Note: Dates may change at the instructor’s discretion. All changes will be posted in the News/Announcements section of CourseDen.
or early departures must be requested by the student at least 12 hours prior to class start time. Approval is up to the discretion of the instructor but should fall in line with guidelines of unexpected and/or unavoidable events. Supporting documentation should be provided by the student when requesting approval or upon return to class. Justification for upholding these standards can be found in the UWG Student Code of Conduct, Section 3.0.

Late Work:

1. It is the student’s responsibility to ensure that all requirements are completed in a timely manner. Students are expected to turn in all work by the deadline given. However, to allow for illnesses and emergencies, partial credit will be given for late assignments. Each day late will result in a heavier point deduction. Assignments submitted any time after the 11:59 p.m. deadline will result in the deduction noted. There is no exception to this rule. After 3 days, a grade of zero will be recorded for that assignment.
2. Exams, quizzes, tests, and the final project and presentation will not be accepted late, therefore failure to complete these assignments will result in a zero. Below is a list of point deductions per assignment per day late:

UWG offers several computer labs on campus for students to use free of charge. You can find more information at Information Technology Services. CourseDen and any other distance education supplemental software that a specific instructor may wish to use is provided freely to all students at the UWG SITS center on front campus drive. All work completed in this course must be original work developed this semester. Students are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic honesty. Plagiarism occurs when a student uses or purchases ghostwritten papers. It also occurs when a student utilizes ideas or information obtained from another person without giving credit to that person. If plagiarism or another act of academic dishonesty occurs, it will be dealt with in accordance with the academic misconduct policy as stated in the latest Student Handbook and the Graduate Catalog.

Students in this class are considered professionals-in-training and, as such, are expected to conduct themselves professionally. Professionalism includes behavior related to, but is not limited to, attendance, class participation, appearance, communication, ethics, responsiveness and reaction, participation and professional development. The professional dispositions rubric is posted in Course Den.

Each student is expected to abide by the following dispositions:

- Cell phones on silent and put away- Using cell phone during class may result in an absence and dismiss from the class.

Cell phones and electronic equipment

The use of cell phones and computers, including texting and internet, is not permitted in this class, unless being used for a specific assignment. If you expect an emergency phone call, you may place your phone on silent or vibrate and answer it outside the classroom. Any non-class-related use of electronic devices (including doing homework for another class) is considered unprofessional and is not accepted in this class. If you are found using any electronic device for non-class-related purpose, you will be asked to leave the class and your attendance will be reported as an absence.

UWG Student Code of Conduct 2017-2018

Examples of disruption include, but are not limited to, the following: allowing personal electronic communication devices to ring, beep, or vibrate, making or receiving phone calls or pages, or engaging in conduct that causes or provokes a disturbance that disrupts academic pursuits, or infringes upon the rights of others. (In relation to this section, instructors may also include in their syllabus specific behaviors they consider to be inappropriate for a particular course.)

Network Etiquette:
