UWG Center for Diversity and Inclusion presents:

7th Annual OXFAM Hunger Banquet

Thursday, November 9, 2017
6:00 pm, Lower Level, Z-6

Master of ceremony: Rev. Sam Dawkins,
Director, UWG Wesley Foundation

Nearly 870 million people suffer from chronic hunger. A child dies from malnutrition or a preventable disease every nine seconds. That's 9,500 children a day. Worldwide, 2.5 billion people lack access to basic sanitation. Diseases from unsafe water and poor sanitation kill more people every year than all forms of violence, including war. (Oxfam American 2014).

According to some estimates, women represent 70 percent of the world's poor. Oxfam helps women and girls overcome gender discrimination, realize their potential, and assume leadership roles in their communities.
