Course Information
Course Description
This composition course focuses on skills required for effective writing in a variety of contexts, with emphasis on exposition, analysis, and argumentation, and also includes introductory use of a variety of research skills.

Section Description
This section takes as its theme the ethics of psychology and behavioral research. Our class will perform a critical exploration of human behavior in various experimental contexts.

In addition to the primary texts listed below, we will read and discuss brief essays/articles (available as hyperlinks on my website), as well as other texts/media suggested by either myself or students during class discussions.

Texts, Readings, Instructional Resources, and References
Required Text(s)
1) The Stanford Prison Experiment, available on Netflix
2) Manhunt: Unambomer, episodes three and six, available on Netflix
3) The Milgram Experiment, a study (made available on my website)
4) A selection of podcasts and TED talks, TBA

Additional Supplies:
ENGL 1102-11, 16: English Composition II/Science-Focused Sections

- A flash drive for saving essays;
- reliable access to a printer, internet, and email;
- access to Netflix

Additional Text(s)  See links available on my website.

Course Objectives and Learning Outcomes
As a result of close readings and of critical engagement with various texts, students will be able

- To identify and employ a variety of rhetorical modes and techniques of persuasion and acquire reasonable mastery of conventions of college-level prose writing.
- To develop and apply critical thinking skills in effective expository, analytical, and argumentative writing, and to gain facility with the entire writing process from invention through revision.
- To develop organizational strategies, and to incorporate and document additional textual materials to strengthen and support argument.

Online Postings

You will be expected to submit portions of your out-of-class essays on CourseDen before final drafts of those essays are due. These submissions will be used in writing workshops the following class day.

Regular Attendance: After four missed classes, absences will count against your participation score and impact your overall grade. Each absence beyond four will lower your final score by one letter grade.

Daily engagement with classroom activities: Your attention and investment in the classroom directly impacts your performance on essays and other assignments. Aside from missing out on the opportunity to maximize your course performance as a writer, distractions such as cell phones, browsing on personal computers, working on assignments for other classes, sleeping in class, or simply not participating will have more concrete consequences: I will mark you down as non-attending, and you will enjoy the penalties listed above in the Regular Attendance section.

Essay One

Essay Revision Policy

You will have the option to revise Essay One and Two. This revision must include: 1.) a hardcopy of your revised essay, 2.) a stapled copy of the original graded draft, and 3.) a metacognitive reflection paragraph that thoughtfully discusses your plan for improving your essay (details for the revision reflection and submission guidelines can be found on my website). See course calendar for revision due dates. No late submissions allowed for revisions.

Please see the Common Language for Course Syllabi for official information on UWG’s Academic Integrity Policy. Note that I will enforce this policy.
Late Work Policy

- Essays: All final drafts must be submitted in hard copy and in essay drop boxes in Course Den by the beginning of class on the due dates. Any essays submitted after the due date will receive a 5-point deduction (half a letter grade) each day they are late. Essays over 10 days late will NOT be accepted. Students with valid emergencies (hospitalization, family death, etc.) should speak with me by the due date (preferably before the due date, if possible) if an extension needs to be discussed.

- Class Participation: If you miss an in-class assignment because you are tardy or absent—as with the attendance policy, no distinctions will be made between excused and unexcused absences—you will NOT be allowed to make up the assignment you missed. However, I will drop ONE low or missed class participation grade at the end of the semester. You can also earn an additional extra credit that will replace ONE low or missed daily grade with a “100.” To earn this extra credit, you must do the following:
  - Attend an on-campus or off-campus academic event (for example, a guest lecturer or filmmaker, a COAH event, a play, etc.) from any discipline and write a 1-2 paragraph, typed response to the event. This response should:
    1. Clearly identify the event you attended and the date and time of the event.
    2. Include a thoughtful response that addresses some or all of the following questions: How does the event connect to themes/ideas discussed in class? What was your reaction to the event? What was discussed at the event you attended? What did you learn? If it was a film or theatrical performance, what themes were addressed? What do you make of the character performances, staging, etc.?
    3. Extra credit will not be accepted after the last day of regular classes.

NOTE: No additional opportunities will be given to make up missed class work.

Attendance Policy

Your regular participation in this class is a vital part of your success. Each student is allotted up to four absences—no more.

Upon the student’s fifth absence, his/her average will automatically decrease by one letter grade and, upon the sixth, by two letter grades.

If your absences put you at risk of failing the class, you will have two options: 1) withdraw from the class, which will generate a W if done on or before Wednesday, February 27—or a WF if after that deadline or 2) remain on the roll (still attending classes, if so desired) and receive your earned score minus penalties for the course/semester. If you suspect that outside responsibilities might cause you to miss more than four classes, you should consider taking the course at another time. Note again: There is no distinction between excused and unexcused absences. Again: Wednesday, February 27 is the last day to withdraw from class with a W (without incurring a WF).
Communication Rules

Communication Rules:
I prefer that you contact me via westga email, as I rarely check CourseDen email. I will do my best to respond to all emails within 24 hours during the week and generally within 48 hours over the weekends. If you don’t hear back from me within that timeframe, please write to me again.

