Academic Honesty

While the Common Language Course Syllabi details the UWG Honor Code, I want to make it clear that plagiarism and academic dishonesty are absolutely not tolerated in this classroom. It is so much easier, and better for you, to do your own work. Don't jeopardize your academic or professional career with dishonest behaviors. You are important; you have important things to say, so say them yourself using your voice (and your own photographs).

Adaptability and Flexibility

As in real life, our assignments and schedule are subject to some modification according to course needs. Adaptability is a critical professional skill, especially in this field. Know now that the world of the photojournalist changes constantly in response to events and opportunities, and this class, as fairly and gracefully as possible, will also.

Classroom Etiquette

Exercising personal freedom is an appealing part of college life. In order to create an atmosphere where individual expression and social interchange are both respected, please observe the following: (1) address each other with respect; (2) contribute to discussions, don't dominate them; (3) stay focused on the topic being discussed.

Equipment Checkout

We will follow the checkout guidelines and policies posted outside G-10, which will also be provided in a separate handout. Late returns of equipment impact everyone, and will affect your ability to checkout equipment for this and other Mass Communications classes. Assignments are not complete until borrowed equipment is returned, and thus impact your grade.

Extra Credit

This is fully at my discretion. I may offer opportunities for campus events, as well as other assignments. Students should remain focused on completing their coursework and not dependent on extra credit.

Food and Drink

We will be dealing with expensive photographic and computer equipment. Spills are bad; so is keyboard grunge. No food or drink in the classroom, edit suites or studios in this class.

Late Work

I do not accept late work. If you anticipate missing a deadline, submit the assignment to me before it is due (uploaded/posted to Course Den). Any assignment turned in after its deadline will receive a zero. Extenuating circumstances should be documented with the University's student/health advocate. For more information, visit Medical and Academic Advocacy \(https://www.westga.edu/student-services/health/medical-academic-advocacy.php\). The advocate is there to help you across courses, not just this course.

Honor Code

At the University of West Georgia, we believe that academic and personal integrity are based upon honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. Students at West Georgia assume responsibility for upholding the honor code. West Georgia students pledge to refrain from engaging in acts that do not maintain academic and personal integrity. These include, but are not limited to, plagiarism, cheating, fabrication, aid of academic dishonesty, lying, bribery or threats, and stealing.

The University of West Georgia maintains and monitors a confidential Academic Dishonesty Tracking System. This database collects and reports patterns of repeated student violations across all the Colleges, the Ingram Library, and the School of Nursing. Each incidence of academic dishonesty is subject to review and consideration by the instructor, and is subject to a range of academic penalties including, but not limited to, failing the assignment and/or failing the course. Student conduct sanctions range from verbal warning to suspension or expulsion depending on the magnitude of the offense and/or number of offenses. The incident becomes part of the student's conduct record at UWG.

Additionally, the student is responsible for safeguarding his/her computer account. The student's account and network connection are for his/her individual use. A computer account is to be used only by the person to whom it has been issued. The student is responsible for all actions originating through his/her account or network connection. Students must not impersonate others or misrepresent or conceal their identities in electronic messages and actions. For more information on the University of West Georgia Honor Code, please see the Student Handbook \(https://www.westga.edu/administration/vpsa/handbook-code-of-conduct.php\).

UWG Email Policy

University of West Georgia students are provided a MyUWG e-mail account. The University considers this account to be an official means of communication between the University and the student. The purpose of the official use of the student e-mail account is to provide an effective means of communicating important university related information to UWG students in a timely manner. It is the student's responsibility to check his or her email.

Credit Hour Policy

The University of West Georgia grants one semester hour of credit for work equivalent to a minimum of one hour (50 minutes) of in-class or other direct faculty instruction AND two hours of student work outside of class per week for approximately fifteen weeks. For each course, the course syllabus will document the amount of in-class (or other direct faculty instruction) and out-of-class work required to earn the credit hour(s) assigned to the course. Out-of-class work will include all forms of credit-bearing activity, including but not limited to assignments, readings, observations, and musical practice. Where available, the university grants academic credit for students who verify via competency-based testing, that they have accomplished the learning outcomes associated with a course that would normally meet the requirements outlined above (e.g. AP credit, CLEP, and departmental exams).

COVID-19

Proctored Exams/Online Instruction: Students should be aware and plan ahead for the possibility of having to complete all courses and/or exams online or in a proctored environment. This means talking with your instructors about what minimum technical requirements (software and hardware) will be required should your class move online or a student's personal needs dictate. This also includes making plans for internet access at whatever location participation may occur.

Virtual or in-person proctored exams, if your instructor should require them, may result in an additional cost to the student. Please discuss these details with your instructor or see the information provided here.

Face Coverings: Effective July 15, 2020, University System of Georgia institutions, including the University of West Georgia, will require all faculty, staff, students, and visitors to wear an appropriate face covering while inside campus facilities/buildings where six feet social distancing may not always be possible. Face covering use will be in addition to and is not a substitute for social distancing.

Face coverings are not required in campus outdoor settings where social distancing requirements are met. Anyone not using a face covering when required will be asked to wear one or must leave the area.

Reasonable accommodations may be made for those who are unable to wear a face covering for documented health reasons.
