will be a member of the faculty.

The co-liaisons will serve as the first point of contact for any member of the university community who wishes to utilize mediation to pursue resolution of a conflict; screen requests for mediation to determine the appropriateness of mediation (including the willingness of parties to participate in mediation); secure the consent of all parties involved and arrange for an approved neutral or neutrals to mediate the dispute; and maintain all necessary records, forms of consent, and evaluations required during the mediation process.

107.02102 The Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution will consist of persons recommended by the co-liaisons and appointed by the President. Every major constituency in the university will be represented on the committee. The committee will meet at least once a semester and participate in a variety of tasks associated with mediation, including but not limited to: overseeing the general operations of the ADR program; distributing and updating information about the program’s policies and procedures; coordinating mediation training for faculty, staff, and students; and overseeing all ADR-related tasks requested by the Board of Regents.

107.02102.1 At its first meeting of the year, the committee will elect a chair from its membership to serve for a two year term. The chair may be re-elected for one subsequent term.

107.02103 The Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution will recruit mediators from the faculty, staff, and students at the university. Persons wishing to mediate within the institution should submit a written request to the committee. Each person wishing to mediate must have successfully completed an appropriate course designed to train mediators. In those cases where it may be deemed appropriate to obtain the services of a mediator from off-campus, the co-liaisons will contact the office of the Consortium on Negotiation and Conflict Resolution (CNCR).
Every effort will be made to provide appropriate training to faculty who are interested in becoming mediators within the University System of Georgia.

107.02104 Requests for Mediation
Any member of the University Community may request a mediation to resolve disputes with any other member.

Seeking a solution through mediation does not take away an individual’s rights to pursue claims through the grievance process or litigation.

Under ordinary circumstances, parties involved in a dispute would ideally attempt mediation before pursuing claims through the grievance process or litigation. There may be cases, however, in which parties involved in a dispute may wish to request suspension or delay of a grievance process in order to pursue possibilities for a mediated resolution of their dispute. If a grievance process is interrupted in this way and a solution is not reached in mediation within ten (10) working days from the initial request for mediation, aggrieved parties may return to the grievance process.

107.02105 The Mediation Process
If the co-liaisons have determined that mediation is appropriate, they will appoint a mediator or co-mediators to assist parties in resolution of their dispute(s). It will be the responsibility of the mediator(s) to arrange for an appropriate time and place to conduct the mediation, and to conduct the mediation according to all applicable policies and procedures.

Procedures that govern the mediation process include the following:

A. Mediation is a form of dispute resolution in which a neutral party, a trained mediator, attempts to assist parties in conflict to negotiate a mutually satisfactory resolution to their dispute. A mediator does not decide who wins or loses the dispute. A mediator does not act as judge or jury, does not take sides in disputes, and does not guarantee the results of mediation. Instead, a mediator is in the role of a neutral third-party who establishes a fair and structured process which facilitates communication and mutual decision-making between and among parties to a dispute.

B. At the beginning of the mediation session, the mediator(s) will inform the parties involved of the policies and procedures that will be followed and will ensure that participation in mediation is purely voluntary. No mediation will occur without the consent of all parties involved.

C. If the mediator(s) allow the parties to have an advisor present, the mediator(s) will decide to what degree the advisor may participate in the process.

D. All parties will be given the opportunity to present their side of the matters at issue in their own words. Because mediation is essentially a communication process and not a legal proceeding, the customary rules of evidence do not apply. Parties are free to discuss any matters related to the issue(s) they believe will support resolution of their dispute(s).

E. Confidentiality. The discussions held during mediation are strictly confidential with the following exceptions: confidentiality does not extend to a situation in which conduct by either party is criminal in nature or statements are made during the process of mediation that involve threats of imminent violence to self or others and lead the mediator(s) to reasonably believe that someone’s safety is at risk.

In light of this commitment to confidentiality, the mediator(s) will not retain any notes taken during the mediation, no recording will be permitted during the mediation process by any parties involved and it is understood that mediators cannot testify for or against any party should the dispute be subsequently pursued through grievance and/or legal proceedings.

F. A successful mediation is one in which the parties involved in the dispute reach an agreement described as “win/win.” In mediation, parties agree only to things that are acceptable to them, to resolutions which each believes will actually resolve the dispute(s) between/among them. Because parties jointly work to resolve the dispute, the resolutions are frequently more creative and have the potential to enhance, or at least preserve, relationships better than other forms of dispute resolution.

G. If an agreement is reached, the agreement will be written by the mediator(s), and signed by all parties. A copy of the agreement will be given to the parties but not retained by the mediator(s).

H. The mediator(s) will inform the co-liaisons only that an agreement was or was not reached.

I. Each participant in mediation will be given the opportunity to evaluate the mediation process at the conclusion of the mediation.

J. It is important to understand that: time spent in mediation will be considered part of the working day and will not require any person to take leave to participate. All supervisors will make reasonable efforts to enable employees to be available for participation in mediation.

K. The acceptance or refusal of either party to submit a dispute to a mediator will not influence the outcome of any subsequent grievance proceeding.

107.02106 Limitations to Mediation

It is important to understand that not all disputes are appropriate for mediation. Some examples of disputes that are not appropriate for mediation include those that have been the subject of a final ruling or decision in accordance with University policies and procedures; disputes involving purely academic decisions (i.e., faculty assessment of students’ work); disputes involving trivial matters; allegations of sexual harassment; complaints of discrimination based on protected class; and disputes that have no relation to the University. It is also important to understand that mediation will not result in resolution for every dispute.
107.032 Grievance Procedures

Within ninety days after becoming aware of the grievance, a person having a grievance shall attempt to resolve it at all levels through that of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs before submitting it to the chair on the Subcommittee on Faculty and Staff Grievances.

Before requesting a grievance hearing, a person having a grievance shall attempt to resolve the issue within 60 working days of the initiation of the grievance process through the level of the Provost. The Provost will submit a formal grievance to the chair of the Faculty Development Committee.

The initialization of a grievance shall not preclude attempts to resolve a dispute by means of Alternative Dispute Resolution (see Section 107). The person should understand that a committee appointed to hear the grievance functions to study the case and to make recommendations; it is not empowered to reverse decisions.

