This class will survey the history of the world from the Reformation and voyages of discovery to the present day. The course will use a comparative approach, exploring similarities and differences between regions, taking special note of interactions and exchanges between cultures as well as the lives of everyday people. Particular attention will be paid to cultural and ideological interchanges among the world’s civilizations and the evolution of the global community. Students will gain an understanding of the social forces and trends in social, religious, political, and philosophic thought that laid the foundations of the modern world and demonstrate the ability to understand the political, social, economic, or cultural dimensions of world history. Students will demonstrate the ability to understand the political, social, economic, or cultural dimensions of world history. The lectures will incorporate a number of multimedia elements, including slides, film, and music.

Preparation is an integral part of class. Read the complete assignment before arriving and be prepared to discuss it in class.

Please note that tape recording of lectures is not permitted.

Please note that I do not allow student to use laptops for note taking in this class.

Grade: Your grade in this course will be assessed as follows:

Three examinations: 60%
3-5 Page essay on an assigned topic: 30%
