IX. Comments:

A. Disruptive behavior will be handled as stated in the Student Conduct Code 3.00 (Appendix A in the Student Handbook). Examples of disruptive behavior are listed in the Handbook. Behavior that is of particular concern recently is the use of cell phones, pagers, and electronic games:

   o No pagers, cell phones, musical calculators, or games may be used during class. If you forget to turn off your cell phone and it rings (or vibrates), please turn it off immediately. DO NOT check to see who is calling (or texting) before you turn off your phone.

   o DO NOT leave class to answer a phone call. If you are expecting an important call, make arrangements to receive it outside of class.

   o DO NOT play games, text, Twitter, or access Facebook/My Space during class.

   o The world existed for 2,000 years without cell phones – you can do without yours for one class period!

B. I do not take attendance. However, it is in your best interest to come to class each day. We move VERY quickly. If you cannot make this class your #1 priority, you should drop and take it later in the summer or next fall.

C. Academic dishonesty will result in dismissal from the class with the grade of “F”. I will help you in any way possible to succeed in this class. Please take
The advantage of my office hours. Also, I hope you will let me know if I can do anything else to help you (short of giving you the test answers!)

IF YOU REMEMBER NOTHING ELSE ON THIS SYLLABUS, REMEMBER THE FOLLOWING!

- I do not give grades, you earn them.
- Paying tuition entitles you to a seat in this class and the opportunity to learn, including whatever help I can provide to facilitate the learning process.
- Paying tuition does not entitle you to “special treatment” or a passing grade!
- You are responsible for your actions and any adverse consequences that may follow.
- Your final grade is YOUR responsibility!

X. Other Miscellaneous, But Important Information:

American Disabilities Act
It is the policy of UWG to accommodate students with disabilities, pursuant to federal, state law and UWG’s commitment to equal educational opportunities. Please contact Disability Services for more information (272 Parker Hall; (678) 839-6428).
Academic Integrity
The following is an excerpt from the UWG Student Handbook:

Honor Code
At the University of West Georgia we believe that academic and personal integrity are based upon honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility. Students at West Georgia assume responsibility for upholding the honor code. West Georgia students pledge to refrain from engaging in acts that do not maintain academic and personal integrity. These include, but are not limited to, plagiarism*, cheating*, fabrication*, aid of academic dishonesty, lying, bribery or threats, and stealing.

Definitions
Cheating: “using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information or study aids”
Fabrication: “falsification or unauthorized invention of any information or citation”
Plagiarism: “representing the words or ideas of another as one’s own. Direct quotations must be indicated and ideas of another must be appropriately acknowledged”

I take the Honor Code very seriously. Anyone caught violating the Honor Code will be subjected to the harshest punishment allowed by University guidelines.

my.westga.edu
The policy of the University of West Georgia is that each student is responsible for checking his/her my.westga.edu e-mail account on a regular basis. Any announcements related to this class will be sent to your my.westga.edu account.

Extra Credit
There is no extra credit in this course beyond that explicitly stated in the course syllabus.

Work from other Courses
Work submitted for credit in other courses will not be accepted for credit in this course.