107.03201 A person submitting grievance shall follow the stated procedures at each level.

107.03202 Department Chair (or Supervisor)

A. The aggrieved person shall first discuss the grievance with the appropriate department chair.

B. If the matter is not resolved at this level, the person should prepare a written statement clearly delineating the grievance, supplying appropriate documentation.

C. Simultaneously, the department chair shall prepare a written statement to justify his or her action.

D. These documents shall be forwarded to the next highest administrative level.

107.03203 Dean of College (or comparable Administrator)

A. Upon receipt of the documents, the dean of the college shall review the grievance in consultation, if necessary, with the person involved, the department chair, and/or any other persons who might provide useful information.

B. If the grievance is not resolved at this level, the dean shall prepare a written statement describing his or her actions and justifying his or her decision.

C. The folder of documents, including the dean's statement, shall be forwarded to the next highest administrative level.

107.03204 Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs

A. The Provost and Vice President shall review all statements concerning the case. He or she may consult with the involved dean, department chair, and faculty or staff member before rendering a decision on the grievance.

B. If the person filing the grievance is not satisfied with the decision, the Provost and Vice President shall forward the folder including a written statement of the decision and justification to the chair of the Faculty Senate Faculty Development Committee, who will initiate the formation of a Subcommittee on Faculty and Staff Grievances. A new Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances will be formed each time a grievance is submitted.

C. Any petition or material which has not gone through the stated procedures described above (from the level of the department chair or supervisor up through the level of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs) will be returned to the petitioner with a copy of the pages of the Faculty Handbook describing the grievance procedures on campus. The petitioner will be informed that the Faculty Development Committee of the Faculty Senate has no authority to act on grievances which have not properly gone through channels.

107.03205 The Formation and Work of a Chair of the Subcommittee on Faculty and Staff Grievances

A. The Faculty Development Committee will choose by majority vote a chair for the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances from among tenured UWG faculty. The Chair of the Faculty Development Committee may not serve as the chair of the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances. A new Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances will be formed each time a grievance is submitted, with a new chair chosen for each grievance. The service of the chair of the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances will be agreed upon by any involved administrators and by the faculty member submitting the grievance.

B. Any petition or material which has not gone through the stated procedures described above (from the level of the department chair or supervisor up through the level of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs) will be returned to the petitioner with a copy of the pages of the Faculty Handbook describing the grievance procedures on campus. The petitioner will be informed that the Faculty and Administrative Staff Personnel Committee of the Faculty Senate has no authority to act on grievances which have not properly gone through proper channels.

B. Upon receipt of the folio concerning the grievance, the chair of chair of the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances this subcommittee shall consult with the chair of the Faculty Development and Administrative Staff Personnel Committee. They shall discuss the grievance petition and identify persons who might be best suited to constitute a committee to hear this grievance. The appointed committee shall be constituted in an effort to ensure that the aggrieved person receives a fair and impartial hearing.

1. In most cases, a four-seven-member committee of faculty members will be selected to hear a given grievance: one from the College of Arts and Humanities, one from the College of Science and Mathematics, one from the College of Social Sciences, one from the Richards College of Business, one from the College of Education, one from the School of Nursing, and one from the Library or some other segment of the campus.

2. The chair of the Subcommittee on Faculty and Staff Grievances will contact on an individual basis the persons identified as prospective committee members to determine their willingness to serve and their acceptability (re: impartiality, fairness, absence of conflict of interest). Their service as committee members will also be agreed to by any involved administrators and by the faculty member submitting the grievance.

3. Under normal circumstances, the chair of the Subcommittee on Faculty and Staff Grievances will serve as the chair of each of the grievance hearing committees established.

#4. The chair of the Subcommittee on Faculty and Staff Grievances is required to convene meetings to hear given grievance petitions and is responsible for writing the final draft of each committee's report with regard to a given grievance.

C. The Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee has the authority to conduct inquiries into faculty grievances, to attempt the resolution of these grievances by mediation, and to present to the President (via the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs appropriate channels) its recommendations for appropriate responses to the grievances it has considered. It is the responsibility of the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee to seek to determine whether there is substance to the grievances brought before it and, if so, to attempt to resolve these grievances. In carrying out this responsibility, the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee reviewing a given grievance may examine decision-making processes related to that grievance to determine whether or not such processes were handled fairly, professionally, and in accordance with university policy. To this end, faculty members, administrators, and designated committee members involved in or knowledgeable about particular issues pertaining to the grievance may be asked by the committee hearing the grievance to provide clarifying information and/or to discuss and defend their actions related to grievance charges. The Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing committee members may interview persons that the aggrieved faculty member and/or the administration feels would be helpful in getting the clearest picture of what has occurred.

The aggrieved individual should be provided every opportunity to fully state his or her contentions to the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee, and the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee should make every reasonable effort to understand the facts and the substance of an aggrieved person's allegations before rendering its report and recommendation(s).

Respecting due process and confidentiality, faculty members serving on a Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee will not discuss a given grievance or set of grievances with the aggrieved individual, other administrative or non-administrative colleagues, or with students, except when such contacts are agreed to by the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee as an authorized part of their role in reviewing said grievance(s).

D. Should the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee determine by majority vote that a formal hearing is appropriate, the following guidelines for conducting such a hearing shall be adhered to:

1. An oath or affirmation shall be administered to all persons expected to testify in the hearing by any person authorized by law to administer oaths in the State of Georgia.

2. All witnesses (except the principal parties), if they expect to testify, shall leave the room following the administration of the oath until called upon to testify.

3. The burden of proof is on the aggrieved party to sustain his or her allegations by appropriate evidence, and the administrative spokesperson or other appropriate party shall have the opportunity to respond.
4. The Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee shall allocate an amount of time to each side. Time shall be charged only against the party asking the questions. Time used by the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee members in questioning witnesses shall not be charged against either party.

5. The Subcommittee on Faculty and Staff Grievances has no subpoena powers, so the parties involved in a formal grievance hearing are responsible for producing witnesses, advisors and evidence. The Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee, however, may request the appearance of witnesses whose testimony it believes would be helpful to its purposes.

