ABOUT THE MAJOR
The B.A. in philosophy with a concentration in Law, Justice, and Society helps students develop the skills of critical thinking and logical rigor while deepening their understanding of concepts related to law and justice. It is appropriate for students who are interested in philosophical aspects of the law and of justice, as well as for those preparing for careers in law, social justice, public service, and related fields.

ABOUT THIS MAP
This program map is intended ONLY as a guide for students to plan their course of study. It does NOT replace any information in the Undergraduate Catalog, which is the official guide for completing degree requirements. Use this map to help plan and guide your experience at UWG, including academic, co-curricular, and discovery opportunities. Everyone’s experience is different and activities in this map are suggestions. Always consult with your advisors whenever possible for new opportunities and updates.
