IV. Texts:

V. Special or Unique Student Materials:
A calculator is recommended.

VI. Special or Unique University Facilities:
Access to a computer with Internet, spreadsheet, and word-processing programs as provided by the Richards College of Business Computer Lab.

VII. Expanded Description of the Course and Instructional Methods:
A. The course provides a conceptual framework of international financial management at the introductory level by concentrating on issues relevant to the management of multinational firms.

B. Instructional Methods
1. Lecture and problem solving: A discussion of topics in the general areas of foreign exchange markets, currency futures and option markets, balance of payments, exchange rate determination parity conditions, foreign exchange risk and hedging, international financing, and international investment are discussed in online lectures presented by the instructor. Students are expected to solve problems and complete quizzes that relate to lectures.
2. Project: Students complete a project examining the relationship of the U.S. Dollar and foreign currencies. The project serves as a means of applying concepts learned in the course and in other courses such as statistics and accounting.

VIII. Methods of Evaluating the Outcomes:
A. Evaluation tools:
   - Exam 1: 20%
   - Exam 2: 20%
   - Quizzes (10 highest): 15%
   - Project: 10%
   - Final Exam: 35% (I reserve the right to curve grades.)

*Each online quiz may be taken up to four times. The highest score is retained for grading purposes. The quizzes change each time they are opened. Quiz questions are randomly selected from the associated database.
Corresponding sample exams exist for all exams. Sample exams are provided as study aides. Sample exam scores can help increase your exam score (but they cannot lower your scores). If your highest sample exam score is lower than your actual exam score, you keep your actual exam score. If your highest score on the sample exam is greater than your actual exam score, your exam score will be calculated as:
Exam Score = (1/4)(Sample Exam Score) + (3/4)(Actual Exam Score).

Work submitted for credit in other courses will not be accepted for credit in this course. There is no extra credit in this course beyond that explicitly stated in the course syllabus or announced by the instructor. I reserve the right to “curve” grades.

B. Administrative Policies
   a. Information regarding course grades will not be given over the telephone. Grades will be posted in CourseDen.
   b. Requests for quiz and exam score adjustments must be made in writing (email is fine) within ONE WEEK of grade assignment.
   c. Attendance Policy:
      i. Class Meetings: There is no face-to-face attendance requirement. There is an optional orientation meeting on the first day of class. Most Mondays and Wednesdays individual assistance sessions are available. Online lectures are available on the course website (or CourseDen). Audio-enhanced problem solutions are available on the course webpage (or CourseDen) for sample problems.
      ii. Scheduled Exams: If you do not attempt all assignments within the allotted time for the course, you will receive a grade of zero on the missing assignments. Your lowest quiz grade will be dropped before the quiz total is calculated. Since quizzes are available for an extended period of time, there are no makeup quizzes. If the reason for missing an exam is deemed acceptable by the instructor, a makeup exam will be scheduled. If you cannot complete the requirements of the course as expected, contact me immediately.
      iii. General: You are responsible for knowledge of any administrative announcements (test information, schedule changes, etc.) that are posted in CourseDen or sent to your official UWG email address.
   d. Code of Conduct: Honesty and integrity are necessary to the academic and professional functions of business. Dishonesty undermines the foundation of the academic environment. Improper academic conduct shall be interpreted to mean the obtaining and using of information during an examination by means other than those permitted by the instructor, including supplying such information to other students. All forms of academic dishonesty, including cheating, plagiarism, and falsification of academic records are subject to disciplinary action.

NOTE 1: This course covers the following AACSB perspectives: Influence of legal and regulatory issues; ethical issues; oral communication; international issues; social issues.
NOTE 2: This course covers the following teaching objectives: develops communication skills; develops ability to do research; develops problem solving (analytical) skills; develops critical thinking; encourages social responsibility; provides depth in major.
TENTATIVE SCHEDULE: This schedule provides a basis for completing the course in the allotted time. The most important dates are the closing dates for quizzes and the scheduled exam dates. If you wish to attempt an exam before the scheduled date, contact the instructor.

NOTES:
- This class is primarily online. Most Mondays and Wednesdays are individual assistance sessions. Fridays are always scheduled as online assignment days, so there are no required face-to-face meetings.
- All quizzes open when the class begins. They close at 11:59 pm on the dates shown below.
- Do not attempt quizzes during the period from 10:00 pm on Fridays until 7:00 am on Saturdays due to CourseDen maintenance during this period.