6. Each party may present an opening statement of not more than 10-15 minutes. The aggrieved person makes his or her presentation first, and then the opposing party shall have an opportunity to make its presentation.

7. Following the opening statements, the aggrieved party may then call witnesses to present evidence in support of his or her side of the case. He or she may question these witnesses or ask that the witnesses be permitted to make a narrative statement. When the aggrieved person has concluded his or her questioning of a given witness, the administrative spokesperson or other appropriate party shall be provided an opportunity to question (cross-examine) this witness.

8. When the aggrieved person has concluded with his or her witnesses, the administration or other appropriate party may proceed with its witnesses, if it chooses to call any. The administration or other appropriate party may question its witnesses, or ask that the witnesses be permitted to make a narrative statement. When the administrative spokesperson or other appropriate party has concluded his or her questioning of a given witness, the aggrieved party shall be provided an opportunity to question (cross-examine) this witness.

9. The Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee may question each witness after both parties have concluded their questions. During the hearing, once each party's witnesses have testified, the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee may question both parties in an effort to clarify various aspects of the grievance petition.

10. The aggrieved person and the administration's spokesperson (or other appropriate party) shall be present during the entire proceeding, including the examination of all witnesses.

11. Witnesses and any other evidence provided must be addressed to issues discussed in the grievance petition, not to inconsequential matters. Any evidence which may assist the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee in reaching a decision should be admitted into the record. However, the chair may exercise discretion and to exclude any evidence which is not pertinent to the case. The scope of questions asked by appropriate persons shall not be limited by the chair unless it appears that the questions are wholly irrelevant to the purpose of the hearing or the questions are asked solely to embarrass, harass, or intimidate the witness.
12. The chair may allow informal exchanges and comments between parties or among Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee members and participants. The chair may require that the hearing be conducted on a more formal basis when he or she believes this approach will be more conducive to an orderly hearing. Neither party shall be allowed to interfere with the orderly presentation of the other's case. Personal abuse, harassment, or obscene language is to be considered out-of-order.

13. Each party may bring to the hearing an advisor who may be present during the entire proceeding, but shall not be called as a witness or speak for the parties. In addition, each party may bring up to three other persons (not witnesses) to act as observers, if desired.

14. The hearing shall be audiotape-recorded.

15. All witnesses and parties to this matter must be present at the time designated for the swearing in, regardless of their time of appearance. When a witness cannot appear because of illness or other cause acceptable to the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee, the sworn statement (affidavit) of the witness may be introduced into the record and served on the opposing party, who should be allowed additional time, not to exceed three (3) working days following the completion of the hearing, to file counteraffidavits.

16. The party introducing written evidence should identify the evidence for the record (unless the opposite party agrees to its authenticity), preferably by calling a witness with firsthand knowledge of the document. Since the legal rules of evidence do not apply, however, it shall be sufficient if the party simply describes the documents, their source, and what the introduction of such documents is intended to prove. The chair should announce that the document is admitted into the record if that is his or her decision. Documentary (written) evidence introduced by the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee or by either party should be marked for identification by the person making a record of the hearing. Generally, Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee evidence should be marked C-1, C-2, C-3, etc.

17. Evidence presented by the person bringing the grievance should be marked G-1, G-2, G-3, etc. Evidence presented by the administration or other appropriate party in response to the grievance will be marked A-1, A-2, A-3, or R-1, R-2, R-3, respectively.

18. If the hearing cannot be concluded in the time established by the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee, the chair of the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee shall adjourn the hearing for the day and reconvene at the earliest possible time convenient to all parties involved.

19. At the conclusion of the hearing, the administration (or other appropriate party) may make a closing statement (not more than 15 minutes in length). Then the aggrieved person may make a closing statement (not more than 15 minutes in length). As the aggrieved person bears the burden of proof in this hearing, he or she may wish to reserve part of his or her closing statement for rebutting the closing argument of the administrative spokesperson or other appropriate party.
20. Each party shall have three (3) working days following the hearing to file any counteraffidavits or responses with the Hearing Committee. If neither party wishes to submit additional documentary evidence after the hearing is concluded, the Chair shall announce that the record is closed. If either party asks to present additional evidence, additional time not to exceed three (3) working days may be granted, with the other party granted an additional three (3) working days to rebut the evidence. The Chair shall announce the record then be closed, and thereafter no further evidence shall be received.
Copies of evidence presented shall be sent by the party presenting it to the opposite party.

21. The Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee shall develop its findings and formulate its recommendations, based on the evidence submitted to it by the parties involved. This evidence includes all written material submitted to it prior to the hearing and attested to at the hearing, all evidence produced at the hearing itself, and any counteraffidavits or responses filed with the Hearing Committee before the record is closed.

22. Immediately after the conclusion of the hearing, the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee shall meet privately to discuss their initial reaction to the case and the evidence. As soon as the record (transcript, tape, etc.) of the hearing is available, each Hearing Committee member shall carefully review it before reaching a decision. The Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee shall then meet again, discuss the case and reach its decision, which is then written and signed. The decision does not have to be unanimous, and a minority report may be filed.

E. This committee shall forward its decision with justifications to the chair of the Faculty Development and Administrative Staff Personnel Committee who shall present it to the full committee for consideration.

F. The report of the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee will follow the guidelines stated below:

1. Findings of Fact: A brief summary of the facts as determined by the Committee hearing the grievance from the evidence presented at the hearing, including a statement as to the nature of the case. This summary will state findings of fact on each major issue raised by the parties.

2. Violations: A general statement of Regents' Policies or institution rules and regulations violated, if any, and/or the stated reasons for the action.

3. Recommendation: A statement specifying the action the Hearing Committee recommends. The Hearing Committee will keep its purpose in mind and limit the scope of its recommendations to the case before it. To reduce the length of the decision without sacrificing clarity, the Hearing Committee report should include only such factual recitals as necessary to present and decide the issues.

G. This committee shall forward its report to the chair of the Faculty Development and Administrative Staff Personnel Committee who shall present it to the Faculty Development and Administrative Staff Personnel Committee for its consideration. The chair of the Faculty Development and Administrative Staff Personnel Committee may request that one or more members of the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances Hearing Committee be present when the report is presented to the Faculty Development and Administrative Staff Personnel Committee.

