PREREQUISITES: There are no course prerequisites for this course, only a 2.0 GPA.
METHOD OF INSTRUCTION:

Delivery of information and concepts will be primarily by way of lecture and CourseDen, with supplemental class discussions. The subject matter will be drawn primarily from the text, outside sources (including online resources), and current legal issues in the news. Classroom time may also be scheduled for consideration of particular court opinions, documents, guest lectures, projects, group activities, individual presentations, exercises, and special events.

COMMUNICATION:

Communication between student and professor will be primarily through CourseDen. Distribution of course materials, the syllabus, important announcements, grades, etc., will be through CourseDen. The professor prefers e-mail communication, particularly if time-sensitive, to be through CourseDen’s mail tool. Students are required to check CourseDen daily during the week and to keep their MyUWG e-mail inbox free of clutter to avoid auto-reject messages. The professor strongly encourages students to enable real-time notifications in CourseDen.

Extra credit, if available at all, will be discretionary on the part of the Professor, and opportunities will be to the class as a whole and not to individual students upon request. Work completed for another course or for an outside business will not be accepted to meet the requirements of this course.

Examinations: 300 points

Three periodic examinations and a final exam will be given, as indicated in the schedule below. The lowest exam grade will be dropped. The final exam cannot be made up (if missed, it will count as the dropped grade). Alternative exam times for the first three exams may be scheduled in cases where a student will be absent during a regularly scheduled exam, when all of the following criteria are met:
1. The absence is a University-authorized or Professor-authorized absence,
2. Arrangements are made in advance of the absence, and
3. The student provides genuine documentation to the Professor from the appropriate University employee or official, physician, or other relevant individual that includes the date, time, and purpose of the absence. The professor will authorize absences only in cases where the student’s attendance is made impossible by circumstances beyond the student’s control.

Written Assignment: 100 points

The standards for the Written Assignment’s preparation will be announced in class and are posted in CourseDen prior to the start of the semester. You may begin at any time. The assignment is due by the end of day on the date noted in the course schedule, below, and will not be accepted late. You must submit your written assignment as a single file attachment through the assignment drop box in CourseDen. In the event of technical difficulties with CourseDen, the writing assignment may be submitted by e-mail in advance of the deadline in CourseDen and must contain your name and the words “Written Assignment” in the subject line of the e-mail. For example, the subject line for the written assignment submitted by a student named Jane Doe would read “Jane Doe- Written Assignment.” E-mailed written assignments that do not comply with these requirements will not be accepted.

Attendance: up to 1 extra point on the final course grade. Roll will be taken at the beginning of each class session. Students arriving late for class are marked absent unless prior notice has been given. “Late” is defined as any time after the scheduled start time for class. Students who leave during class are not allowed to return during the same class. Students are expected to be prepared for class and actively participate. Participation includes both quantity and quality components. Students may be called upon to discuss case law, recount knowledge of the subject matter, analyze a situation, or effectively present a point of view. Students who are obviously unprepared for class or are caught using electronic devices during class will be counted absent for the class session.

Students with one or fewer excused absences will receive an additional 4 points out of 400 available in the course on their final course grade. This amounts to 1 point on the final average. Students with any unexcused absences or more than one excused absence are not eligible for attendance points. Any student missing more than 3 class sessions may be dropped from the course.

ACADEMIC HONESTY:

Receiving or giving help on exams or papers or using unauthorized sources on the writing assignment will result in failure of this course and may result in dismissal from the University. For the purposes of this class, the following statements in the student handbook will be applied:

1. No student shall give or receive, or otherwise furnish or procure assistance not authorized in the preparation of an essay, report, examination, or other assignment in an academic course or in the fulfillment of program or degree requirements such as standardized examinations.

2. No student shall take, attempt to take, or otherwise obtain, gain access to, or alter in an unauthorized manner any material pertaining to the conduct of a class or to the completion of any program or degree requirement, including but not limited to tests, examinations, laboratory equipment, roll books, academic records, or electronically stored data.

3. Plagiarism is prohibited. Themes, essays, term papers, tests, and other similar requirements must be the work of the student submitting them. Direct quotations must be indicated and ideas of another must be appropriately acknowledged.

Failure to observe these standards will result in an “F” grade in the course and possible disenrollment from UWG. Use of electronic devices during an examination will be deemed a violation of provision 1, above, and will result in a grade of “F” for the course.

Throughout the semester, ethical, political, cultural, international, social, technological, environmental, and diversity issues will be interwoven with a discussion of the legal topics.

CLASSROOM BEHAVIOR AND PROFESSIONALISM:

Any student who engages in disruptive or disrespectful behavior during any meeting of this course is subject to disenrollment from this course with a grade of “F.” Disruptive and disrespectful behavior includes, but is not limited to, disrespectful or threatening words or actions toward classmates or the professor, moving about the classroom during the class session (including entering and exiting the classroom), sleeping in class, using electronic devices in class, and the like. Students will treat each other and the Professor with the utmost respect and professionalism at all times. The professor is available after class and during office hours to hear any concerns you may have concerning the class.
