Den to send e-mails.)

Required books:
David Shi & George Tindall, America: A Narrative History, Brief 10th ed., Vol. 1

Course description and learning outcome:
This course will utilize lectures, reading assignments, and occasionally films to examine the social, political, and economic history of the United States prior to 1865. Topics will include colonial settlement, the American Revolution and the Constitution, antebellum expansion, slavery and the southern plantation economy, the forced resettlement of Native Americans, and sectional conflict and the Civil War. Students should be able to demonstrate the ability to understand the political, social, economic, and cultural dimensions of American history from this era.

Exams, assignments, and grading:
--There will be three multiple choice examinations in this course, including a non-comprehensive final exam. Each exam will consist of fifty questions, and each exam will constitute 20 percent of the course grade. Students must purchase a long-form (100 question) green and white Scantron sheet at the UWG bookstore or at the concession stand on the first floor of the TLC building and bring that form to class on the date of each exam along with a #2 pencil.
Makeup exams will only be given to students who provide documentation verifying a valid excuse (illness, car accident, court summons, death in the family). Makeup exams will be written rather than multiple choice.

--There will also be an open-book, written exam on The Cherokee Removal which will be administered in class on Thursday, November 21. This exam will count for 30 percent of the course grade.

--There will also be a short, written quiz on Thursday, September 5, to assess students’ level of engagement with and understanding of course material covered during the first three weeks.
This quiz will count for 10 percent of the course grade.

--During a class period before each multiple choice exam, a documentary video will be shown pertaining to some topic(s) in United States history relevant to the era being covered by that exam. Any student who writes an acceptable paper of no less than 600 words (typed and double-spaced) summarizing that documentary in his or her own words will receive up to five bonus points on that exam. The paper must be turned in (in typed and printed form, not electronically) no later than the beginning of the class period on the date of that exam. These three papers will be the only opportunities for extra credit in this course. There are no “make-ups” for the extra credit opportunities.

--Each student’s course grade will be determined according to the following scale, with no exceptions:
A=89.50 or above
B=79.50-89.49
C=69.50-79.49
D=59.50-69.49
F=less than 59.50

Classroom etiquette:
All participants in this class (students and instructor alike) will be expected to refrain from rude or disruptive behavior in class, to keep their cell phones turned off in class, and to stay awake in class.