1. The chair of the Faculty Development and Administrative Staff Personnel Committee shall submit the evidence and the report accepted by the full committee to the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs.

2. Simultaneously, a letter stating that action has been taken concerning the grievance and a copy of the report approved by the Faculty Development and Administrative Staff Personnel Committee shall be transmitted to the aggrieved person.

3. The Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs shall assume responsibility for transmitting all information back down through the appeal chain.

107.03206 President of the University

If the grievance is not resolved at this point, the aggrieved person may appeal to the next highest level -- the President of the University.

107.03 Office of the University Ombuds

The Office of the University Ombuds has been established to provide an accessible, informal channel of communication to facilitate non-adversarial means of dispute resolution and to promote conflict management and cooperation throughout the University community. The office will work to resolve concerns, complaints and questions about University policies, procedures and practices in a neutral, impartial and confidential manner.

In their dealings with visitors (i.e.: faculty, staff and students), Ombuds staff will act with integrity and will advocate, not for any individual, but for fairness, equitable treatment, and respect throughout the University community. Ombuds staff shall be properly trained and will adhere to the Code of Ethics and Standard Operating Practices of the International Ombudsman Association. They shall also serve as sensors and resource persons in identifying systemic institutional problems.

107.0301 Purpose and Scope

The University Ombuds Office is an independent source of assistance to faculty, staff and students who seek guidance in dealing with problems, issues and conflicts. The office works outside the formal organizational structure of the University to resolve concerns and complaints. Ombuds personnel promote communication, fairness and civility in work relationships and in the resolution of conflicts. The office supplements, rather than replaces, other alternative dispute resolution (ADR) processes at the University. It strives to help parties reach mutually acceptable resolutions of disputes in non-adversarial fashion. Ombuds staff also design and conduct training programs in conflict resolution and related areas for the University community.

Without violating the confidential nature of the information, Ombuds staff may make recommendations for institutional change to the President when appropriate (e.g.: policy change, needed training, or other procedures that may enhance the campus climate). They also may provide feedback with regard to trends or issues.
107.0302 Organization and Procedures

Professional staff in the University Ombuds office are appointed by, and report to, the President of the University. The office shall operate independent of the ordinary line and staff structure of the University. All staff with the title of Ombuds shall be appropriately trained and affiliated with the University Ombuds office.

The office shall have access to any University office and will be provided information in an expeditious manner. It shall safeguard the confidentiality of that information. Ombuds serve neither as advocates nor as adjudicators and do not exercise decision-making authority. The office acts in an informal manner outside usual administrative procedures, but does not subvert those procedures. It shall not be involved in any compliance function of the institution. Contact with the Ombuds office is voluntary and shall not be required.

Ombuds provide informal, confidential guidance to visitors and assist the University community in the development of policies and procedures. They listen, offer information on University policies and procedures, discuss options, make inquiries and referrals and facilitate communication. Ombuds will explain the limits of services to visitors and the policy of confidentiality. No member of the University community shall experience reprisal in seeking the services of the office.

Ombuds do not take sides in a conflict and strive to ensure fair and equitable treatment for all concerned. Ombuds must consider the interests of all individuals affected.

With the permission of the visitor, the Ombuds will meet with all parties involved in a conflict. If the Ombuds determines that formal mediation may be appropriate, the parties involved in the conflict will be referred to the ADR liaisons who will arrange the mediation. Ombuds will advise visitors of proper procedures to follow, including the lodging of a formal grievance if necessary. At that point, the Ombuds will withdraw from the process. The Ombuds office shall not conduct formal investigations nor will it provide testimony in formal or legal proceedings unless required by subpoena or court order.

The Ombuds office may initiate review without a specific complaint in the determination of procedural or systemic problems. An Ombuds may decline or withdraw from involvement in any matter which is inappropriate for the engagement of the office. An Ombuds shall avoid situations in which there is appearance of conflict of interest.

Contact with the Ombuds office is not regarded as official notice to the University on any matter nor is an Ombuds required to report any such communication to the University. If a visitor wishes to put the University on notice, the Ombuds will make a referral to the appropriate official.

Communication with the Ombuds office is confidential. Statistical data maintained by the office will not reveal confidential information. Records of communications will not be kept and informal notes will be destroyed promptly. Oral communication is preferred and use of e-mail in communicating confidential matters with the office is not encouraged.

107.0303 Code of Ethics and Standard Operating Procedures

The Ombuds office at the University of West Georgia will adhere to the Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice of the International Ombudsman Association (see appendices). In the exercise of duties, Ombuds shall be “truthful and act with integrity, shall foster respect for all members of the organization he or she serves, and shall promote procedural fairness in the content and administration of those organizations’ practices, processes, and policies.”

A. Independence
The Ombuds office reports to the President of the University. It shall function free from interference and will not be constrained by the organizational structure of the institution. Ombuds staff will have no other affiliation or function at the University which might compromise their independence. To fulfill Ombuds functions, the Ombuds office shall have a specific, allocated budget, adequate space, and sufficient resources to meet operating needs and pursue continuing professional development. The Ombuds shall have the authority to manage the budget and operations of the Ombuds office. The Ombuds shall report to the office of the University President for administrative and budget matters.

B. Neutrality and Impartiality
An Ombuds shall not advocate for any individual but shall strive for fair and equitable treatment for all members of the University community. Ombuds must avoid participation in matters which would create a conflict of interest or otherwise compromise neutrality, including involvement in a compliance function.

C. Confidentiality
The Ombuds office shall not reveal the name of any party with whom it has communicated and shall maintain confidentiality in communications, disclosing confidential information, at the discretion of the Ombuds, only when given permission, when compelled by law, judicial subpoena or court order or when there is an imminent risk of possible violence or physical harm to self or others as determined by the Ombuds. Ombuds staff do not keep notes or records on individual cases. 62

D. Informality
Ombuds will not participate in any internal formal grievance process or external formal process or action, even if given permission to do so. Use of the office is voluntary and shall not be required.

