Stand up, Speak out: The Practice and Ethics of Public Speaking.

Speeches: It is preferable that speeches be uploaded to YouTube. You may also attach the video file if you prefer. The link needs to be posted to the appropriate discussion forum AND submitted to the appropriate dropbox.

Introductory Speech: 10 pts. Students will record a brief speech (1-2 minutes) introducing themselves. In the speech students should state their name, discuss their background, job, interests, goals, hobbies, and pet peeves.

Demonstration/How-to Speech:

75 pts. 5-7 minute speech in which the student will describe how to accomplish a particular task or attain a particular goal. Topics must be appropriate for a college level audience. Outside sources, if used, must be verbally cited. Proper outlining techniques will be utilized.

Informative Speech:

75 pts. 5-7 minute speech in which the student will describe will describe a concept, process, object or event that would be of interest to the audience. The information should be relatively new to the audience. Your task is to inform, not to persuade. A minimum of three credible sources must be used and cited in the speech. Proper outlining techniques will be utilized.

Extemporaneous:

75 points. 4-6 minute speech answering a question of the instructor's choosing. The speech must incorporate a minimum of three credible sources that are cited in the speech. The question will address current issues and require the student to explain and advocate for their position. The student will have

24 hours to prepare, deliver, and upload the speech. This is not a self-paced assignment.

Persuasion:

125 points. 6-8 minute speech, delivered with minimal notes. Students will choose a topic/issue in which they have a strong personal interest. In this speech the student will advocate a position and/or ask the audience to take an action. Parts of the speech will be submitted throughout the class using the appropriate dropbox. These parts include a topic paragraph, annotated bibliography, outline, introduction, and audience analysis worksheet. Each part is worth 10 points and will be included in the overall speech grade. Students must turn in each part on the date scheduled to ensure consideration for points. Students must decide on their topics by the end of the second week. The topic of the speech cannot be changed after the September 9. No credit will be given for speeches on topics significantly different than the one originally chosen.

Speech Evaluation:

Students will write one 750-1000 word paper evaluating a speech that they attended live outside of class. Examples of such speeches would be sermons, presentations made at city government meetings, or community talks. The student will briefly summarize the content and purpose of each speech. A majority of the paper will be devoted to assessing the strengths and weaknesses of the speeches by focusing on such things as content, delivery, style, and situational factors. This paper is due one week after viewing the speech and must be submitted by November 3. Late papers will not be accepted. (50 points)

Quizzes:

There will be a quiz at the conclusion of each module with the exception of the Orientation to Public Speaking. These will be short-answer, application based questions. The material for the questions will be drawn from the reading assignments and on information posted in the module. Quizzes will not be self-paced. (25 pts.)

Discussions:

Discussion posts will be used to write and critique speech introductions (note: This is a different assignment than the Introductory Speech) and to comment on the submitted speeches/introduction.

- Speech Introductions: After learning about the parts of an introduction to a speech, the student will write and submit an example of an introduction on an assigned topic. (10 pts.)
- Students will comment on the speech introduction as well as other classmates speeches. They will comment on the introduction or speech submitted immediately after their submission. The last person to submit will comment on the first submission. Comments must address two positive qualities of the submission and two suggestions for improvement. (10 pts.)

Grading Policy:

Final grades will be based on a total of 570 points. The grades will be computed on a percentage basis such that 90-100% = A, 80-89.9= B, etc.

Class Rules:

- All papers must be handed in, tests taken, and speeches given on or by the date they are scheduled. If a conflict arises the instructor must be notified at least on day prior to the due date. No credit will be given for work missed without prior approval.
- Any student found guilty of plagiarism or cheating will fail the course. NO EXCEPTIONS! Plagiarism is defined as "The appropriation or imitation of the language, ideas, and thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one's original work." (Webster's Encyclopedic Unabridged Dictionary of the English Language; 1996; New York: Gramercy Books p. 1100). Other forms of plagiarism would include paraphrasing large portions of a work from another author or passing someone else's speech or paper off as your own.

- Extra credit will be offered on rare occasions. When it is offered it will be made available to everyone in the class. The points earned from extra credit will count towards the student's overall point total.
- Speeches must be delivered standing up to a live audience of at least two people. The speaker must be talking to the audience, not the camera. Speeches that fail to meet one, two or all of these criteria (standing, audience, eye contact with audience) will receive an automatic 25% deduction in their grade.
- Students must dress appropriately for their speeches, and not in a manner that distracts from their overall perception of credibility.
- The official method for contacting the instructor is through Course Den email.
- The instructor reserves the right to make subjective judgments. This right will be used if a student speaks or acts in a manner that denigrates a person or class of people based on race, gender, religious beliefs, etc.
- The instructor will abide by all student privacy laws. Further, the instructor will not release academic information or have discussions of a student's academic progress or attendance issues with a parent or guardian. College students are adults and are expected to behave accordingly.
- Research, papers, assignments, etc from another course may be used in this course.
