

Non-Tenure Track Faculty Position
“Educational Excellence in a Caring Environment”

About Us

Welcome to one of the most dynamic universities in the nation.

Since 1906, UWG has been home to those who are eager to take their own path, learn, and grow. With more than 13,400 students and 85+ programs, we've come a long way since then. Today, we're a regional powerhouse with locations in Carrollton, Douglasville, and Newnan, Georgia, making a difference in the lives of our students, our neighbors, and the world. The one thing that's never changed: Amazing things happen when you Go West.

Becoming UWG

Becoming is about what we grow to be. UWG is positioning for Success in the 21st Century, introducing Strategic Priorities to help shape a comprehensive blueprint for our university. Relevance, Competitiveness and Placemaking serve as the pillars for the future of the institution. Learn more at <https://www.westga.edu/becominguwg/index.php>.

UWG Commitment Statement

Dedicating ourselves to the curation of a first-choice university.

Job Summary

Non-tenure-track academic-year faculty appointment available with a start date of August 1st, 2022. The successful candidate will teach undergraduate BSN students in varied settings. Applicants are sought in all clinical practice backgrounds.

Click on the following link to apply:

Non-Tenure Track Nursing Faculty Position

Applications will be accepted until the position is filled, but for best consideration, please submit your materials by March 15th

Responsibilities

- Responsibilities include undergraduate teaching in online and traditional classroom settings;
- Simulation, laboratory and clinical instruction-80%.
- Service to the school/university/profession/community-10%,
- Scholarly program broadly defined- 10%

Required Qualifications

- Master's degree in nursing with a clinical specialization, informatics, nursing education, and/or nursing leadership focus

Required Experience

Preferred Qualifications

- Strong clinical practice background
- An active RN eNLC license to practice nursing in Georgia (or eligible).

Preferred Qualifications

- Certification in a specialty area, doctorate in nursing or related field, a record of accomplishments in working with diverse populations of students, undergraduate clinical, laboratory, and didactic teaching experience, and evidence of a scholarly program, broadly defined.