The Ombuds office does not keep records for the University and in carrying out its mission is not authorized to:

- Make, change, or set aside a law, policy, or administrative decision;
- Make binding decisions or determine rights;
- Compel anyone to implement recommendations;
- Conduct investigations that substitute for administrative or judicial proceedings; □ Give legal advice;
- Determine “guilt” or “innocence” of anyone accused of wrong-doing;
- Provide testimony in formal grievance or disciplinary procedures or litigation except to explain the role of the office and provide publicly available information (unless ordered to do so by a judge);
- Maintain formal written case records identifying users of the office;
- Assist individuals with an issue that is currently pending in a formal forum (e.g.: a grievance) unless all parties and the presiding officer in that action explicitly consent to suspend the formal process;
 Assist individuals with no affiliation with the campus community;

107.0304 Evaluation

Evaluation of the Ombuds office and staff will be conducted periodically by the University President through external review and shall include an assessment of visitor satisfaction.

107.0305 Reporting

The Ombuds office shall at least annually make reports to the University President, the Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution and the campus community on conflict trends and areas of general concern regarding policies and procedures.

107.0306 Adoption

These Terms of Reference and any subsequent amendments shall be approved by the Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution, the Faculty Senate and the President of the University. They shall be effective on the date approved by the President and shall be incorporated into the dispute resolution and grievance procedures in the faculty, employee and student handbooks.
Addendum VIII
107 Dispute Resolution and Grievance Procedures

The University of West Georgia recognizes the value of constructive dispute resolution. Faculty, staff, and students at the University of West Georgia are encouraged to seek resolution of any conflict through informal discussion with those persons involved. If such informal efforts do not resolve the dispute, the parties may choose to utilize the Office of the University of West Georgia Ombuds (see section 107.01), the services of the Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Program at the University of West Georgia (see section 107.02) and/or may pursue resolution of disputes through established Grievance Procedures (see section 107.03).

107.01 Office of the University Ombuds

The Office of the University Ombuds has been established to provide an accessible, informal channel of communication to facilitate non-adversarial means of dispute resolution and to promote conflict management and cooperation throughout the University community. Communication with the Ombuds office is confidential. Statistical data maintained by the office will not reveal confidential information. Informal notes will be destroyed promptly. Oral communication is preferred and use of e-mail in communicating confidential matters with the office is not encouraged.

107.0103 Code of Ethics and Standard Operating Procedures

The Ombuds office at the University of West Georgia will adhere to the Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice of the International Ombudsman Association (see appendices). In the exercise of duties, Ombuds shall be “truthful and act with integrity, shall foster respect for all members of the organization he or she serves, and shall promote procedural fairness in the content and administration of those organizations’ practices, processes, and policies.”

A. Independence

An Ombuds shall not advocate for any individual but shall strive for fair and equitable treatment for all members of the University community. Ombuds must avoid participation in matters which would create a conflict of interest or otherwise compromise neutrality, including involvement in a compliance function.

C. Confidentiality

The Ombuds office shall not reveal the name of any party with whom it has communicated and shall maintain confidentiality in communications, disclosing confidential information only when given permission, when compelled by law, judicial subpoena or court order or when there is an imminent risk of possible violence or physical harm to self or others as determined by the Ombuds.

D. Informality

Ombuds will not participate in any internal formal grievance process or external formal process or action, even if given permission to do so.

The Ombuds office does not keep records for the University and in carrying out its mission is not authorized to:

- Make, change, or set aside a law, policy, or administrative decision;

- Assist individuals with an issue that is currently pending in a formal forum (e.g.: a grievance) unless all parties and the presiding officer in that action explicitly consent to suspend the formal process.

107.0104 Evaluation

Evaluation of the Ombuds office and staff will be conducted periodically by the University President through external review and shall include an assessment of visitor satisfaction.

107.0105 Reporting
The Ombuds office shall at least annually make reports to the University President, the Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution and the campus community on conflict trends and areas of general concern regarding policies and procedures.

107.0106 Adoption

These Terms of Reference and any subsequent amendments shall be approved by the Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution, the Faculty Senate and the President of the University. They shall be effective on the date approved by the President and shall be incorporated into the dispute resolution and grievance procedures in the faculty, employee and student handbooks.

107.02 Ombuds Office Initiation of Intake for Alternative Dispute Resolution.

Ombuds Office functions the intake point for the UWG ADR Program, whose services an individual may use as s/he seeks to resolve a conflict.

107.0201

The ADR program is run by the Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution, which will consist of persons recommended by the Ombuds Office [and appointed by the President]. Each college or school and the library will be represented on the committee. The committee will meet at least once a semester and participate in a variety of tasks associated with mediation, including but not limited to: overseeing the general operations of the ADR program; distributing and updating information about the program’s policies and procedures; coordinating mediation training for faculty; screen requests for mediation to determine the appropriateness of mediation (including the willingness of parties to participate in mediation); secure the consent of all parties involved and arrange for an approved neutral or neutrals to mediate the dispute; and maintain all necessary records, forms of consent, and evaluations required during the mediation process; and overseeing all ADR-related tasks requested by the Board of Regents.

107.0202.1 At its first meeting of the year, the committee will elect a chair from its membership to serve for a two year term. The chair may be re-elected for one subsequent term.

107.0203 The Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution will recruit mediators from the faculty at the university. Each person wishing to mediate must have successfully completed an appropriate course designed to train mediators. In those cases where it may be deemed appropriate to obtain the services of a mediator from off-campus, the ADR committee will contact the office of the Consortium on Negotiation and Conflict Resolution (CNCR).

Every effort will be made to provide appropriate training to faculty who are interested in becoming mediators within the University System of Georgia.

107.0204 Requests for Mediation

Any member of the University Community may request a mediation to resolve disputes with any other member.
Seeking a solution through mediation does not take away an individual’s rights to pursue claims through the grievance process or litigation.

Under ordinary circumstances, parties involved in a dispute would ideally attempt mediation before pursuing claims through the grievance process or litigation. There may be cases, however, in which parties involved in a dispute may wish to request suspension or delay of a grievance process in order to pursue possibilities for a mediated resolution of their dispute. If a grievance process is interrupted in this way and a solution is not reached in mediation within twenty (20) working days from the initial request for mediation, aggrieved parties may return to the grievance process.