Expected Response Times
Out-of-class assignments will generally be graded within two weeks of the due date and will contain feedback on what you did well and what you can do to improve. When I offer revision opportunities, expect response times to be a bit longer, as I place priority on original assignments when allocating my grading time.

Note: All times are EST. Dates may change at the instructor’s discretion: all changes will be posted in the News/Announcements section of CourseDen.

Late work policy:
There are no extensions without penalty for out-of-class assignments. We are working on a tight timeline and must stick to the schedule. Assignments are accepted up to ten days late, with penalties as described in the Late Work Policy above. Read the policy carefully, because misunderstanding could cause you to fail this class. The final assignment and final project must be completed by the due date, no exceptions.
Expectations of Students

Course Structure:
I expect you to:
· Display a working knowledge of the syllabus
· Attend all classes, arriving on time with relevant materials in hand
· Participate fully and respectfully in class discussions
· Remain attentive and engaged throughout the class period
· Respond graciously to constructive criticism
· Improve your writing during each step of the process
· Avoid repeating mistakes addressed in feedback
· Submit quality work, complete and on time
· Communicate promptly with me about any questions or concerns

Ultimately, your success depends on how much time, energy, and effort you are willing to put into the class. I am only in control over one-hundred percent of my own effort, but I promise you will always receive my full effort. I hope and expect to have the same from you.

Course and UWG Policies

Attendance Policy:
In order to distribute Title IV funding (federal student aid), student attendance verification is required. For this class, students are required to be present in class during week one, in order to be considered as attending class. Students who do not attend in the first three days may be dropped from the class for nonattendance.

Americans with Disabilities Act Statement:
If you are a student who is disabled as defined under the Americans with Disabilities Act and require assistance or support services, please seek assistance through the Center for Disability. UWG also provides Accessibility Statements for Technology that you may be required to use for this course.

For more information on the Americans with Disabilities Act, UWG Email, Credit Hour, and UWG Honor Code policies as well as information on Academic Tutoring, Student Services, and Technical Requirements, Privacy Policy, and Accessibility Statements, please see the Common Language for Syllabus document.

HB 280 (Campus Carry):
UWG follows University System of Georgia (USG) guidance:

may also visit our website for help with USG Guidance:  https://www.westga.edu/police/campus-carry.php
Honor Code
At the University of West Georgia, we believe that academic and personal integrity are based upon honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. Students at West Georgia assume responsibility for upholding the honor code. West Georgia students pledge to refrain from engaging in acts that do not maintain academic and personal integrity. These include, but are not limited to, plagiarism, cheating, fabrication, academic dishonesty, lying, bribery or threats, and stealing.

The University of West Georgia maintains and monitors a confidential Academic Dishonesty Tracking System. This database collects and reports patterns of repeated student violations across all the Colleges, the Ingram Library, and the School of Nursing. Each incidence of academic dishonesty is subject to review and consideration by the instructor, and is subject to a range of academic penalties including, but not limited to, failing the assignment and/or failing the course. Student conduct sanctions range from verbal warning to suspension or expulsion depending on the magnitude of the offense and/or number of offenses. The incident becomes part of the student’s conduct record at UWG.

Additionally, the student is responsible for safeguarding his/her computer account. The student’s account and network connection are for his/her individual use. A computer account is to be used only by the person to whom it has been issued. The student is responsible for all actions originating through his/her account or network connection. Students must not impersonate others or misrepresent or conceal their identities in electronic messages and actions. For more information on the University of West Georgia Honor Code, please see the Student Handbook.

Additional Support Information

Center for Academic Success
The new Center for Academic Success (CAS) provides services, programs, and opportunities to help all undergraduate students succeed academically. The CAS offers free appointment-based peer tutoring in core courses, as well as supplemental instruction (SI)—which is peer-facilitated collaborative learning—in a variety of disciplines. Students seeking help with study skills and strategies can attend workshops though the Academic Success Workshop series, or work individually with either a staff or peer Academic Coach. Beginning Fall 2014, the CAS will also offer “Back on Track,” a voluntary academic recovery program designed for students who want to improve their grades and academic standing. The Center for Academic Success is located in UCC 200, and can be reached at 678-839-6280. Our email address is cas@westga.edu.

Smarthinking
Smarthinking offers online tutoring services and resources (including the Writing Center) for UWG students/instructors in all courses. A link to Smarthinking is available in CourseDen under Resources in the navigation bar.

Student Services
Here is a great resource of Student Services for all students at UWG, whether or not they are taking online courses. This link provides students with most of the information they need. If a student is experiencing distress and needs some help, check out UWG Cares.
