

ABOUT THE MAJOR

In addition to the traditional Anthropology major, we offer a concentration in Cross-Cultural Health and Spirituality, which specializes in how spirituality and health intersect in the United States and around the world, addressing newly-emerging interests and employment opportunities in the field of global health and wellness. With a more streamlined and targeted set of course options, this concentration focuses on cultural anthropology, religion, and health/wellness, while still covering coursework in archaeology, and linguistic and biological anthropology.

ABOUT THIS MAP

This program map is intended ONLY as a guide for students to plan their course of study. It does NOT replace any information in the Undergraduate Catalog, which is the official guide for completing degree requirements. Use this map to help plan and guide your experience at UWG, including academic, co-curricular, and discovery opportunities. Everyone's experience is different and activities in this map are suggestions. Always consult with your advisors whenever possible for new opportunities and updates.