107. 0205 The Mediation Process

If the Ombuds office has determined that mediation is appropriate, they will forward requests to the ADR committee to assist parties in resolution of their dispute(s). It will be the responsibility of the mediator(s) to arrange for an appropriate time and place to conduct the mediation, and to conduct the mediation according to all applicable policies and procedures.

Procedures that govern the mediation process include the following:

A. Mediation is a form of dispute resolution in which a neutral party, a trained mediator, attempts to assist parties in conflict to negotiate a mutually satisfactory resolution to their dispute. A mediator does not decide who wins or loses the dispute. A mediator does not act as judge or jury, does not take sides in disputes, and does not guarantee the results of mediation. Instead, a mediator is in the role of a neutral third-party who establishes a fair and structured process which facilitates communication and mutual decision-making between and among parties to a dispute.

B. At the beginning of the mediation session, the mediator(s) will inform the parties involved of the policies and procedures that will be followed and will ensure that participation in mediation is purely voluntary. No mediation will occur without the consent of all parties involved.

C. If the mediator(s) allow the parties to have an advisor present, the mediator(s) will decide to what degree the advisor may participate in the process.

D. All parties will be given the opportunity to present their side of the matters at issue in their own words. Because mediation is essentially a communication process and not a legal proceeding, the customary rules of evidence do not apply. Parties are free to discuss any matters related to the issue(s) they believe will support resolution of their dispute(s).

E. Confidentiality. The discussions held during mediation are strictly confidential with the following exceptions: confidentiality does not extend to a situation in which conduct by either party is criminal in nature or statements are made during the process of mediation that involve threats of imminent violence to self or others and lead the mediator(s) to reasonably believe that someone’s safety is at risk.

In light of this commitment to confidentiality, the mediator(s) will not retain any notes taken during the mediation, no recording will be permitted during the mediation process by any parties involved.
and it is understood that mediators cannot testify for or against any party should the dispute be subsequently pursued through grievance and/or legal proceedings.

F. A successful mediation is one in which the parties involved in the dispute reach an agreement described as “win/win.” In mediation, parties agree only to things that are acceptable to them, to resolutions which each believes will actually resolve the dispute(s) between/among them. Because parties jointly work to resolve the dispute, the resolutions are frequently more creative and have the potential to enhance, or at least preserve, relationships better than other forms of dispute resolution.

G. If an agreement is reached, the agreement will be written by the mediator(s), and signed by all parties. A copy of the agreement will be given to the parties but not retained by the mediator(s).

H. The mediator(s) will inform the Ombuds office only that an agreement was or was not reached.

I. Each participant in mediation will be given the opportunity to evaluate the mediation process at the conclusion of the mediation.

J. It is important to understand that: time spent in mediation will be considered part of the working day and will not require any person to take leave to participate. All supervisors will make reasonable efforts to enable employees to be available for participation in mediation.

K. The acceptance or refusal of either party to submit a dispute to a mediator will not influence the outcome of any subsequent grievance proceeding.

107.0206 Limitations to Mediation

It is important to understand that not all disputes are appropriate for mediation. Some examples of disputes that are not appropriate for mediation include those that have been the subject of a final ruling or decision in accordance with University policies and procedures; disputes involving purely academic decisions (i.e., faculty assessment of students’ work); disputes involving trivial matters; allegations of sexual harassment; complaints of discrimination based on protected class; and disputes that have no relation to the University. It is also important to understand that mediation will not result in resolution for every dispute.

107.03 Grievance Procedures

Before requesting a grievance hearing, a person having a grievance shall attempt to resolve the issue within 60 working days of the initiation of the grievance process through the level of the Provost. The Provost will submit a formal grievance to the chair of the Faculty Development Committee.

The initialization of a grievance shall not preclude attempts to resolve a dispute by means of Alternative Dispute Resolution (see Section 107). The person should understand that a committee appointed to hear the grievance functions to study the case and to make recommendations; it is not empowered to reverse decisions.

107.0301 A person submitting grievance shall follow the stated procedures at each level.

107.0302 Department Chair (or Supervisor)

A. The aggrieved person shall first discuss the grievance with the appropriate department chair.
B. If the matter is not resolved at this level, the person should prepare a written statement clearly delineating the grievance, supplying appropriate documentation.

C. Simultaneously, the department chair shall prepare a written statement to justify his or her action.

D. These documents shall be forwarded to the next highest administrative level.

107.0303 Dean of College (or comparable Administrator)

A. Upon receipt of the documents, the dean of the college shall review the grievance in consultation, if necessary, with the person involved, the department chair, and/or any other persons who might provide useful information.

B. If the grievance is not resolved at this level, the dean shall prepare a written statement describing his or her actions and justifying his or her decision.

C. The folder of documents including the dean's statement shall be forwarded to the next highest administrative level.

107.0304 Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs

A. The Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs shall review all statements concerning the case. He or she may consult with the involved dean, department chair, and faculty member before rendering a decision on the grievance.

B. If the person filing the grievance is not satisfied with the decision, the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs shall forward the folder including a written statement of the decision and justification to the chair of the Faculty Senate Faculty Development Committee, who will initiate the formation of a Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances. A new Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances will be formed each time a grievance is submitted.

C. Any petition or material which has not gone through the stated procedures described above (from the level of the department chair or supervisor up through the level of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs) will be returned to the petitioner with a copy of the pages of the Faculty Handbook describing the grievance procedures on campus. The petitioner will be informed that the Faculty Development Committee of the Faculty Senate has no authority to act on grievances which have not properly gone through channels.

107.0305 The Formation and Work of a Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances

A. The Faculty Development Committee will choose by majority vote a chair for the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances from among tenured UWG faculty. The chair of the Faculty Development Committee may not serve as the chair of the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances. A new Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances will be formed each time a grievance is submitted, with a new chair chosen for each grievance. The service of the chair of the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances will be agreed upon by any involved administrators and by the faculty member submitting the grievance.
B. Upon receipt of the folio concerning the grievance, the chair of the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances shall consult with the chair of the Faculty Development Committee. They shall discuss the grievance petition and identify persons who might be best suited to constitute a committee to hear this grievance. The appointed committee shall be constituted in an effort to ensure that the aggrieved person receives a fair and impartial hearing.

