Course Description and Learning Outcomes
History is not just a study of names and dates. While there are names and dates that are important to remember, it is important to connect them to broader events and issues. It is also important to note how change occurs over time. This course covers world history from 1500 to the present. We will study people, places, and events in social, cultural, political, and economic terms.

In this course, "Students will demonstrate the ability to think historically through understanding of the political, social, economic, and cultural dimensions of world history; comprehension of causal relationships and patterns of change and continuity over time; or awareness of the social significance of ethnicity, gender, race, and class in historical events and study."

Internet Resources
In this course, you will utilize Web resources. These include but are not limited to websites and PDF files, which you will see as links in the syllabus. You will also be required to do assignments and readings on CourseDen. You must have access to a computer and reliable internet service in order to turn in assignments, take quizzes, and access necessary documents.

Documents located on CourseDen that you must read the first week of class. There will be a quiz over these documents!
1. Syllabus
2. Guidelines for the Final Project Assignment
3. Journal Entry Instructions
4. Quick Writing Guide
5. How to Avoid Inadvertent Plagiarism
6. What’s Wrong with Plagiarism?
7. How to Read Primary Sources: A Handy, Quick Guide
Assignments and Grading

Documents Quiz
There is a quiz over the above documents. There are 50 questions worth 2 points each. Read the documents prior to taking the quiz, and print them out or have them open in separate windows so you have access to them during the quiz. I don’t expect you to memorize all of these documents. What I need to know is that you have read the documents and that you know how to access the information in them in order to complete your assignments properly and be successful in the class.

Reading Response Journal
You have readings almost every day of the semester. You will pick ten of them to write a response about. See specific instructions on CourseDen.

Class Participation
Class participation grades will include multiple factors. First is attendance. If you do not show up, you cannot participate, and this will negatively impact your grade. Second is participating in class discussion. Your comments/actions need to be relevant to the discussion and reflect the fact that you have done the readings. Third, we will also do class activities (debates, reenactments, etc.). You are expected to participate in these activities unless a previously documented issue prevents you from doing so. Fourth are online activities, including but not limited to response papers, journal entries, and discussion boards.

Final Project Assessment
Please see CourseDen for explicit instructions for this assignment. There will be multiple aspects to this assignment over the course of the semester that make up the final grade for the project.

Exams
There will be four exams. Each exam will cover all readings (including online), lectures, and discussions leading up to the exam. One week before each exam, I will post a study guide on CourseDen that will give you more information about the material covered on the tests. Make-up exams will only be given for documented (doctor’s note, court papers, funeral notice, etc.), excused absences. Make-up exams will not be the same exam that the other students took. Exams are on CourseDen. Do not show up to the classroom on these days.

Overview of Grade
Students’ final grades will be determined as follows:
Documents Quiz 5%
Exam 1 10%
Exam 2 10%
Exam 3 10%
Exam 4 10%
Final Project 25%
Reading Response Journal 10%
Class participation 20% - (attendance, quizzes, daily discussion, in-class activities, and online activities)

Standards for Evaluation
A: 90-100%
B: 80-89%
C: 70-79%
D: 60-69%
F: 0-59%
Grades are based on student performance. Simply turning in all the assignments does not guarantee that the student will receive a "good grade." To receive a higher grade, a student must demonstrate proficiency in the material. The standards for the respective grades are as follows:

A: “A” students go above and beyond the minimum standards for class. They are well prepared, communicate effectively, analyze and explain complex ideas, complete all work on time, and participate regularly. To achieve this grade the student must display superior performance in his/her course work.

B: A “B” student does above average work and exceeds the minimum requirements of the class. They still demonstrate the ability to process and comprehend complex ideas, while being able to convey those ideas in a clear, intelligent manner. He/she will demonstrate above average communication skills and ability to contextualize material.

C: “C” students meet the minimum requirements for the course. They do not exceed expectations. They perform adequately in their course work. A "C" student demonstrates competence in terms of preparation and presentation of assigned work. He/she will demonstrate adequate communication skills and ability to contextualize materials.

D: A "D" student performs below average. These students do not meet the minimum standards of the class. They may not have prepared for class, not participated in all discussions, turned in late or incomplete assignments, and have trouble comprehending and discussing complex ideas.

F: Receiving an F is a result of not completing or turning in assignments, not participating in class, not attending class, and/or not comprehending/analyzing the material presented in class.

