There have been times where I have gotten bounced around from person to person because no one has an answer for my problem. I would prefer ONE person to take my information, do the footwork to find my answer and then call me back.
I would just like to say that this was a huge help for me and I am very thankful for the ability to connect with the recourses to contribute to the highest success
I am a transfer student from WGTC, and I have truly never loved school more in my life! The environment, the campus, the people and the instructors are absolutely amazing and they will make sure to make you feel as comfortable as possible. Shoutout to Kyle Carter!!! He is so amazing! GO WOLVES!!!!