1. In most cases, a seven-member committee of faculty members will be selected to hear a given grievance: one from the College of Arts and Humanities, one from the College of Science and Mathematics, one from the College of Social Sciences, one from the Richards College of Business, one from the College of Education, one from the School of Nursing, and one from the Library.

2. The chair of the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances will contact on an individual basis the persons identified as prospective committee members to determine their willingness to serve and their acceptability (re: impartiality, fairness, absence of conflict of interest). Their service as committee members will also be agreed to by any involved administrators and by the faculty member submitting the grievance.

3. The chair of the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances is required to convene meetings to hear the grievance petition and is responsible for writing the final draft of the committee's report regarding the grievance.

C. The Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances has the authority to conduct inquiries into faculty grievances and to present to the President (via the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs) its recommendations for appropriate responses to the grievance it has considered. It is the responsibility of the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances to determine whether there is substance to the grievance brought before it and, if so, to attempt to resolve the grievance. In carrying out this responsibility, the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances reviewing the grievance may examine decision-making processes related to that grievance to determine whether or not such processes were handled fairly, professionally, and in accordance with university policy. To this end, faculty members, administrators, and designated committee members involved in or knowledgeable about particular issues pertaining to the grievance may be asked by the committee hearing the grievance to provide clarifying information and/or to discuss and defend their actions related to grievance charges. The Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances members may interview persons that the aggrieved faculty member and/or the administration feels would be helpful in getting the clearest picture of what has occurred.

The aggrieved individual should be provided every opportunity to fully state his or her contentions to the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances, and the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances should make every reasonable effort to understand the facts and the substance of an aggrieved person's allegations before rendering its report and recommendation(s).

Respecting due process and confidentiality, faculty members serving on a Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances will not discuss the grievance or set of grievances with the aggrieved individual, other administrative or non-administrative colleagues, or with students, except when as such contacts are agreed to by the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances as an authorized part of their role in reviewing said grievance(s).

D. Hearings may be informal or formal. If the involved parties agree, an informal hearing may be held that gives all parties in the dispute the opportunity to present evidence and make their case. Should the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances determine that a formal hearing is appropriate, the following guidelines for conducting such a hearing shall be adhered to:

1. An oath or affirmation shall be administered to all persons expected to testify in the hearing by any person authorized by law to administer oaths in the State of Georgia.

2. All witnesses (except the principal parties), if they expect to testify, shall leave the room following the administration of the oath until called upon to testify.

3. The burden of proof is on the aggrieved party to sustain his or her allegations by appropriate evidence, and the administrative spokesperson or other appropriate party shall have the opportunity to respond.

4. The Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances shall allocate an amount of time to each side. Time shall be charged only against the party asking the questions. Time used by the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances members in questioning witnesses shall not be charged against either party.

5. The Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances has no subpoena powers, so the parties involved in a formal grievance hearing are responsible for producing witnesses, advisors and evidence. The Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances, however, may request the appearance of witnesses whose testimony it believes would be helpful to its purposes.

6. Each party may present an opening statement of not more than 10-15 minutes. The aggrieved person makes his or her presentation first, and then the opposing party shall have an opportunity to make its presentation.

7. Following the opening statements, the aggrieved party may then call witnesses to present evidence in support of his or her side of the case. He or she may question these witnesses or ask that the witnesses be permitted to make a narrative statement. When the aggrieved person has concluded his or her questioning of a given witness, the administrative spokesperson or other appropriate party shall be provided an opportunity to question (cross-examine) this witness.

8. When the aggrieved person has concluded with his or her witnesses, the administration or other appropriate party may proceed with its witnesses, if it chooses to call any. The administration or other appropriate party may question its witnesses, or ask that the witnesses be permitted to make a narrative statement. When the administrative spokesperson or other appropriate party has concluded his or her questioning of a given witness, the aggrieved party shall be provided an opportunity to question (cross-examine) this witness.

9. The Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances may question each witness after both parties have concluded their questions. During the hearing, once each party's witnesses have testified, the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances may question both parties in an effort to clarify various aspects of the grievance petition.

10. The aggrieved person and the administration's spokesperson (or other appropriate party) shall be present during the entire proceeding, including the examination of all witnesses.
11. Witnesses and any other evidence provided must address issues discussed in the grievance petition, not inconsequential matters. Any evidence which may assist the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances in reaching a decision should be admitted into the record; however, the chair may exercise discretion to exclude any evidence which is not pertinent to the case. The scope of questions asked by appropriate persons shall not be limited by the chair unless it appears that the questions are wholly irrelevant to the purpose of the hearing or the questions are asked solely to embarrass, harass, or intimidate the witness.

12. The chair may allow informal exchanges and comments between parties or among Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances members and participants. The chair may require that the hearing be conducted on a more formal basis when he or she believes this approach will be more conducive to an orderly hearing. Neither party shall be allowed to interfere with the orderly presentation of the other's case. Personal abuse, harassment or obscene language is to be considered out-of-order.

13. Each party may bring to the hearing an advisor who may be present during the entire proceeding, but shall not be called as a witness or speak for the parties. In addition, each party may bring up to three other persons (not witnesses) to act as observers, if desired.

14. The hearing shall be audio recorded.

15. All witnesses and parties to this matter must be present at the time designated for the swearing in, regardless of their time of appearance. When a witness cannot appear because of illness or other cause acceptable to the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances, the sworn statement (affidavit) of the witness may be introduced into the record and served on the opposing party, who should be allowed additional time, not to exceed three (3) working days following the completion of the hearing, to file counter-affidavits.

16. The party introducing written evidence should identify the evidence for the record (unless the opposite party agrees to its authenticity), preferably by calling a witness with firsthand knowledge of the document. Since the legal rules of evidence do not apply, however, it shall be sufficient if the party simply describes the documents, their source, and what the introduction of such documents is intended to prove. The chair should announce that the document is admitted into the record if that is his or her decision. Documentary (written) evidence introduced by the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances or by either party should be marked for identification by the person making a record of the hearing. Generally, Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances evidence should be marked C-1, C-2, C-3, etc.