Academic Honesty

Any form of academic dishonesty (including but not limited to cheating and plagiarism) will result in a failing course grade as well as possible additional action. Definitions of academic dishonesty and plagiarism are defined in the student handbook, so please be familiar with them. The history department's policy on cheating/plagiarism can be found at:
https://www.westga.edu/academics/coah/history/plagiarism-statement.php

Rights and Responsibilities

Please carefully review the following information at this link:
https://www.westga.edu/administration/vpaa/assets/docs/faculty-resources/common_language_for_course_syllabi_v2.pdf

It contains important material pertaining to your rights and responsibilities in this class. Because these statements are updated as federal, state, university, and accreditation standards change, you should review the information each semester.

Attendance, Participation, and Late Policy

Attendance and participation are required. I will be taking attendance each class. Failure to attend class will result in a deduction of your participation grade. If you are not there, you cannot participate. If you miss class, get updates and notes from a classmate. Do not ask me if you missed something important. I will not give out my notes. Do not show up late for class unless previously cleared with the instructor. Coming in late distracts the instructor and the class. You are also expected to remain in class for the duration. If you must leave early, notify the instructor ahead of time, and sit near the door.

You will be expected to participate in ongoing discussions of the lesson topics and to interact with other students and your instructor regularly. It is expected that you will demonstrate a positive attitude and courtesy toward other participants in the discussion and observe good discussion etiquette. Disrespect will not be tolerated!

Late submissions will NOT be accepted without a valid reason (that I determine) and proper documentation. Illness without a doctor’s note is not an excused absence. For an absence to be excused, it must be documented (court papers, funeral notice, doctor’s note, etc.). You will receive 1 freebie day to be absent with no excuse needed; however, it cannot be on a test day, book review day, or presentation day, and cannot interfere with the submission of assignments.

Time Commitment
In addition to class time, you should be prepared to spend time studying and working with course materials several hours per week outside of class. It will be helpful to set aside regular study time when you can work uninterrupted. This time could be spent in composing messages to post online, writing papers, reading, studying, reflecting, and planning.

Technical Requirements and Assistance
Having a correctly configured computer will help ensure your success in a course that requires online use. Be sure that your computer meets all the necessary technical requirements for hardware and software. For technical assistance and basic online information, check out the UWG Online Learning website at UWG Online Student Help. You must have Microsoft Office for this class. You will be required to submit Word documents. You receive Office 365 through the school for free. If you do not know how to access this, please see the IT department.

Disabilities Act / Accessibility for the course
If you are a student whom is disabled as defined under the Americans with Disabilities Act and requires assistance or support services, please notify me and provide me with a copy of your packet from Student Services (I believe this will be done electronically this semester). The university will provide you with resources for any audio/visual needs that you may have with the learning management system or course content.

Please consult the following links for more details regarding accessibility for this course, including contact information for those with accessibility needs: UWG Accessibility Services.

Cell Phones and Laptops
Turn them off! If you do not want to pay attention, that is your choice. However, you will not distract other students or the instructor with your phone or laptop use. If you need your cell phone on for emergency purposes, please set the ring to vibrate only, and notify me ahead of time. If I hear a phone ring, you will be asked to leave the class, and do not text or check voicemail. Anyone texting in class will be asked to leave immediately. If you do it again, after already being caught once, you will be asked to leave the course and never come back. Laptops may ONLY be used to take notes!!! Anyone caught surfing the web will be unable to use the laptop for the rest of the semester. Exceptions will only be made for students with documented accommodations.

Tobacco, Food, and Drink
Tobacco products of any kind, as well as fake cigarettes and vapes (electronic or otherwise) are not allowed in this class. If you have a dip cup, an electronic cigarette, or any other tobacco products/paraphernalia, you will be asked to leave. Food and drink are fine, as long as it does not emit an odor that distracts the class. Also, clean up your mess after you leave. If you do not, food and drink privileges will be revoked. No drugs or alcohol are permitted in this classroom!
Miscellaneous
Review this syllabus throughout the semester. Do not ask me what the reading is, when an assignment is due, what the instructions are, etc., unless you have checked the syllabus and are unable to find the answer.
Put your name, the date, our course number (including section number), and my name on everything you turn in. Do not put your 917# on assignments or in emails.
All assignments must be typed, in Times New Roman 12-pt font, double-spaced, with one-inch margins, one-sided pages and page numbers, unless otherwise advised. Do not forget to staple. No folders, paper clips or cover pages. Always check for typos. PROOFREAD!!!!! The minimum page length means that you must do the full length of the page numbers stated!
All emails to me must be in proper form, meaning you must address me formally, sign with your class number and full name, and you should not use informal text-messaging grammar such as “ur” “omg” “im” etc. Send emails through CourseDen. Follow the example below.