17. Evidence presented by the person bringing the grievance should be marked G-1, G-2, G-3, etc. Evidence presented by the administration or other appropriate party in response to the grievance will be marked A-1, A-2, A-3, or R-1, R-2, R-3, respectively.

18. If the hearing cannot be concluded in the time established by the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances, the chair of the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances shall adjourn the hearing for the day and reconvene at the earliest possible time convenient to all parties involved.

19. At the conclusion of the hearing, the administration (or other appropriate party) may make a closing statement (not more than 15 minutes in length). Then the aggrieved person may make a closing statement (not more than 15 minutes in length). As the aggrieved person bears the burden of proof in this hearing, he or she may wish to reserve part of his or her closing statement for rebutting the closing argument of the administrative spokesperson or other appropriate party.

20. Each party shall have three (3) working days following the hearing to file any counter-affidavits or responses with the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances. If neither party wishes to submit additional documentary evidence after the hearing is concluded, the chair shall announce that the record is closed. If either party asks to present additional evidence, additional time not to exceed three (3) working days may be granted, with the other party granted an additional three (3) working days to rebut the evidence. The chair shall announce the record then be closed, and thereafter no further evidence shall be received. Copies of evidence presented shall be sent by the party presenting it to the opposite party.

21. The Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances shall develop its findings and formulate its recommendations based on the evidence submitted to it by the parties involved. This evidence includes all written material submitted to it prior to the hearing and attested to at the hearing, all evidence produced at the hearing itself, and any counter-affidavits or responses filed with the Hearing Committee before the record is closed.

22. Immediately after the conclusion of the hearing, the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances shall meet privately to discuss their initial reaction to the case and the evidence. As soon as the record (transcript, recording, etc.) of the hearing is available, each Hearing Committee member shall carefully review it before reaching a decision. The Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances shall then meet again, discuss the case and reach its decision, which is then written and signed. The decision does not have to be unanimous and a minority report may be filed.

E. This committee shall forward its decision with justifications to the chair of the Faculty Development Committee who shall present it to the full committee for consideration.

F. The report of the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances will follow the guidelines stated below:

1. Findings of Fact: A brief summary of the facts as determined by the Committee hearing the grievance from the evidence presented at the hearing, including a statement as to the nature of the case. This summary will state findings of fact on each major issue raised by the parties.

2. Violations: A general statement of Regents' Policies or institution rules and regulations violated, if any, and/or the stated reasons for the action.

3. Recommendation: A statement specifying the action the Hearing Committee recommends. The Hearing Committee will keep its purpose in mind and limit the scope of its recommendations to the case before it. To reduce the length of the decision without sacrificing clarity, the Hearing Committee report should include only such factual recitals as necessary to present and decide the issues.

G. This committee shall forward its report to the chair of the Faculty Development Committee who shall present it to the Faculty Development Committee for its consideration. The chair of the Faculty Development Committee may request that one or more members of the Subcommittee on Faculty Grievances be present when the report is presented to the Faculty Development Committee.

1. The chair of the Faculty Development Committee shall submit the evidence and the report as accepted or rejected by the full committee to the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs.

2. Simultaneously, a letter stating that action has been taken concerning the grievance and a copy of the report approved by the Faculty Development Committee shall be transmitted to the aggrieved person.

3. The Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs shall assume responsibility for transmitting all information back down the appeal chain.

107.0306 President of the University

If the grievance is not resolved at this point, the aggrieved person may appeal to the next highest level -- the President of the University.
Addendum IX
Faculty Senate Rules Committee: Proposed Changes to the UWG Shared Governance Procedures

UWG Shared Governance Procedures for Modifications to Academic Degrees and Programs

Many changes also need approval by the BOR, SACS, and/or specialized accreditors prior to implementation. This document only addresses the UWG internal approval process.

The Provost serves as the Chief Academic Officer for the Institution. As such, all changes to programs and courses need approval of the Provost. The Dean, serving under the Provost, serves as the Chief Academic Officer for the college or school of his or her appointment. It is the responsibility of both the Dean and members of the faculty to engage in improvements and innovations in pedagogy, curriculum, and programming in an effort to increase student learning. Many of these changes should flow naturally out of market conditions, environments, national norms, and data collected and analyzed through the assessment of student learning outcomes.

The process for new or modified academic programs and curriculum normally (but not exclusively) initiates within a college or school. As such, it is the responsibility of the Dean as the chief academic officer of the college or school to manage the curriculum creation/modification process within his/her area of appointment. Each college or school has the opportunity to define internal processes for the creation and modification of curriculum and academic programs, within the boundaries of UWG and BOR policy and procedures.

When the creation or modification of an academic program or curriculum is approved by the Dean, many changes should also be submitted for consideration by the faculty senate and its committees, while others should be reported directly to the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs. The process of notification and approval for the creation/ modification of academic programs and curriculum is outlined below:

1. The following are actions items by the Senate:
   - Any changes to degree requirements within a college or across colleges (including credit hour changes)
     o New academic programs and new courses (degrees, minors, certificates, etc…)
     o Changes to a course level (i.e. changing from 3000 to 4000 level)
     o Adding or removing a course from the Core Curriculum o Changes to course prerequisites that span across colleges o Modifying the requirements to complete an academic program
     o New or modified concentrations within a degree program

2. The following are information items for the Senate:
   o Modifications to XIDS courses (Action Item by the Committee)
   o Changes in admission standards for an academic program o Suspending (deactivating) or eliminating (terminating) academic programs o Offering an existing academic program more than 95% online
   o Offering an approved academic program more than 50%, but less than 95% online

3. The following are reviewed by the Senate graduate and undergraduate programs committees to assure quality of academic programs
   o Comprehensive Program Reviews
   o Academic program learning outcome assessments
4. The following are not items considered by the Senate and should be reported directly to office of the Provost:

- Modifications/additions/deletions to existing academic program learning outcomes
- Offering less than 25% or 25-50% of an academic program at an off-site location or online (separate notifications for each change)
- Minor modifications to courses including: course name, description, course learning outcomes, course deletions (with the exception of Core courses) and prerequisites within a college or school
- Creation or modifications of assessment artifacts
- Moving an approved course to online delivery
